Woman's Club To Open Year

First Meeting to Be Held Monday, October 11, With Program

SILVERTON—Mrs. A. P. Solie, president of the Silverton Woman's club, has announced the autumn plans and committees with the first meeting to be held on October 11 at 2:15 p. m. at the social rooms of the Methodist church. All women of the community are invited.

Mrs. H. B. Latham and her committee are arranging for the social hour, including tea, following the program. Mrs. E. E. Taylor and Mrs. George Jasecke will serve as a hospitality committee.

Appearing on the program will be Mrs. George Hubbs, history of the Woman's club; Miss Lillie Madsen, review of late books; Mrs. W. M. Swift, violin solo, and Mrs. Ernest Byberg, a piano solo.

Committees Named
 Committee appointments for the remainder of the year include: Program, Mrs. Jonas Byberg; Mrs. H. B. Latham and Mrs. Scott McPike; membership, Mrs. A. T. Titus, Mrs. Charles Hoyt and Mrs. Dewey Allen; nomination, Mrs. F. G. McDonald, Mrs. S. Ames and Mrs. F. B. Renwick; civic, Mrs. J. C. Morley; Mrs. G. B. Bonison and Mrs. M. Lentach; budget committee, Mrs. R. McCanathan, Mrs. W. R. Tomison and Mrs. Clay Allen.

Farm Improvements Made in Rickey Area Include Modern House for Vogt

RICKEY—Among farm improvements made here recently are:

A modern house erected by W. Vogt; a large barn built by H. D. McMillin; an addition built onto his house by Ira Reinhardt; a cattle barn built on the Russell Clearwater ranch; the enlarging of the silo at the Hazel Dell dairy; and a number of alterations on dwellings on the Childs addition.

Admits Slaying

Ruth Corwin, bride of a month and former inmate of a correction school, is held at Reed City, Mich., following her alleged confession to fatally wounding seven-year-old Billy Lahn, a neighbor boy, when the latter threw apples at her small brother.

Electric Program For Hills Certain

SILVERTON HILLS—Indications are, say committee members, that the electric program planned for here will go through in the near future. Jerry Mason and William McArthur of Portland were here during this week helping in the details of the plan.

The Silverton Hills electric committee will have a display booth at the community fair here Saturday.

To Visit Homestead

SCIO—Eveline Blyen of the Blyen Den area east of Scio, planned to make a trip this week to the Echo region in eastern Oregon, where she has land interests. Miss Blyen taught school in that part of the state while she was acquiring title to a homestead, which she still owns.

John Lichty, jr. Is School Editor

First 4-H Club Organized Health Project With Roth as Chief

CENTRAL HOWELL—John Lichty, jr., was selected as editor for the News Flash, school paper which is published and edited monthly by the pupils.

The Happy Health Heralds 4-H club was organized Monday with 42 members. Officers are: Robert Roth, president; Mildred Botten, vice-president; Erma Kuend, secretary.

Room certificates from the state library are on display in both primary and upper grade rooms.

Manager for Sorority Jean Leuderbach, a junior, is living at the Alpha Phi sorority house of which she is manager while attending Willamette university.

John Lichty who spent several weeks at Brettenbush Springs the past summer has gone to Soap Lake, Wash., for the benefit of his health.

Leonard Lichty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alice Lichty, has won a trip to Washington, D. C., for his expert stock judging in the FFA. The trip will be made in October.

Settlement out of Court Reached in Damage Case

SCIO—Settlement by stipulation between the litigants was reached in circuit court in Albany a few days ago in the damage suit of Ruth Hale against J. H. Bubbs. The case grew out of an auto accident which occurred between Scio and Jefferson nearly 18 months ago. Damages were to the car.

Repair School Building

UNIONVALE—Reshingling the schoolhouse and woodshed has been completed and building a new porch is in progress.

Church Conclave Slated October 11

LEBANON—The Churches of Christ of Linn county are planning to hold their first convention October 11, at the Brownsville church. A vital and stimulating program has been arranged for the congregations of Linn county. The opening session will begin at 10 a. m. followed by a club dinner at noon. The committee is Deane Hall, Russell Hartman and Jasper Havens.

For the past week Miss Margaret Phelps has had as her guest, Miss Isabel Hawkins of Seattle. Both Miss Hawkins and Miss Phelps served as counselors at the Girl Scout Camp Chaparral in California the past summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Schlitz and granddaughter, Mildred Reigle, of North Cahto, Ohio, have been visiting at the home of Mrs. C. F. Schlitz, a recent newcomer to Lebanon.
