Franklin Will Oppose Piluso

Last Week's Referee may Seek to Get Even for Rough Treatment

Wild Ernie Piluso and tough, wiry Noel Franklin of Portland will meet in a one-hour "hate" hattle at the Salem armory Tuesday night. Referee will be Bobby

The bout, surprising climax to a day of negotiations, was announced late last night by Promoter Herb Owen, who had sought for several hours to persuade Rod Fenton to accept Piluso's "nothing barred" challenge. Fenton flatly refused to meet Piluso in a rematch, under any rules, and Piluso then asked for a chance at Franklin.

"I'll force Fenton into a match with me by giving Franklin such a lacing that the fans will demand it," the Rose City Italian bellowed over the long-distance telephone.

Franklin was referee of the main event bout last week which Fenten won. Piluso, outraged by what he considered an inexcusable decision, kayoed Franklin and started a free-for-all riot.

Harry Elliott, injured during the melee, broke his contract with Owen yesterday. "I'm through as referee here," he said. "I don't have to take that sort of thing from these guys, and I'm not having any more for awhile." Owen immediately signed up Burns for the third man.

Promoter Owen hopes to have supporting matches lined up by

Columbus Finally Loses to Newark

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 2-(AP)-Newark's Bears, champions of the international league, combined 11 bingles with five Columbus errors tonight to defeat the Red Birds, 8 to 1, in the fourth game of the little world series. It was Newark's first win in four starts, the Birds having swept the three games played at Newark.

Grid Scores

(By The Associated Press) Far West Oregon State 6; California 24. Stanford 6; Oregon 7. Idaho 0; WSC 13.

Southern Oregon Normal 6; Al-Duke 34: Davidson 6. Washington 7; USC 0. lina State 0.

Linfield 7; St. Martin's 0. U of Wyoming 7; U of Nevada mond 0. Pacific U 0: U of Portland 36. San Francisco 21; Daniel Baker (Tex.) 0. San Diego State 3; Occidental Idaho (Southern branch) 45; Ricks 0.

Pomona 13; Whittier 7. Albright 20; Geneva 0. Army 21; Clemson 6. Boston college 21; Kansas State bany 6.

Boston U 33; Lehigh 6. Brown 13; Rhode Island 6. New York U 18; Carnegie Tech

Columbia 40; Williams 6. Cornell 40; Colgate 7. Dartmouth 31; Amherst 7. Catholic U 14; Loyola (New Orleans) 0 Fordham 66; Franklin & Marshall 0. City college of New York 24; Brooklyn college 0.

Georgetown 38; Shenandoah 0. Harvard 54; Springfield 0. Holy Cross 7; Providence 0. Lafayette 33: Upsala 0. Texas A & M 14; Manhattan 7. Bowdoin 12; Massachusetts

New Hampshire 21; Bates 12. Penn State 32; Gettysburg 6. Pennsylvania 28; Maryland 21. Princeton 26; Virginia 0. Vermont 7; Renssalaer Poly 6. Rutgers 20; Hampden-Sydney

Randolph-Macon 26; St. John's (Annapolis) 7. Tufts 20; Colby 7. Union 9; Hobart 0. Navy 32; The Citadel 0. Ursinus 11; Delaware 6.

Villanova 42; Penn Military 0. Wesleyan 17; Connecticut State Pittsburgh 20; West Virginia 0. Yale 26; Maine 0. Muhlenberg 18: St. Lawrence 6.

Muskingum 7; Washington & Jefferson 6.

South Georgia 13; South Carolina 7. Tennessee 27; Virginia Poly 0. Georgia Tech 28; Mercer 0. North Carolina 20; North Caro-

Washington & Lee 6; Rich Vanderbilt 18; Chicago 0. Florida 18; Stetson 0.

Virginia Military 20; William k Mary 9. Centre 19; Oglethorpe 0. Auburn-Tulane, postponed un til Monday, rain.

Alabama 65; Sewanee 0. Mississippl State 38; Howard (East Tennessee Teachers 12; West Carolina Teachers 0. Illinois Wesleyan 2; Louisiana Tech 0.

Midwest Washington U (St. Louis) 45; William Jewell 0. Hanover 14; Wabash 12. Toledo 19: Georgetown (Ky.

Knox 20; Principia (III.) 0. Cornell (Ia.) college 20; Lawrence 0.

Coe 20; Central (Ia.) 6. Eartham 19; Holbrook (Ohio) St. Benedict's (Kan.) 20; Emporia Teachers 20 (tie). Nebraska 14; Minnesota 9.

