Salem Women at Convention Monday

Several members of the Salem Women's club motored to St. Helens to attend the district meeting of the organization on Monday. The sessions, held at the Methodist church, were presided over by Mrs. Dora McLeod of Wheeler, district president.

Mrs. I. M. Schanney of Salem was elected vice president and Mrs. C. C. Geer, the president of the Salem Women's club, was chosen on the nominating committee for Marion county.

Among the interesting features of the program, and those particularly concerning Salem, was the singing of a song composed by Mrs. Clifton Mudd to enter in the Lydia Horsefall contest for the best song dedicated to Mrs. Sallie Orr Dunbar.

During the afternoon Mrs. W. F. Fargo read a poem written by Mrs. Jessie Singleton, a tribute to Mrs. Dunbar. Mrs. Singleton has only recently been elected to fill the chairmanship of the poetry committee for the state federation.

Mrs. Hannah Martin and Mrs. Schanney gave a dialogue concerning the Federated Women's club magazine.

The third district of Oregon Federation of Women's clubs includes nine counties and is the largest group of the state. Salem women attending were Mrs. J. M. Devers, Mrs. C. C. Geer, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mrs. Ivan Martin, Mrs. J. H. Brownson and Mrs. I. M. Schanney.

Delegates Report at Junior Club Session

Delegates who attended the district federation meeting in St. Helens Monday gave interesting reports at the regular meeting of the Salem Junior Woman's club Monday night at the clubhouse.

Those attending and reporting were Mrs. Vera Robb, Mrs. H. Princehouse and Miss Ruth Geer. Another federation meeting is to be held October 29 at Mill City and the delegates elected at the meeting were Mrs. Clinton Standish, Mrs. Ronald Creegan, Mrs. Joseph Felton, Mrs. Vern Robb and Miss Evelyn Akers.

The Past President's banquet honoring Mrs. Clinton Standish will be held October 25 and Miss Catherine Sibley is the chairman. A. W. Egan gave an informal talk at the meeting on "Child Guidance."

Art Exhibit Scheduled At Garfield

An exhibition of 150 reproductions of famous paintings will be on display at Garfield school on the afternoon of Tuesday, October 19, the evening of Wednesday and the afternoon of Thursday. A very small admission fee will be charged, and funds will go toward the purchase of pictures for the school.

This is a colored collection of paintings by European and American painters and should be of interest to study groups, club members and students of art.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Manguren entertained on Sunday in their home on Fourth street in honor of their daughter Sharron who celebrated her first birthday. The Carl Herzigstad family of Silverton, the Kenneth Maguire family and Mrs. Floyd Collier and daughters were guests.

Home Economics Club Dances At School

Members of the Home Economics club of Salem high school will be hostesses at the second annual "Tin Can" dance during activity period this afternoon. Each girl in the club has the privilege of entertaining four guests at the affair and every one is to bring a jar or tin can with fruit, vegetables, jam or jelly which will be given to the nursery school at Highland.

Doris Windsor is chairman of the committee in charge of the dance which is expected to draw a crowd of 400 members and guests. Mrs. T. W. Creech and Miss Marian Gray are advisors for the club.

The Home Economics club of Salem high is one of the most active in the school, with several important annual events under its sponsorship. Besides the annual "Tin-Can" dance, the club gives a large bazaar each year, proceeds from which go to furnishing of the model apartment in the school and in the spring sponsors the style show which last year proved to be among the largest events of the school year. This spring the club will be host to the district convention of the high school home economics clubs, when delegates come from Yamhill, Polk, Linn and Marion counties.

Already the home economics club has begun to furnish the apartment, a purchase of two excellent IES lamps being made possible through the cooperation of the PEP company.

West Salem Woman's Club Meeting Today

The newly organized West Salem Woman's club will convene for its first fall meeting today. A silver tea and program will be the features of the afternoon. All club women are invited to attend. Professor Herman Clark of Willamette university will speak on "Oregon in the Making." There will be a vocal solo by Mrs. Cherrington and Mrs. Leon Brown will give a reading.

Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. John R. Bedford and Mrs. Maude Miller. On the reception committee are Mrs. Elmer Cooke, Mrs. Hazel Lacey and Mrs. William LaDue. Comprising the social committee are Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mrs. Charles Unruh and Mrs. Jack Goffer.

Mrs. R. L. Forster is the president and other officers are Mrs. E. A. Dickson, vice president; and Mrs. J. M. Fisher, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Forster has announced her standing committees for the year including: Child welfare, Mrs. Dale Lemon; membership, Mrs. Eugene Krebs; Mrs. Hazel Lacey, Mrs. Dan Gallahand; parliamentarian, Mrs. John Bedford; flowers, Mrs. John Evans. The topic for the year is "Oregon."

Women's Club Sponsors Interesting Tour

The Salem Heights Woman's club of which Mrs. D. D. Dotson is president is this year studying "A Year With Oregon People" and on Saturday sponsored a tour to points of historic interest in and around Salem. Places visited were Jason Lee's home, the first university building, the old mission site, ex-President Hoover's old home, and many other historic spots. This tour was conducted by Mr. R. J. Hendricks who also gave the historic dates of each place visited.

An honorary guest was Mrs. Valleda Ohmart, who is the oldest living white person born in Salem.

Taking the trip were Mrs. and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. Valleda Ohmart, Mrs. D. D. Dotson, Mrs. A. A. Taylor, Mrs. C. A. Graham, Mrs. Alice Edmundson, Mrs. C. A. Kells, Mrs. C. H. Sawyer, Mrs. H. R. Style-Smiles --- by Gretchen

"If you like my story, I want you to give me your honest opinion."

Her visiting friend's in a tight spot socially, but sartorially she's quite unruffled in black Lyons velvet with ribbed silver brooch and bracelet under veiled velvet toque which coils 'round the right side of her head. The author, on the left, may fear literary opinion, but no one's opinion of her smart, new frock. This style, in slenderizing black silk, will do things for most everyone. Its unusual decoration (good for the broad-shouldered) proceeds from self-fabric stitched on in this effective manner.—Copyright 1937, Esquire Features, Inc.
