

Local News Briefs

Van Winkle Rules—A county cannot legally purchase automobile liability insurance in a reciprocal insurance company. Attorney General I. H. Van Winkle held in an opinion Monday. He held that such purchase would make the county subject to a contingent liability in favor of the exchange representing all of the reciprocal insurers. The opinion was requested by Bert C. Boylan, district attorney of Deschutes county.

Ellis Improving—Hira Ellis, of Asalla, Wash., recently wounded while hunting, is recovering following amputation of the injured foot, his mother, living here, reports. A brother, R. V. Ellis, of Sitka, Alaska, came down to visit with Hira, and may visit Salem before returning home.

Coming Events

Nov. 2—Courthouse election.
Nov. 11—Armistice day celebration.
Nov. 12—Tri-county teachers' institute, senior high school.
Nov. 20—Artisans' district convention.
Unit Plan Favored—Establishment of some sort of a regional or district library unit, will be the objective of the library advisory committee of the Oregon state planning board. Miss Harriett Long, state librarian, was advised Monday. The report of the committee is now being prepared and will be released within a few weeks.

Obituary

Comstock
 Frank Comstock, 69, at the residence on route 7, Monday, November 1. Survived by the widow, Ida, of Salem. Funeral announcements later from the Clough-Barrick company.

Purvine
 S. Ellis Purvine, 62, at the residence, 655 University street, Monday, November 1. Survived by the widow, Dr. Mary B. Purvine of Salem; one son, Dr. Ralph E. Purvine of Portland; two daughters, Miss Margaret of Berkeley, Calif., and Miss Helen Purvine of Oakland, Calif. Funeral announcements later from the Clough-Barrick company.

Davis
 In this city, October 31, John Davis, aged 64 years of route No. 7, Salem, brother of Cornelius Davis, Norden, Neb., Fred Davis, Woodland, Wash., W. M. Davis, Salem, A. L. Davis of Rainier, Ore., Mrs. Laura Lovell of North Bend, Ore., Mrs. Emma Brown of Wilderville, Ore., and Mrs. Sara Reid Brown of Seattle, Wash. Funeral services will be held from the W. T. Rigdon company chapel Tuesday, November 2, at 1:30 p. m. Committal services City View cemetery, Dr. James E. Milligan will officiate.

Price
 Orville Edward Price, at the residence, 1210 North Front street, Monday, November 1, at the age of 77 years. Survived by two sons, Everett and Lake W. Price of Salem; daughter, Miss Hazel Price of Salem; sister, Mrs. May Witteroff of Red Oak, Iowa; brother, Will Price of Wisconsin; grandchildren, Della and Everett Price, Jr., of Salem. Funeral services will be held from the Clough-Barrick chapel Wednesday, November 3, at 2 p. m. Interment Zena cemetery.

Mt. Crest Abbey
 Mausoleum Entombment (Indoor Burial) and Cremation (The Two Better Ways)
Clayton J. Richardson

Stanton
 In Los Angeles, Calif., October 29, J. W. Stanton, aged 74 years of Los Angeles, Calif., father of Leon J. Stanton of Los Angeles, Calif., brother of Emmett Brink of Salem, Herbert Brink of Dallas, Ore., Jerome Brink of Grants Pass, Ore., and Mrs. W. A. Chute of Salem. Funeral services will be held from W. T. Rigdon company chapel Thursday, November 4, at 1:30 p. m.

Glover
 Mrs. Annie D. Glover, Saturday October 30, at the residence 1185 North Church street at the age of 61. Survived by the husband, Arthur Glover, son Roy, and two sisters, Betonia Byrne and Georgia Byrne, all of Salem. Two stepsons, Dophy and Clifford Glover, both of Portland, also survive. Funeral services will be held from the Clough-Barrick chapel Tuesday, November 2, at 1:30 p. m., Rev. H. C. Stover officiating. Interment Belcrest Memorial park.

