

Two Tie With Crowfoot for All-Star Honors

Georgeson, Endicott Other Hurlers Listed; Papermaker Pitcher Is Best Sportsman

Sutton, Bob Dunn, Kitchen Are Awarded Positions on All-State Softball Nine; Beard, John Dunn, Causey Mentioned, Honor

1937 ALL-STATE SOFTBALL TEAM
Pitchers—Percy Crowfoot, Papermakers, "Biff" Georgeson, Rotary Bread, Ellis Endicott, M & M Woodworkers.
Catcher—Charles Christensen, Eugene.
First base—Vesper Brown, Rotary Bread.
Second base—Bill Sutton, Papermakers.
Shortstop—Bob Dunn, Papermakers.
Third base—Mike Biasco, M & M Woodworkers.
Left field—Harry Melcher, Rotary Bread.
Center field—Baden Rupert, Marshfield.
Right field—Harold Barry, Rotary Bread.
Utility—Lorne Kitchen, Wait's, Chuck Houston, M & M Woodworkers.

OUTSTANDING SPORTSMAN
Percy Crowfoot, Papermakers.
Percy Crowfoot of Salem's Papermakers, the lad who pitched the first no-hit-no-run game of state softball tournament history and nearly put the Papermakers in the finals with his baffling pinwheel delivery, took the major share of honors when a committee appointed by State President Harry V. Collins met yesterday to select the all-state team and name an outstanding sportsman.

Crowfoot was first choice for the outstanding sportsman award, beating out Red Gfette of M & M Woodworkers and Bill Sutton of his own team for the honor, and was also among three pitchers chosen unanimously for the all-state pitching crew.

Named along with Crowfoot as pitchers for the all-state team were "Biff" Georgeson of Rotary Bread, who pitched his team to a 5 to 1 win over Wait's, the Salem city champs, and Ellis Endicott, M & M hurler who beat the Papermakers.

Georgeson, although he has three times been a semi-finalist in the tournament, made his debut as an all-star. Endicott replaced his teammate, Mickey Berlant, who for the past two years has been choice for all-state pitcher.

Named as catcher was Charles Christensen of Eugene, who with Baden Rupert of Marshfield were the only players of other than Portland or Salem teams to make the all-star selections.

Rotary Bread led in selections with four of that team being chosen to the squad of 13 players. The Papermakers and M &

M Woodworkers each had three while Wait's of Salem, Marshfield and Eugene each had one. Lorne Kitchen of Wait's, who was named to the all-star team as a utility infielder, was the only repeater from last year's all-star team. Kitchen was named as all-state second baseman in both 1935 and 1936.

Two members of the tight Papermakers infield, one of the fastest fielding units which has ever shown in a state tournament, were selected for infield positions on the all-state team. Bill Sutton, who won a place despite being a less powerful hitter than several other candidates, was placed at second base while Bob Dunn won the shortstop position. It is Dunn's second all-state selection for he was named all-state shortstop when he played with Eugene in the 1934 softball tournament.

Vesper Brown, whose extra base hitting made him a leader among Rotary Bread's crew of powerful batsmen, was chosen as all-state first baseman, narrowly edging out Johnson of M & M, who was given honorable mention.

Chosen as third basemen was M & M Woodworkers' Mike Biasco, a veteran tournament player and a heavy hitter. Harry Melcher, slugging Rotary Bread hurler, who hit an even .500 up to last night's game, was chosen for the left field position. Another slugger, Baden Rupert of Marshfield, whose hitting record was tops for the first five days of the tourney, was placed in center field. Harold Barry, another hard hitter of the Rotary crew, was given the right field spot.

Named as utility players were Lorne Kitchen of Wait's and Chuck Houston of M & M Woodworkers. Voting on the two and Bill Sutton for second base position was so close that the committee could only name both of them as utility. Kitchen handled more chances than any other infielder, other than first baseman, in the tournament and had only one error chalked against him.

Given honorable mention were the following: Pitchers, Guy Rusteigo, Rotary Bread; Bill Jones, Eugene. Catchers, Red Gfette, M & M Woodworkers, Bill Beard, Wait's. Infielders, Morris Heiser, Rotary Bread; Sonny Ash, M & M Woodworkers; D. Johnson, M & M Woodworkers; John Dunn, Papermakers.