Michigan State 19; Michigan

Ohio State 13; Purdue 0. Wisconsin 12; Marquette 6. Northwestern 33: Iowa State 0. Illinois 0; De Paul 0 (tie). Notre Dame 21; Drake 0.

Kentucky 6; Xaxier (Cincinnati) 0. Wayne 19; Akron 13. Heidelberg 13; Kent State 7. Miami (Ohio) 75; Marietta 6.

Mount Vernon 7; Hiram 7 Oberlin 2; Rochester 0. De Pauw 20; Rose Poly 0. Southwest

Texas Christian 7; Arkansas 7 (tie). Centenary 7; Southern Methodist 6. Oklahoma 6; Rice 0.

Tulsa 42; Central (Okla.) Teachers 6. Rocky Mountain Montana State 6; Utah State 6

Real Irish Shine In Beating Drake

McCarty and Such Achieve Most of Plaudits in Notre Dame Win

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 2-(AP)-The Irish-the real McCoy Irishswept Notre Dame to a 21 to 0 opening game triumph today over the Bulldogs of Drake university. There was no one in the battle front named McCoy, but the Irish attack was powered by young men with the unmistakable old sod names of Nevin Francis McCormick, Jack Gregory McCarthy, Patrick Francis McCarty and Charles William O'Reilly There was a lot of help contributed by Capt. Joe Zwers, Joe Juharich, Joe Ruetz, Andy Pupils and Marie Tonelli but the boys with the Irish handles won most of the acclaim of the 41,000 spectators.

ing period, an 18-yard pass from McCarthy to Zwers and a 14-yard gallop by McCormick, put the ball on Drake's five. From there McCarthy flipped neat pass to McCormick for a

Just before the end of the open-

McCarthy unreeled the thrillers of the day early in the third, racing 85 yards for a touchdown after Kuharich had intercepted Pug Manders' pass on Notre Dame's 15.

Brigham Young U 0; Utah 14. Colorado Mines 7; Colorado State 0. Western State 7; Colorado college 3.

Montana State 6; Utah State 6 Colorado 14; Missouri 6.

Texas School of Mines 19; New Mexico Military institute 3. High School Camas 12, Salem 7. Grants Pass 0: Ashland 12.

Hood River 14; Medford 13. Union 0; Baker 27. McLaughlin 6; La Grande 12 Lebanon 20; Roseburg 18. University high 12; Albany 34 Gresham 14; Parkrose 0. Klamath Falls 6: The Dalles 7 Franklin 6; Grant 0. Milwaukie 13, Corvallis 0. St. Helen's 20; Canby 0. West Linn 7; Newberg 0. Eugene 6; McMinnville 6.

CONGRATULATIONS,

OL' COOT!

plenty high powered, 'member? If our statistics are correct, Fresno State completed two flips for some 16 yards which isn't any-the night and Ron Gemmell write home about. But the way that boy Gleason "dulled" our enthusiasm for forecasting football games is enough to scribble reams about. Didn't someone inform us that he was "definitely out?" And even if we weren't so gullible, how did we know that the Bulldog fulltouchdown. Pupils placekicked the back was a whole pigskin pack in one basket? To make it more laughable, Gleason didn't roll up his 169 yards from scrimmage on any razzle-dazzle array of gridtrickery. No sir, he merely poked the pigskin beneath the wing and scrammed right through the middle on delayed bucks for the most of that distance.

Good Flip.

It wasn't the yardage made from scratch, though, that did the damage. Both Willamette and Fresno piled up enough of that, 191 and 242 respectively, to win a couple ball games. It was that 42-yard canter by Gleason after snagging Beard's pass that made the score board rattle. There wasn't anything wrong with that cast eitherit was right at its target and looked like a certain completion until the "injured" Gleason came from nowhere to snatch it right out of McBride's paws. Gee, we'd like to see that guy play when he felt well. -0-

Small, but Mighty. While "Spec's" outfit took a

> I HEARS YUH TOLD THAT BIG !

BROOZER WHERE T' GIT OFF AT

BULLY BILL

"With Mentor Bradshaw's most as hard a charging line as you are tion of Vern Gilmore, will swing effective weapons somewhat dull- likely to see this season. Not so into stride at senior high tomored . . ." was the way we expressed large, that Fresno forward wall, row with about 50 boys expected it Friday morn- but mighty quick on the surge. to participate. Due to the proxing. We were Some of the gaps they opened for imity of the field, many more talking about the plenty large enough. If you stop tunity to try for the team than Fresno overhead to think about it, the Fresno line in years previous, said Gilmore. attack that was is about the only one that has been Regular physical education pesupposed to be consistently able to stop Weis- riods can be utilized for those gerber's thrusts during the past boys who have bus schedules to three years. It was Beard who was meet after school and are unable the shining light offensively for to turn out at that time. the Bearcats Friday night. He repeatedly drove inside or around some good interference from Jahn, two-year letterman, and Weisgerber, Burnett, Stone, et al. Bob Ewing and Warren Bonney, to reel off 14, 17, and as high as thing to get up in 21 yards at a clip.