Homyer
 At the residence, November 1, Conrad F. Homyer of 679, Breyers avenue, husband of Clara Homyer and father of La Verne Homyer of Salem. Body in care of the W. T. Rigdon company. Announcement of services later.

Marsland
 Mrs. Agnes Marsland, Thursday, October 28, at a local hospital at the age of 67. Survivors are the husband, Thomas Marsland, and a daughter, Mrs. Marvin Stuhr, both of Salem. Two sons, Thomas of Tacoma, Wash., and Bernard of Montreal, Can.; two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Violette of Minnesota, and Mrs. Jack Connell of England; granddaughter, Sharon Marie Stuhr of Salem. Requiem mass will be said at St. Joseph's church Tuesday, November 2, at 10 a. m. Interment St. Barbara cemetery under direction Clough-Barrick Co.

Green
 In this city, October 29, Fredricka Green of 190 South 17th street, mother of Dr. H. H. Green of Salem, D. D. Green of Washington, D. C., and C. C. Green of Chicago; sister of E. D. Daniel and B. C. Schweigert of Newfane, N.Y.; Mrs. H. Rose of Parkdale, Ore., and Mrs. M. J. Spitzer of Newfane, N.Y.; also survived by three grandchildren. Member of Chadwick chapter No. 37, O.E.S. of Salem. Body in care of W. T. Rigdon company. Announcements later.

Police Not Exempt—Halloween pranksters bore little awe of the police in at least one instance over the weekend although for the most part they confined their activities "trick or treat" forays and uprooting street signs. Detective Patrolman E. C. Charlton's home did not escape the tricks. He discovered on arising yesterday. The front windows of his house, he found, were thoroughly soaped. Deputy Sheriff Bert Smith reported having found a piece of school district grading machinery, which pranksters had removed from the old Lincoln school grounds, standing in the Liberty and Myers street intersection.

Remnants Tues., Wed., Pennes.

Building Permits—Six building permits were issued yesterday by the city dwelling inspector's office. They were: To Marion Smith, to move and relocate a one-story dwelling at 350 Hickory, $100; Jong Sing, to repair a one-story restaurant at 940 North Commercial $20; C. O'Brien, to repair a one-story dwelling at 1825 North Cottage, $20; Erel Kay, to erect a 1 1/2-story dwelling at 1525 Fairmount, $175; C. Southwick, to erect a one-story dwelling at 1165 Marion, $15; A. B. Seely, to erect a two-story apartment house at 146 Center, $40.

Jason Lee church, Rummage sale Wed., Thurs., W.C.T.U. hall.

Promote Middleton—Maurice L. Middleton, son of Katherine J. Middleton and formerly of 865 Hood street, Salem, has been promoted to the grade of corporal in the 7th infantry regiment at Vancouver barracks, according to word received from Major H. D. Bagnall, army recruiting officer at Portland. Middleton enlisted in the army in Salem in February, 1936. He has qualified as an expert with the machine gun and marksman with the Colt 45 automatic. He is at present company clerk in Company M of the 7th infantry.

Savings are insured to $5,000 with the SALEM FEDERAL.

Banquet Planned—Announcement was made at the Salem chamber of commerce luncheon Monday noon by Mel Viken, Willamette university student, that the campus Blue Key organization would hold its annual father-and-son banquet Friday night, with Dr. Carl G. Doney, former president of the university, as the principal speaker. Members of the chamber were invited to act as temporary "dads" of students whose fathers are not in Salem.

Remnants Tues., Wed., Pennes.

Leaves for Italy—Dr. A. T. King, member of the medical staff of the Oregon State Tuberculosis hospital here, left Monday for New York where he will sail for Rome, Italy, November 10. Dr. King recently received a scholarship at the Forlini Tuberculosis institute at Rome. Only one resident of the United States receives this honor annually. Dr. King will remain at Rome until next July.

Re-Roof Now—Rifstrom, 6550.

Plan Open Meeting—The newly organized cannery workers' union has announced an open meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in the labor temple, at which the advantages of organization will be discussed.