Outfielders—Jacy Causey, Papermakers; A. Pascuzzi, M & M Woodworkers; C. Schoenheinz, Marshfield.

Portland Girls State Titlists

Pade's Lose, 9 to 7, to Lind-Pomero in Final of Women's Play

Lind-Pomero's Portland girls softball team won the first women's state softball championship as it defeated the Pade's team of Salem 9 to 7 on Sweetland field last night.

The Portland team, getting to Pitcher Rae Yocom early, took a five run lead in the first two innings and kept ahead of the Salem lasses all the way despite a late inning Salem rally.

"Took" Burg, Portland chucker, limited the Salem girls to six hits but two of those were home runs by Barbara Kurtz, who drove in three of Salem's second run. The slugger Portland champs took 14 blows off the delivery of Rae Yocom and benefitted further by five Salem errors.

After Lind-Pomero scored three runs in the first inning and twice more in the second Salem was unable to cross the plate until the fourth when Kurtz homed to drive in two runs. The Portlanders better than matched that with four scores in the same frame.

Pade's scored two more on two hits and an error in the fifth and added another when Kurtz homed for the second time in the sixth. Salem's last two runs came in the seventh on a hit and a pair of errors.

Score:
Pade's 7 6 5
Lind-Pomero 9 14 3
Rae Yocom and Moore; Burg and Frost.

Beavers Lose Out to Padres

Missions Trounce Solons as Doljack, Blasted, Wins, Anyway

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Aug. 28.—(AP)—Halting a ninth-inning rally after two had scored and with two on base, San Diego's Padres shaded Portland, 3 to 2, here today to remain in the thick of the coast league pennant battle. The Beavers held a three-to-two edge in the series.

Ted Williams, Padre freshman outfielder, poled his second homer in two days, his third of the series and his 17th of the season. In the ninth, two-baggers by pinch hitter Mike Tresh and first baseman Johnny Frederick, walks to outfielder Moose Clabaugh and infielders Fred Bedore and catcher Bill Cronin's infield out netted the invaders a pair of runs. Southpaw Wally Hebert forced Pete Coscarart to ground out to end the threat.

The Padres are a game behind the league-leading Sacramento Senators. The score today: Padres, 3; Solons, 2. San Diego 3 7 2
Hebert and Starr; Hare and Cronin.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 28.—(AP)—After being ordered out of the game the last two nights for protesting decisions, Frank Doljack decided to keep quiet tonight and stay in the game. He did, and batted in six runs to defeat Sacramento 7-1, almost single-handed.

Missions 7 12 4
Sacramento 1 8 2
Nicholas and Outen; Newsome and Franks.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—(AP)—Bunching hits in the first two frames, the San Francisco Seals walloped Seattle 7 to 2 in a Pacific coast league baseball game today. The visitors have won one of the week's five games.
Seattle 2 12 1
San Francisco 7 13 0
Turpin and Spindel; Stutz and Monzo.

OAKLAND, Calif., Aug. 28.—(AP)—Joe Berry, defeated by the Oaks in the first game of the current series, came back to pitch the Angels to a 2 to 1 victory today, yielding eight scattered hits. The win gave Los Angeles a 3 to 2 edge in the week's play.
Los Angeles 2 10 0
Oakland 1 8 0
Berry and Collins; Olds and Raimond.

Will Battle Tiny

Gene O'Grady, Ashland heavyweight boxer who will meet Tiny Cooper of Hubbard at the armory next Friday night as the challenger in a ten round battle for the Oregon heavyweight championship.

Cooper to Defend Oregon Title Here

Hubbard Boxer Will Meet Ashland's O'Grady in Friday Fight Card

"Tiny" Cooper, Hubbard's Oregon heavyweight titlist, will make the first defense of his crown since he won it from Frank Riggi over a year ago when he squares off with Gene O'Grady, Ashland battler, in the ten round main event of a fight card which the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Matchmaker Jack McCarthy are offering the Salem fight public at the armory next Friday night.

Nettled by O'Grady's recent and frequent challenges, Cooper has been seriously training for the defense of the belt awarded him by the Salem boxing commission. O'Grady, as serious in his quest of the title as Cooper is in keeping it, recently returned from Seattle where he worked out with the best heavyweights available there. He is reported as rapidly getting into top shape. O'Grady was hardened for the battle by several months' work swinging a pick on a highway construction crew.