-0-

Defense Poor.

The Willamette team can stand a lot of attention on its defensive work. No one probably knows@that better than Coach Keene, so the Bearcats are Budge Drops Set probably in for plenty of defensive drill before they trek to Portland next Saturday to take on "Matty" Mathews' Portland university aggregation in Multnomah stadium. Most of the practice sessions to date have, necessarily, been taken up with offensive strategy. With so few lettermen and so many green freshmen it takes a lot of offensive drill to accustom them to the system. Offensive football is what makes the turnstiles click anyway, and outside of the score, Friday night's game met with the approval of nearly every one we've talked to. -0-

Graybeal Patent.

Jay Graybeal, is even a little bet- Pullman . . . made us 26 points passes, and neither was able to beating, they took it looking like ter than he has been publicized. worth of monkey.

Harriers to Open Practice Monday

Cross-country, under the direc-

The squad, according to Gilmore, will be headed by Amos McCrary in the finals. both one-stripers. While the team will point for the cross-country championships at Hill Military academy in Portland, November 24, there will also be four dual or three-way meets as well as interclass competition.

To Frank Kovacs But Wins Match

BERKELEY, Calif. Oct. 2-(A) Donald Budge moved today toward a likely fifth meeting this year with Baron Gottfried Von Cramm of Germany, by downing youthful Frank Kovacs in a semi-final match of the Pacific coast tennis championships.

Kovacs, junior star from Berkeley, gave Budge a tough workout and the Oakland redhead dropped the second set before taking the match, 6-4, 5-7, 7-5, 6-2.

Ahoy, mates! Maybe we go! That goes for Fullback Paul Rowe 'Spec" off to a bad start by call- also. But what took our fancy was ing his boys to trim the Califor- that not only did Graybeal flash nians, but by gum we finally got with his running game but also Oregon on the victory side. That is, ran the team with finesse and us and 20 or so huskies Coach good judgment. Cool as a pickled Prink Callison used against the herring, he mixed 'em up and Stanford Indians yesterday aft. Of opened the offensive wide open. course we didn't call the right Pellmell: California lacked nine Southern Oregon Normal school score by umteen point, but we points of walloping OSC as badly of Ashland and Albany battled to were the only nitwit in the north- as we predicted . . . Washington a 6-6 tie here this afternoon, in west to call the Webfoots to win beat USC 7 to 0 . . . we called it a football game transferred from And let us tell you right here and 14 to 7 . . . not bad . . . they just Ashland. Both teams scored in now that this little "jackrabbit," reversed the score on us up at the final quarter on forward

Seems as though football interfered somewhat with the golf schedule Saturday. In most of the Salem Golf club championship tournament matches that might have been played, it seemed that one or both of the contestants were down at Eugene. The only match recorded was McCrary's 4 and 3 win over Pekar in the second flight which, by the way, puts

-0-Three championship flight matches are on the slate for today: Taylor vs. Lynch, Eyre vs. Olinger, Victor vs. Bonesteele.

An event which we have failed to give due notice up to now on account of being out of town last weekend was the hole-in-one hagged by Phil Jaskoski on the eighth recently. He was playing with Dr. J. E. Albrich and Mr. Koch of Salem and Clarence Brown of Eugene.

-0-Golf is always in season for the high school boys, Aspirants for places on the Salem high team qualified Saturday and the fall matches may get under way this next weekend. Jud Comstock was low qualifier with a 73, Ray Farmer took 75, Mack Maison 80 and Al Currey 81 to place on the team for the present. Ray Woods made the alternate position by posting an 82. Others who turned in scores were Craig Randall, Carl Mc-Leod, Bill Snell, Ted Sherman, Max Liphart and Tom Pickett.

Sons and Pirates Scrap to 6-6 Tie

MEDFORD, Oct. 2 - (AP) - The convert

By CLIFF STERRETT

-YUH SHOULDA

SEEN HIS FACE!

"The Silver Rood Mystery" POLLY AND HER PALS

By LEWIS ALLEN BROWNE

Buffalo 13; Allegheny 7.

