Gevurtz Furniture Company Opens New Store to Serve Salem

Pioneer Firm's Growth Steady

Opened in Portland 1880; Building Is Remodeled to Suit Needs Here

A brand new store in Salem but a pioneer store in Oregonsuch is the Gevurtz Furniture company's establishment at 275 North Liberty street, former Montgomery Ward location, opened during the past week. With the aim of making it the most modern and attractive store of its kind in Oregon, the build-ing has been completely re-modeled to fit the needs of the Gevurtz Furniture company and to provide one of the most convenient and easily accessible furniture stores for patrons in Salem and surrounding territory.

The personnel of Gevurtz' new store has been chosen from men and women of Salem well known for their intimate knowledge of the needs of local homemakers, and it is the desire of the Gevurtz management to express appreciation for the cordial welcome extended by the merchants and other residents of this community.

Started in 1880

It was in-the "horse and buggy days" of old Oregon that Isaac Gevurtz opened a pioneer furniture store-the year 1800. And with confidence where value. in the year 1919 Sanford C. Brant and Matthew Gevurtz reorganized the business, in which Louis Ge- surpassed. vurtz soon after became secretary-treasurer.

Today, the Gevurtz Furniture company, directed by Mr. Brant Independence OES and Mr. Gevurtz, is one of the finest and most beautiful modern home furnishing stores on the Pacific coast, just recently completely remodeled in the very latest style trend.

One sees Gevurtz sign boards on every arterial highway leading into Portland, displaying the well known trade mark of the pelican with the slogan, "a little down on a big bill" homemakers to use their credit chapter, OES, Tuesday night in at this big, friendly store-a slo- the Masonic hall, with 100 memgan that is also familiar to those who each Tuesday night tune in officer had a special guest for Gevurtz radio feature, "Covered | the evening, making "twin offi-Wagon Days," oldest radio program in the northwest, which interprets with the aid of a full en Keys" honored the guests. dation was given to the cooperacast of artists, the fascinating Taking part in the degree were tive movement undertaken by narrative of the pioneer history Mrs. Van Crider, Mrs. Betty Van farm groups and emphasis was and romance of the Oregon coun- De Bosh, Mrs. Joe Rogers, Mrs. given to this plan as the only way try. And in so doing, this popular instision. tution has won the confidence and esteem of thousands of lifelong friends, as Gevurtz' rapid growth and expansion testifies. Well aware of the progress and spirit of this city, the proprietors of Gevurtz have for years had their eye on Salem with the desire to establish here a store in every way representative of the needs and expressed wishes of Salem people, equipped in every way to render greater and more personal service and carrying the same well known nationally advertised lines of home furnishings carried by Gevurtz of Portland. Here in this new store dedicated to Salem and community. homemakers will be greeted by displays of Gevurtz' highly regarded Buckingham upholstered this place, a niece, Mrs. Ida Fosfurniture, Krochler furniture ter of Lebanon, and other nieces made by the world's largest furniture manufacturer, Rome de Luxe and Simmons Beautyrest alceping equipment, Leonard electric refrigerators, Philco all-wave radios, Thor, Apex and Barton washers and ironers, Estate and Gaffer & Sattler gas ranges, Standard and Estate electric rauges, Duo Therm and Lonergan oil heaters, Hoover cleaners, I E. Dam Work Also Slated

For Discussion

Two questions will probably be

"gentleman's" agreement between county and city. Construction of a diversion dam in the ditch is now necessary, says Alderman Williams, and as it drains state and county property, as well as city, he intimated that they should help stand the expense of construction. Last winter the dam in the ditch went out, paralyzing operason expect to leave next month | tions at the paper mill, which for their former home in Phoenix, relies, to a large extent, on water provided by that ditch.

Policy Unchanged The policy of "Gevurtz of Sa-lem" will be identical with that of the main store and of Gevurtz' store, the Ross Furniture company at Marshfield, including the same sensible prices, competant, courteous service and convenient terms. The opening of Gevurts of Salem will also mark the debut of a well known young Salem man as a member of the staff, in the erson of William "Bill" Gwynn, trosh. Games and refreshments as manager.