Matchmaker McCarthy has lined up what looks like an excellent supporting card with six bouts, three four round bouts spotted before the main event.

Ted Peterson, Bill Sherrard's welterweight comer from Independence, will meet Sailor Dunston of Centralia in the six round semi-final. Peterson made it his seventh knockout win in a row when he gained a technical over Pete Keene in the main event of an independence fight card Friday while Dunston won easily over Danny McGinnis on the same card.

Pete Keene, 145 pound Centralia fighter, runs up against Roy Rameau, Portland battler, in a six round special event. Ernie Bailey, another of the Centralia boys, meets Joe O'Hara of Chemawa in one of the four round bouts while Redakin Wilson, Chemawa, and Walt Steele of Independence battle in another.

Herman Vogl, a boy whom McCarthy believes is a fine heavyweight prospect, makes his debut in the four round opener matched with John Joseph McGrath of Centralia. Both are light-heavyweights.

Bend Ties Toledo First Half Lead

BEND, Aug. 28.—(AP)—Bend defeated Toledo 16 to 8 here today in a replay of a protested first half game, sending the two teams into a tie for first half leadership in the state baseball league. Teams are now playing in the second half.

Pillette, leading hurler in the state league, was knocked from the box in the fifth, giving way to Spiker. Bend pounded out two homers in the barrage off Pillette.

The first half championship will be decided in a play-off game to be arranged by league officials.

Score today's game:
Toledo 8 9 3
Bend 16 20 3
Pillette, Spiker and McClain; Roberts and Hawkins.

Ex-Husky Named
PALO ALTO, Calif., Aug. 27.—(AP)—Virgil Jackson, former Washington State tackle, has been named football coach at Menlo junior college, succeeding Hal Dunker, resigned. Jackson was assistant last season to Dunker.

Giants Win two As Cubs Divide

New Yorkers now Only one Game Behind National League Leaders

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—(AP)—The New York Giants routed the Pirates in both ends of a double-header today, thus achieving five victories in three consecutive twin bills, and moved within a single game of the pace-makers Chicago Cubs.

The Polo grounds echoed with the roar of a crowd of 42,430 fans as the national league champions continued their forward surge, despite the second straight failure of their ace southpaw, Carl Hubbell, to show winning form.

Hubbell was knocked out of the box in the seventh inning of the opener, when the Pirates tied the score. Dick Coffman subdued the Cubs and the Giants staged a slugfest at the finish to take a 9 to 4 decision.

Hal Schumacher returned to form in the second game, limited the Pirates to four hits and gained an impressive 3 to 1 verdict as the Giants halted the six-game winning streak of 22-year-old Russ Bauers, rookie right hander.

First game:
Pittsburgh 4 13 2
New York 9 12 0
Blanton, Weaver, M. Brown and Todd; Hubbell, Coffman, Bowman and Danning.
Second game:
Pittsburgh 1 4 2
New York 3 10 1
Bauers, M. Brown and Todd; Schumacher and Danning.

Reds and Dodgers in Cellar
BROOKLYN, Aug. 28.—(AP)—The Dodgers and Cincinnati Reds, fighting to avoid the national league cellar, divided two pitching duels today and remained evenly where they were, with the Brooklyn half-game behind their rivals.

Roy Henshaw and Ben Cartwell gave the Reds only three hits in the opener, but that was enough for Cincinnati to score a 3 to 0 victory behind Paul Derringer's six-hit, elbowing, Big Max Butcher turned in a nine-hitter in the nightcap for a 2 to 1 Brooklyn triumph.

First game:
Cincinnati 3 3 1
Brooklyn 0 6 2
Derringer and Lombardi; Henshaw, Cartwell and Phelps.
Second game:
Cincinnati 1 9 0
Brooklyn 2 6 0
Schott and Campbell; Butcher and Spencer.

SPORTSPARK BY PAUL KAUSER

Another softball tournament is over and again Salem is sadly without a champion. Portland has a little out of balance. Salem has held the state softball championship just once, the year 1934 when Pade's beat out Euke Dye in the finals. Oregon City has had it once and the other three times, the last three times, it has gone to Portland. Somebody will have to do something about that situation next year.

Crowds Grow.