Trinity 25; Hamilton 0.

CHAPTER XVII

I left the house and started down the path. I saw some sparks and heard a tapping at the stile. It was, I guessed, one of the butlers, Daison or Mason, knocking ashes from a pipe. They were still gos-siping about the crime. Why not? They were as human and curious as any less dignified servants.

They stopped talking as I approached and stood respectfully saide. I stopped at the stile.

cumstances, sir," Mason said, "only what Mr. Davison has told me, and what I couldn't help overhearing at "I haven't so very much to tell him, sir," said Davison, "but you know we are discreet. We wouldn't talk to the servants." Dignified birds, these butlers. They never quite consider themselves to be servants. At least, they rate themselves ten levels above the "That's all right. A man wouldn't be human if he didn't want to discuss this mystery. What do you think about it, Davison?" "I searcely know what to think ir. I realize that, being in the house, as Mr. Mason just pointed out to me, puts me in a position of having the opportunity."

"But no motive, remember, I said at, Mr. Davison," Mason said, "We know Davison is out of it," declared. "I thought you might he walked through the station and gas and noticed that the South have some theories.' "That professor chap, sir - it must have been."

"It looks that way to me, sir," Mason agreed. "I am going to tell you something in confidence, about Brauman-" itting the crime." "Well, begging your pardon, sir, but how can any man know what ns another man may have?" Mason asked. "A good point, but Brauman dn't commit suicide, he was mur-

"What!" Mason said it with such force, nd in such a high-pitched voice, that it startled me. "Absolutely. He was murdered. His skull was fractured with some blunt object, a rock, perhaps. The don't think I'm not moving heaven doctors say he was dead before he and earth to get my hands on Griswas hanged."

"Murdered, sir? Peter Brauman Davison was aghast, plainly.

"But who would want to murder simple gardener, Mr. Stevenson?" "Your guess is as good as ours ason," I said, cheerfully. "He couldn't have had any co with the crime-with Mr.

ntieth's murder, do you think?" "We don't know what to think. What do you think?"

"I don't know, air-it gets more iled all the time," Davison re-

How are we to know that this dener didn't have some enemy? gardener didn't have some enemy?

He might have wronged someone—a girl, perhaps, and her brother or father—I suppose it's just all guesswork, Mr. Stevenson, but what I am trying to get at is that it doesn't

| killed Mr. Montieth had reasons for | wanting Brauman silenced." think?" Davison asked, with appar ent concern. "I have high hopes," I said, and "I don't suppose," I said, "that you have any theories that might help us?"

If wanted to find out what Foxcroft had learned about Griswold at Meadowville, and to see if Sergeant Harper was back from Kingsbury.

He was a trifle excited over the most of that?"

Then, again, I wanted to stroll until Levelsined about begins

Then, again, I wanted to stroll until I explained about having Mary about and see if Nola Morin did put in a call for Griswold and buy a few things and go to see a learning that he had gone. picture, as she told us she intend-

"I have plenty of work, aside from South Cove." from this case," he said, half apologetically.

"What about Griswold?" "He took a plane to Newark. I

"Your man or Griswold?" er who took the passenger from for an up-stairs maid. Meadowville to the Grand Central. Of course there is no means of finding out what train he took or where he went.

is hiding in New York." "That's so, Harley."

in Miss Morin's suit case, and he Nola Morin heading for it. read the copy, making a copy for himself. "It might mean anything. Now if Griswold hadn't run away like away.

"Oh yes, his suicide, sir. Even this, and thereby practically proved so, I believe it had nothing to do his guilt, I would say this might I'll be back right away," I told the with it. He had no reason for com- have some bearing on the case, but station man. I got out of the car as it is, it might mean anything." and followed the Morin woman's "But look here, Wally, don't you think she lied about going to ask Mr. Montieth for a raise? Wasn't down to River street and on to the ward him, with a show of irritation. "What the devil makes you so chap. letermined to try and clear Griswold?" he demanded.

"I only want to solve this thing, Wally," I replied and turned to go. "I'll have to work half the night on other business," he told me, "but don't think I'm not moving heaven wold. I'm having his whole life history looked up. See you tomorrow." I went out and over to the office of the State Police.

Sergeant Harper was expected back very soon, I was told. Greatport has a large-sounding name but it's not much of a town. There were more residents in South Cove, in summer, than in Great-port. I went into the best picture ouse. There were two there. I thought, when my eyes got accus-tomed to the semi-darkness, I could see the handsome blonde head of Nola Morin I couldn't locate her there or in the other picture house. Sergeant Harper was back when of the best there. The woman where he beards said that he had received a telephone call early in the morning. She called him and went about the killing of Mr. Months, and went about the killing of M "It doesn't necessarily follow, Mason, true, but the chances are a thousand to one that wheever car."

