Guard Against Oppressor and Selfish Interest, Gordon Declares

The American colonies had experienced 150 years of oppression prior to achieving independence, and so the framers of the United States constitution were well prepared to draft a charter which would prevent such oppression inthe future, Herbert Gordon, Portland realtor, told members of the Salem realty board in an address Friday noon at the organization's first fall meeting following a sum-

The constitution was devised also as a bulwark against the forces of special privilege which were threatening disintegration Observance Held of the nation under the confederacy, Gordon said; and later attacks upon the constitution have been the work of these same interests. The constitution-makers took special pains to protect the people against their elected officers, he mentioned. Another speaker at the realty board luncheon was T. W. Zimmerman, secretary of the Oregon Association of Real Estate Boards, who urged all members of the Salem board to attend the state convention in Eugene next week. The board yoted to hold no luncheon next Friday so as to encourage attendance at Eugene.

Special Services to Open Fall Work of Church, Programs Listed

Sunday has been designated as Rally day in the Calvary Baptist church. Many special features have been planned to make the day interesting and inspiring as the fall work of the church opens. The first service of the day is the church school at 9:45 a. m. A goal of 300 in attendance has been set with the school offering a prize to the class having the highest percentage in attendance. A special speaker and music will form a part of the closing period.

Morning worship follows at 11 o'clock, Rev. Arno Q. Weniger. pastor, bringing the message. An intensive effort is being made to have every seat occupied next Sunday. A rapid tabulation of the calls made during "visitationweek" will be made to reveal the effort that has been put forth. Important plans and statesments regarding the building of the new house of worship will be presented and made to the church.

Dr. F. W. Starring of Portland executive secretary of the Oregon Baptist state convention, is to be the speaker at the two evening services.
