

City Champs Turn Back Mt. Angel; Play Papermakers Tonight

Game to Wind Up Local Play

Steinbock Limits Tourney Entry to two Hits in Exhibition Tilt

Sammy Steinbock limited Mt. Angel's tournament entry to two blows last night as Wait's, despite erratic play afield, turned back the invading softballers 9 to 3 in an exhibition contest on Sweetland field.

Bucknum, Mt. Angel first baseman, was the only batter to hit safely off Steinbock's delivery and also scored all of Mt. Angel's three runs.

Wait's took over the lead in the fifth inning when hits by Bone, Salstrom and Drynan, coupled with a pair of errors, netted three runs to make the score 6 to 3.

Three more came in the eighth when Scalen doubled to drive in Adolph and Glenn and Kitchen scored on a center field error.

Seven Mt. Angel errors contributed to Wait's victory. Score: Mt. Angel.....3 2 7 Wait's.....9 5

When Wait's, the city champions, and the Papermakers, winner over Hogg Brothers for the second Salem tournament berth, meet on Sweetland field at 8 o'clock tonight.

The Salem softball association will close its books on another season and turn Sweetland field over to the state softball association for the tournament starting next week.

While tonight's contest will be an exhibition game in that nothing is at stake the two teams will be putting forth to the utmost.

Wait's to maintain face as city champs and the Papermakers in an attempt to knock over the Butchers in the same abrupt fashion in which it eliminated Hogg Brothers from tourney consideration.

Percy Crowfoot, the Papermakers' windmill style hurler, will be on the mound against Wait's by special request. Fearing that they will be called upon to face the baffling windmill delivery early in the tournament, Wait's are seeking a little practice at Crowfoot's expense.

Vern Gilmore, who with Tom Drynan and Pete McCaffery has been drafted to Wait's colors, will be the starting pitcher for the city champions.

The Papermakers have added one pitcher, an infielder and two outfielders to their club, all drafted from Hogg Brothers. They annexed George Roth, Hogg Bros. speedball hurler, Ernie Garbarino, second base, and Jim Nicholson and George Gausey, outfielders.

As the second contest of the final performance a picked team from the junior league will meet the Eagles in a challenge game.

Dallas Nine Wins Over West Salem

DALLAS — Dallas' Shreeve Garage softball nine slaughtered the West Salem aggregation 23 to 3 here Wednesday night in the final district contest. It was defeat No. 2 at the hands of Dallas for the visitors who upset Independence last week 3 to 2.

The locals posted two West Salem hurlers for 18 base hits in Wednesday's farce, running wild with the aid of nine errors. West Salem collected 11 scattered hits off Dallas' pitcher Bruce Eckman. The winners tallied 15 times in two innings.

Dallas held a 5 to 2 lead going into the last of the sixth inning, and converted three hits and a pair of errors into six runs. The eighth became a nightmare for West Salem.

Hugh Ashby, Shreeve Garage catcher, contributed the game's longest hit, a home run clout in left field, in the seventh frame with one man aboard.

Brilliant Battery

STRATTON

—IN HIS FIRST FULL BIG LEAGUE CAMPAIGN, MONTE IS HEADED FOR A-L. MOLAND LAURELS—

HIS SUBMARINE TOSSES ARE PROVING A REAL PUZZLE TO THE HITTERS.

ONE of the year's most phenomenal hurlers is young Monte Stratton, pitching ace of the Pale Hose.

Monte is really going through his first big league season, though he was on the Sox payroll all of last year. Illness kept Stratton on the sidelines in 1936, but he has proved to be a great investment.

A lanky, towering fellow, measuring 6 feet 5 inches, Monte bends low and tosses a semi-submarine delivery that is really a puzzle to the hitters.

Behind Stratton's sensational rise is the other half of the White Sox wonder battery, catcher Luke Sewell.

This veteran backstop is one of the smartest receivers in baseball, and his knowledge of batters' weaknesses has been a prime factor in the success of Stratton, Kennedy, Lee, and other Sox slingers.

Luke may slow up with the years, and he isn't a great hitter, but Jimmy Dykes will tell you that his ace maskman is worth his weight in gold. Sewell is the master mind behind the brilliant pitching of the Pale Hose.

Ranger Wins out; Fog Hides Yachts

MATTAPOISETT, Mass., August 19.—(AP)—Ranger, Harold S. Vanderbilt's defender of the America's cup, won her 19th race today, but her victory went to a large degree unwitting because the contest was sailed for the most part in a fog so thick it scarcely was possible to see the length of the contenders.

The Vanderbilt sloop finished a 32-mile squadron run from Newport, R. I., more than 15 minutes ahead of Endeavour I. T. O. M. Sopwith's unsuccessful challenger of 1934. Sopwith's recently defeated second challenger, Endeavour II, came home 26 seconds behind her old sister.

