Here's a Real Safety Pledge Booster

Bill Shea, who has lain in Portland's St. Vincent's hospital since May 31 with a shattered leg, compound fractured arm, lacerated shoulder and a gaping hole in his thigh, pensively reads the Oregon State Motor association's safety pledge. He is one of Oregon's most confirmed believers in highway safety. Since his motorcycle was struck by an automobile he has been forced to lie in this position—and he has about four more weeks to go.

Gent in Ordinary To King not Sure About His Duties

SEATTLE, August 19—(P)—Sir Louis Grieg, K. B. E., and gentleman usher in ordinary to King George VI, arrived from Vancouver, B. C., by boat and confessed he didn't know what the words "in ordinary" meant in his title.

Sir Louis apparently never had been asked this before. He puzzled a moment.

"Damned if I know," he finally said.

Then he was asked what a gentleman in ordinary does.

"Well, not much of anything," said Sir Louis doubtfully.

"He shows people where to go," suggested Lady Grieg helpfully.

"Yes, and he hands out cards and things," added one of his two attractive daughters.

"Precisely, precisely," said Sir Louis, relieved. "I hand out cards and things. Quite simple, of course. Just show people. Hand out cards."

SILVERTON—Opening date for the Silverton schools has been set for September 20. It is understood that principals of the high schools will be in their offices the week prior to opening to give students an opportunity to discuss courses and registration.
