Willamette Alumni
Will Be Welcomed
This Week-End

The Willamette university campus will be the scene of much entertaining this week-end when several hundred alumni arrive for the annual homecoming celebration. The game tonight, followed by the student body dance, the alumni banquet and play tomorrow night are the main events. Sororities and fraternities will welcome grads with several informal affairs. The houses have made arrangements for the alumni to be their guests over the week-end.

Fireside Supper
The largest affair, to which the Alpha Phi Alpha girls will be hosts, is the fireside supper to-night at the chapter house. A varied program will be given including two violin solos by Miss Maxine Goodenough, accompanied by Eileen Goodenough. Miss Martha Jane Hottell will give a reading and Miss Virginia Harris a vocal solo. The pledges will sing an original number composed by Miss Kathryn McKay and Miss Shirlee Thomas. On Sunday morning a breakfast will be held at the house in honor of the alumnae.

Tea and Breakfast
An informal tea will greet the Beta Chi alumnae on Saturday afternoon from three to five o'clock when the active members will entertain at the State street house. Miss Carol Smith will open the door and Miss Betty Dotson will introduce to the line which will include the house officers, Miss Melva Belle Savage, Miss Charlotte Litchfield, Miss Helena Schneider, Miss Ruth Bunzow and Miss Marguerite DuRette.

Seniors who will pour are Miss Ella May Morris, Miss Irma Oehler, Miss Jean Hollingsworth and Miss Charlotte Eyrre. Assisting in the serving will be a group of the pledges, Miss Audrey Shay, Miss Carol Heusser, Miss Elizabeth Williams, Miss Patty Otten, Miss Jeanne Probert, Miss Janet Hinkle, Miss Harriet Winslow, general chairman of the tea.
The alumnae will hold their annual breakfast Sunday morning at nine o'clock at the chapter house. A business meeting will be held with Miss Marjorie Christenson, president, presiding. Girls who will serve are Miss Doris Brown, Miss Madeline Best, Miss Dorothea Greenwood, Miss Lucy Fisher and Miss Geraldine Parker. Miss Elizabeth Zook is arranging the breakfast.

Luncheon Saturday
The Delta Phi maids will be hosts for their annual luncheon in honor of all of the alumnae on Saturday at one o'clock at the house. A varied program will be presented and the pledges will serve and be introduced. A business meeting will follow the luncheon.
The fraternities will also be en-

Concerts Scheduled in Corvallis, Eugene

Several interesting and widely different entertainments are available within a week to Salem folk who do not mind motoring some distance for their pleasure.
Tonight Paul Whitman is appearing in Eugene under the auspices of the associated students of the University of Oregon and will present modern dance music. There will be a concert, followed by a dance.
On Sunday Madame Amelita Galli-Curci will sing a program at McArthur court in Eugene, the concert also being under the sponsorship of the associated students.

At Corvallis Dr. Victor Heiser, noted physician and author of many medical books including the popular "The American Doctor's Odyssey," will speak on Monday night. This is one of the series being presented under the auspices of the board of educational activities of Oregon State college. The regular tickets to the Oregon State concert series will admit holders to Dr. Heiser's lecture.

DAV Auxiliary Members
Motor to Meeting

Mrs. Verne Ostrander, department commander of the women's auxiliary to the Disabled American Veterans of the World War motored to Forest Grove to give her report of the national convention. Annual Homecoming Play
Scheduled for Saturday

Concluding the homecoming activities on the Willamette campus this week-end will be the annual play "The Bishop Misbehaves" by Frederick Jackson Oppen. The play will be presented Saturday night at the Leslie Junior high school auditorium at 8:30.

The story is about a bishop who is an avid reader of detective stories and who has always wanted to have experiences like those of the characters in the stories. Quite by accident and force of circumstances he is thrust into a situation where he really gets his chance to enjoy a few harrowing experiences. This role is portrayed by Forrest Mills who played Malvolio in "Twelfth Night" last year.

The cast includes Forrest Mills, the bishop; Rose Ann Gibson, Lady Emily Lyons; Betty Savage, Hester; Donald Ewing, Donald Meadows; Margaret Blake, Mrs. Williams; Fred Phillips, Mr. Williams; Erwin Potter, Collins; Lawrence