Despite the fact that none of the crowds except Friday's over-enthusiastic throng, especially large the tournament this year has been doing bigger business than last year. Even cold nights and bitter wind across the infield couldn't keep them away from the softball tournament and Gurnee Fleisher reports that the gate has been averaging about $50 better per night than last year. The fact that both Salem teams were in it right up to the last night accounts for that.

Pinwheel Percy.

So much for softball. Except to say that Percy Crowfoot deserved the honors he won as all state pitcher and outstanding sportsman. Crowfoot never squawked once when the umpire might have been just a wee bit wrong about a strike. He just grinned and whizzed another one of those invisibility specials through the slot.

Book From Bud.

Football is about ready to take over. The other day we received Bud Forrester's compilation of information about the Oregon State varsity. Bud, who left a job as managing editor of the East Oregonian to take the ballyhoo job at O.S.C., has put out a handy book, although as flashy as Bruce Hamby's creation at Oregon.

Best Since '33.

Forrester's book, which seems to be pretty frank and straightforward about the abilities and limitations of each player, says that football prospects at Oregon State are best since 1933, the year Lon Stiner's Iron Men lost only one conference game. Since only four regulars were lost by graduation Stiner will tip a squad containing some 20 lettermen. "The Orangemen," writes Forrester, "will play the same type of modern, wide-open, crowd-pleasing football which made them so popular last season."

Fight! Fight!

Fighting comes back to Salem next Friday when Jack McCarthy stages his baptism of effort at promoting. With Gene O'Grady and Tiny Cooper heading the card in a championship match the ex-referee has lined up a card which appears to have potentialities. While the big affair is the Cooper-O'Grady match McCarthy passes along a tip to keep your eyes on Hermie Vogl, a big kid who makes his first stab at fighting in the opener. McCarthy thinks Vogl is going to be something in the way of a heavyweight.

Louis' Odds Rise As High as 7 to 1

Farr Knockdown Perturbs Handlers, Makes Him Angry, Observed

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—(AP)—Sunshine flooded everybody's skies today except Tommy Farr's as the ex-Welsh coal-miner, one of the most belittled heavyweight challengers since Gentleman Jim Corbett warmed up for the mighty John L. Sullivan, awaited his chance at Joe Louis' title.

After a week of intermittent rain, which forced postponement of the big fight from Thursday to Monday morning, the sun came out with every indication of providing clear skies for the battle.

Promoter Mike Jacobs, reporting a new rush of ticket sales and few cancellations because of the postponement, was elated. Louis, though warned against over-confidence, also seemed bright and confident.

Farr, who hasn't been a fight favorite since his carnival days, was more angered than discouraged but his camp handlers were perturbed because a sparring mate, Abe Feldman, had scored a clean knockdown against the challenger in yesterday's workout at Long Branch, N. J. though they publicly dismissed the incident and mumbled something about a wet floor, they were worried lest Farr be over-trained.

Meanwhile, odds on the challenger soared rapidly from 4 to 7 and even 10 to 1, whereas on Thursday morning Louie money was hard to find.

WINNER OF THE WESTERN DERBY 3 TIMES IN A ROW... SHE TURNED IN A RECORD BREAKING CARD IN HER LAST TRIUMPH!

MARION MILEY

OFF HER RECENT TORRID FORM, SHE MAY BE DUE TO CAPTURE THE NAT'L TITLE AT MEMPHIS.

ONE of the prime favorites in the 1937 Women's National Golf Championship is an attractive brunette who answers to the name of Marion Miley. Marion has been burning the fairways to a blackened crisp of late, and she expects to be really torrid at Memphis, where this year's championship is being held.

Slam and boyish-looking, Miss Miley gets plenty of distance off the tee, and has a better than average short game. Possessing a fine competitive temperament, the Kentucky lass has every qualification for a links champion.

If the Miley gal plays as well in the nationals as she did in coping the recent Western Derby at Onwentsita, they might as well concede her the crown. Marion smacked Old Man Par all over the lot in scoring this notable win, posting a record score of 309 for 72 holes. In recent weeks, she hung up such figures as 70, two under men's par, at Cincinnati; 69 at Linville, N. C.; and 74 in coping the Kentucky state title at Lexington.

The tip-off on Miss Miley's title chances is that the golfing gals themselves pick her as the logical favorite at Memphis on current form. Now all she has to do is to get past such pushovers as Mrs. Vane, Patty Berg, Maureen Orcutt and Katherine Hemphill, among others.