Rainbow, now owned by Chandler Hovey, with which Vanderbilt vanquished Endeavour I three years ago, came in fourth more than three minutes astern of the new Endeavour and Gerard B. Lambert's Yankee did not finish.

Budge Overcomes Slump; Still Wins

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 19.—(AP)—The severe slump that has ruined Don Budge's mighty tennis game appeared to be waiting today when he led his three closest American rivals, Frank Parker, Bryan "Bitzy" Grant and Bobby Riggs, into the semi-final round of the historic Newport Casino tournament.

Budge's touch and timing deserted him several times during the four-set match, but he managed to pull out a 10-8, 7-5, 3-6, 6-3 victory over John McDiarmid.

Back to Eight.

Indications now are that the softball association, after a sorry experiment with a six team circuit, will return next year to the old eight team standby.

This has been a poor season for the league and part of the reason has been that the constancy of games was broken by the Thursday night seasons devoted to the junior league.

This year the softball association will not be bragging about how much money it puts in the bank, though it will still be well on the black side of the ledger.

Cubs Snap out Of Loss Habits

Defeat Pirates and Boost Lead to Three Games as Giants Lose

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 19.—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs got out the skid chains today in time to prevent a rout in their three-game series with Pittsburgh, winning the final contest 7 to 3.

The triumph, while the New York Giants were losing, gave Chicago a lead of three games in the close National league race.

Curt Davis hurled excellent ball except for a home run pitch to young Bill Eubaker in the second inning after Todd had singled. In the third with the bases loaded and one out, he prevented the Buccaneers from scoring.

Bees Stop Giants BOSTON, Aug. 19.—(AP)—The Bees stopped the New York Giants' dash toward the National league today by squeezing out a 2 to 1 decision in 11 innings, behind the all-but-airtight pitching of their "Old Man" rookie, Jim Turner.

The defeat, which was pinned on the Giants when Hal Warstler and Elbie Fletcher singled and Bob Reis drove in the winning run with a pinch-fly, ended the New Yorkers' five-game winning streak.

Wind up Plans For Golf Show

Visit of Four big Stars Saturday Is Awaited; Public Is Invited

Extensive preparations being pushed to completion Thursday by the Salem Active club and the Salem Golf club for entertainment here Saturday of the four traveling professional stars who will show their wares on the Salem course that afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, and of the hundreds of golfers and others interested in the game who will form the gallery.

There is no charge to the public and golfers from all parts of the Willamette valley are being invited.

The Active club has arranged for Harry V. Collins, district manager of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company who has taken on great interest in promoting all types of amateur sport in Salem and is an active golfer himself, to serve as master of ceremonies and introduce the visiting golfers.

The "warmup" exhibition will take place before the hill in front of the first tee and the spectators are expected to find vantage points on this hill, from which to view this unusual program.

Members of the Active club have been assigned as gallery marshals and will maneuver a guard rope which will keep the crowd back from the players and out of the line of flight of their shots during the match. It is planned to rope off this area at all times large enough so that everybody will be able to see what is going on. As the match proceeds, all scores will be announced, together with the standing of the teams, after each hole.

Although the professional stars will play a best ball match in which only the score of the low man on each team will count, all four will hole out on each green in order that their medal scores may be recorded.

At the golf club, all fairways and greens were being mowed late this week so that the course will be in apple-pie order. "Back tees" will be used so that the course will be more difficult than normal and approximate the length of the championship courses these men are accustomed to play. The greens, recently top-dressed, have rounded out in excellent shape.

MT. ANGEL—By winning Tuesday night's softball game here 5 to 6 from Silverton, the Mt. Angel All-Stars gained the right to represent District No. 9 at the state softball tournament at Salem next week, August 23 to 25.

On Monday night the All-Stars defeated the Silverton players 16 to 13 at the Silverton field, thus making the third of two of three games unnecessary.

Thursday night the boys will meet Wait's of Salem at Salem. This will be their last game before the tournament.

The Mt. Angel girls' softball team will also enter the tournament. Their first tournament game will be played next Wednesday, Aug. 25, at Salem with Portland No. 2 girls' team.

Two previous games, one Friday night here with the Silverton girls and another Monday night with Independence there, will serve as practice games. In their first encounter with Silverton Monday night the Mt. Angel girls came out victorious 14 to 7.

Beavers Held to Four Safe Blows

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—(AP)—The lowly Mission Reds played brilliant baseball behind Babich's steady pitching today to defeat the Portland Ducks 6 to 2, in a Coast league game.

Babich held the Ducks to a pair of hits until the fifth inning when Clabaugh and Bedore connected to play the major roles in the later two-run rally.

The Reds solved the underhand offerings of Lisks early in the game, scoring a tally in the second inning on a walk to Johnson and a two-base clout by Barath.

Harry Rosenberg hit a home run over the left field fence in the sixth to start a three-run rally, and doubled in the seventh to drive in two more runs.
