Miss Magers to Be Honored on Salem Day

By MAXINE BUREN

With the announcement of the appearance of Miss Minnetta Magers' Schubert Overture as featured musical event of the State fair for Salem day we recall many of the highlights of Salem's past musical life that were made possible through the efforts of Miss Magers.

Her many friends here will enjoy meeting her again. The Salem Music Teachers' association has made her honor guest for Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Magers was the first supervisor of music in the Salem public schools and resigned to conduct private vocal classes but she retained the Junior and Senior high school choruses until she moved to Portland where she remained since.

During the years of Miss Magers' residence here she was responsible for the scheduling of many great artists in the city. When Madame Nordica queen of all prima donnas made her farewell tour of the United States and sang in the arena before a packed house, Miss Magers was forced to sell standing room.

Other important artists who made a glorious procession of musical events in Salem under Miss Magers' management were Schumann, Heink, Frances, Alda, Davis, Blanton and a Glinka Zimbalist, Charles W. K. field Cadman, Carrie Jacobs Bond and many others of the day.

For 16 years Miss Magers has directed the Girls Polytechnic high school chorus and orchestra in Portland and the Schubert Ladies Overture which will appear on Wednesday of this week.
