

Radich Set Free In Slaying Case

Jury Says Not Guilty of Hanson Murder After Self-Defense Plea

EUGENE, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Frank Radich, Cottage Grove lumber worker, was acquitted of second degree murder charges by the circuit court jury which returned a verdict of not guilty here at 7:15 p.m. Thursday.

son in a cabin at Cottage Grove October 3. Radich finished his testimony Thursday morning. He told of Hanson's many drunken threats and attempted assaults, contending that he shot Hanson in self defense, denying every charge of jealousy.

The state contended in the summing up arguments Thursday that all of the witnesses were prejudiced in favor of the defendant, and there was no reason or excuse for the killing.