She didn't hear a word had both of the crime.

Since the chances are as and was getting out his car."

"What about the telephone? Did you trace it?" "It will be solved, sir-don't you Tried to. The operator was rather dumb-said she and made no record." "That's a shame, Sergeant. I'd went through the stile and on to the give a great deal to know if that house, leaving them with their pipes call came from-say, you can and gossip. They were excellent find out if anyone at South Cove butlers, but no help at all with the-morning! I got the car and drove to Great-port. I had several reasons for this. don't think I missed that bet. But I wanted to find out what Foxeroft a call was put through this afterhad learned about Griswold at noon from the Montieth house-He was a trifle excited over this "Well, we're back where we started to do, or if she went there to ed, Mr. Stevenson. What little I meet someone. Wallace Foxcroft was in his of- left in a hurry because of a telephone call and that it didn't come He started to tell me what Foxcroft had learned. I told him I had just seen Foxcroft. I went out and strolled around sent a man by another plane on to town some more, looking into such Newark to try and find out where shops as I thought Nola Morin he went from there, but we've lost might patronize, candy shops, drug stores, magazine places and the like. No sign of her. She was a "Griswold. Don't worry about my woman easy to find because she was detectives. Harley, they are clever. rather tall and unusually attract-My man finally found the taxi driv- ive. No one would ever take her

I gave it up and started to drive Luck was with me, in the form of an almost empty gas tank. I "Or whether it was a ruse, and stopped at a filling station to get Cove bus was parked just ahead of me. But I probably would never I told him about the note I found have noticed the bus if I hadn't seen A rather good looking chap was with her. He didn't board the bus, merely said something and turned

"Fill her up and park her here, she going to obey this "W" and go river landing. He got in a small down and tell him what was what?" launch and left. I asked the attend-Foxcroft pulled some papers to- ant at the landing if he knew the man. I saw him talking to the

> "Used to live 'round here. Name's Fellows-he's stayin' over av Pinedale," he informed me. Pinedale was a strip of shore > across the river, filled with cheap bungalows. I hurried back to Foxcroft's office, told him what I had seen and asked him if he knew anyone named Fellows who used to live here. "Fellows? Tall, reddish hair?" "Couldn't see his hair, he was tall."

"There was a Wilbur Fellows, hose mother was once Montieth's housekeeper. He forged a check on Mentieth, but managed to settle it without going up."
"Zowie! Wilbur, eh? And that note of Morin's was signed 'W'.

Foxeroft instantly forgot his other office duties and picked up the copy of the note I had made.
"Well," he smiled a rather wry smile, "W might mean anything, a last name or a first name. In fact

This looks like something, Wally!"

"Whate that?"

had both opportunity and motive for

(To be continued) Capyright by Lewis Allan Browns ributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc. A few Detours on Ashur's Map

MICKEY MOUSE MICKEY EFERY DAY! I WOULD LIKE ZIS! EXPLAIN, PLEASE! I AM BNIN GHA MICHAEL EMERGE FROM THEIR BRIEF BATTLE WITH BLACK EYES A DMA HEARTY RESPECT FOR EACH OTHER'S FIGHTING ABILITY!

WOT FER

UNK?

I'LL SAY

I DID!

An Optimistic View

TO TAKE A VACATION-EAVE MEDIOKA -- TRAVEL UNDER AN ASSUMED OF TIME UND FREEDOM! HOW ISS ZIS POSSIBLE

NAME -- WITH PLENTY OF MONEY, PLENTY

MY PLAN ISS FOR YOU

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

I KNOW YOU'RE AWFUL COLD AN' TIRED, ZERO-BUT DON'T YOU MIND - PRETTY SOON WE'LL COME TO A HOUSE OR A TOWN AN'THEN WE'LL GET NICE AN' WARM AGAIN -

AN' YOU KNOW AS LONG AS TERRIBLE LUCKY NO MATTER WHAT

BY BRANDON WALSH

By JIMMY MURPHY

OMIGOSH !!

OF SOMETHING

GREAT SCOTT!

JUST THOUGHT

WONDER IF --- ?

THIMBLE THEATRE—Starring Popeye

WELL - DID

YOU DO

IT?

THIS HEADLINE SEZ-"WHISKERY ONE-EYED OLD MAN PUSHES

WOMAN INTO RIVER

By SEGAR