Dr. Peter H. Fitzgerald, Well-Known Physician, Passes at Woodburn

WOODBURN—Dr. Peter H. Fitzgerald, 79, for many years a well known doctor in Oregon, passed away at 556 Third street Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. He is survived by his sister, Miss Mary Hersberger; niece, Mary Scollard, and two nephews, Cecil and Edwin Scollard. Funeral services will be held at St. Luke's Catholic church Friday at 9 a. m. Interment in St. Luke's cemetery with Beecher-O'Hair mortuary in charge. Dr. Fitzgerald attended Willamette university and Portland Medical college and was a practicing physician in eastern Oregon for the time in his reservation. For thirty years he operated a drug store and practiced medicine at Gervais. He studied extensively in Berlin and Vienna, leaving Europe in 1914 and located in England. He was a member of the state board of health, especially during the influenza epidemic of 1918. He also served as superintendent of the state tuberculosis hospital for three years.

Wilma Spence to Study, New York

ALBANY—Miss Wilma Spence of Albany left Monday for New York City where she will enter Columbia university to take special work to fit herself for a deanship. Miss Spence has taught for the past several years in the Albany schools and has been granted a year's leave of absence by the school board. Accompanying Miss Spence east was Miss Loretta Fisher of Salem. Miss Fisher, it is understood, will also enter Columbia to take advanced work in library work. Miss Fisher is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Fisher of Salem, formerly of Albany.

District Budget Meeting Is Set

ALBANY—At a meeting of the school district budget committee set for Wednesday, October 6, estimates of expenditures necessary to the operation of Albany schools district No. 6 will be made. Dan Breneman, clerk of the district, made the announcement today. Members of the committee include directors, V. L. Calavan, chairman, D. E. Nebergall, R. L. Burkhardt, C. E. Spence and A. G. Senders and the following lay members, A. B. Conroy, Max Brown, Wallace C. Eakin, Luke Harrison and Fred Forster.

Visitor at Airlie Departs for Home

AIRLIE—Mrs. Ruth Yocum who has been a guest of Mrs. Ann Wheeler this summer, returned to her home in California Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hastings went to Lyons Tuesday for a visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. L. E. Davis. The L. E. and Eben Davis families have purchased a farm in Toledo and are moving there immediately. Mrs. Jacob Ploub entertained with birthday dinner Tuesday evening given for her husband. Guests were members of the family: Alyce, Lucille, Francis and Jacob, Jr.; Miss Ruth Ploub, John Bucker and Mr. and Mrs. George Ploub.

NLRB Bethlehem Steel Hearing

View of hearing

One of the most important hearings yet held by the national labor relations board is under way at Franklin borough school, near Johnstown, Pa., and the Cambria plant of Bethlehem Steel, where the board is weighing charges of the C. I. O. that Bethlehem violated the Wagner labor act. Mayor Daniel Shields of Johnstown, one of the witnesses summoned, was accused of aiding strikebreakers by C. I. O. witnesses.

Change Dates for Parish Festival

SUBLIMITY—At a special meeting of the parish consultors last Sunday it was decided to have the parish fall festival and dinner this year on October 10 and 11th, not on Thanksgiving day as in years past. The altar society also called a special meeting to arrange the different committees. Mrs. Mike Benedict is president of the society.

Tuesday, September 7th was enrollment day for St. Boniface school although some of the children are still busy at the hop-yards and prune orchards. Indications are that St. Boniface school will have a larger enrollment this year than ever. Thus far 29 have already enrolled for junior high. Last Sunday afternoon Mrs. Ben Baker was taken to St. Vincent's hospital in Portland. She has given much of her time caring for the sick in the parish and now is on the sick list herself. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Family Tours West Looking for Location

SALEM HEIGHTS—Mr. and Mrs. Luther Barnard and son, Leon, who are touring the west seeking a new location, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Stolzhise last week. They were interested in the production and climate of Marion county. Mrs. F. W. Burger and sons, Donald, Milton and Tommy, spent a week in the mountains at Sisters, returning Sunday. F. C. Stannard is erecting a dwelling house on the west side of his place. B. F. Helkes of Falls City and a former resident of Salem Heights was visiting at the Chapman and Stolzhise homes Sunday. Weekend guests at the P. F. Stolzhise home were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peterson and family and Howard Sayre of Halsey, Ore., and Virgil M. Sayre and family of California. The condition of Mrs. Henry Peck is reported improved. Austin Lowe has purchased the new home of Granville Ball.

120 Pupils Enroll At Heights School

SALEM HEIGHTS—Salem Heights school opened Monday September 7 with 120 enrolled, an increase of 15 over last year. Some children are still in the hop and prune work. Mrs. Agnes Booth, principal and teacher of 7th and 8th grades; Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, 5th and 6th; Mrs. Charlotte Jones, 3rd and 4th; Miss Margaret Barquist, 1st and 2nd. Miss Barquist has enrolled 41. She will teach the first grade in the forenoon and the 2nd in the p. m., beginning next week. Chester F. Skelton is the janitor. Illustrating the influx of new people in the district, there are pupils from the eastern states, Hawaiian Islands and Canada.

Mountain View's Stock Club Does Well, State Fair

MOUNTAIN VIEW—Members of the local boys' 4H stock club scored as follows at the state fair: Earl Dean Withers, third on pen of Berkshire hogs; Lyle Knower, second and sixth on three Jersey cows. Knower scored three firsts and a second on this trio at the Polk county fair. James S. Stuart, leader of the 4H group, and a Future Farmer, placed with a second and two thirds on his pen of Hampshire hogs. Shirley Rose Adams, the only 4H girl clubber to score, placed second on oven baked biscuits. She had placed first on the same entry at the Polk county fair.
