Stayton Sit Down Settled Amicably

STAYTON, Aug. 20—(AP)—Sit-down strikers in the West Stayton bean fields won their point and were back at work today receiving a flat $1 per hundred pounds.

Protesting against the practice of paying 90 cents for picking, plus a 10-cent bonus for fast pickers, workers in the Harry Stewart fields on the second picking of bush beans "sat down" yesterday afternoon and demanded the higher scale, which was granted this morning.

Leading growers said they needed about 800 more pickers at the new scale to finish harvesting the crop. Six thousand pickers were signed at the start of the season, but this number has dwindled to about 2,000 by workers leaving for the hop fields.

Public Debt Mounts

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20—(AP)—A treasury announcement of new borrowing indicated the public debt will climb past the $37,000,000,000 mark next week.