Births

Sherman—To Mr. and Mrs. William A. Sherman, Chemawa, a daughter, Ann Elizabeth, born October 19 at the Salem General hospital.

Names Changed—Four business name certificates disclosing changes in ownership of the Sunshine Dairy and the Washed Sand and Gravel company of Salem were filed with the county clerk yesterday. Roy S. Farand has retired from business under the name of Sunshine Dairy and the name has been assumed by John J. Roberts and Clarence E. Woosley filed notice of their withdrawal from the firm's firm, located on route three, and Lowell M. Lambert gave notice he was operating the business as sole proprietor.

Sight Committee Meets—The Salem Lions' club sight conservation committee headed by Barkley A. Newman will meet today noon at the state school for the blind. Other members are Walter R. Dry, superintendent of the school, Dr. W. W. Fagan, Dr. Harry Brown, Earl Snell and Leo Reimann. The club's directorate has postponed its regular meeting to November 9 because of the special election being held today. President Bruce R. Baxter of Willamette will address the club at its noon luncheon Thursday. Let's florist, 1276 N. Lib Ph 859.

Governor Goes South—Governor Charles H. Martin will board a train here early today for Tulsa, Okla., where he will attend the annual reunion of the old 90th division, United States army. The governor later will go to Southern California and will be absent from his desk for two weeks. Senator Frank Franciscovich, Astoria, by virtue of being president of the state senate, will serve as chief executive during the governor's absence from the state.

Refund Unauthorized—An alleged overpayment of inheritance tax by Gwilyn G. Jones, executor of the estate of Matilda M. Gearin, cannot be refunded either by the state treasurer or the secretary of state until such claim has been determined by the probate court, Attorney General Van Winkle ruled Monday. The opinion was requested by Earl Snell, secretary of state. The executor alleged that $393.16 was paid and there should be a refund of $7.42 and interest.

Teachers to Meet—Senior high school's new cafeteria will be the meeting place for the Salem Teachers' association next Thursday evening. Dinner will be served, following which members will be grouped according to the line of activity for which they express a preference and will take part in gymnastic exercise in the gym.

Aid Given Two—The city first aid car answered a call 1/2 mile north on the Pacific highway yesterday at 12:45, but Frank Comstock, the man needing aid, died of heart failure before the car arrived. Another patient was Charles Widick, who was treated at the station Sunday for a badly cut forehead. He had injured himself while sawing wood.

Deputy on Vacation—B. G. Honeycutt, chief criminal deputy in the Marion county sheriff's office, expects to leave today for the Alsea country on a vacation fishing trip of several days' duration. Press of business kept Honeycutt on the job throughout most of the past vacation season.

Club No. 12 to Meet—Townsend Club No. 12 will hear Avery Thompson as speaker when it meets tonight at Wesley hall on Jefferson street at 7:30 o'clock. There will be a business session and a program.

Counting Starts Early—An early report on results of today's special county election should be available tonight because election officials in the 59 largest precincts in which there will be two counting boards have been instructed to begin the tally of ballots at 6 p. m. County Clerk Boyer said yesterday. He stated that in these precincts the first counting board should be well along with their task by the time the polls close at 8 o'clock and the other board takes up the job.

Franks at Parkersville—The only serious case of Halloween vandalism reported to the sheriff's office was the pulling up of a pump, ripping out of porch posts and overturning of an outbuilding at the old school building at Parkersville, Sheriff A. C. Burk announced yesterday. The sheriff went to Parkersville to investigate the matter but reported no arrests.

Kiwanis Officers Here—Cy Gengelbach, Pacific northwest district governor of Kiwanis, and Dr. Cecil K. Chapman, Heutenant-governor, will be the speakers at the Salem Kiwanis club luncheon at noon today. The Kiwanis board of directors will meet at the Quille Wednesday noon, with retiring and new board members expected to be present.

Three On Blotter—Arrests made by the city police yesterday and Sunday were: E. H. Anderson, jr., Portland, charged with violation of the basic speed rule; F. M. Messinger, held for Southern Pacific officials; Leonard Champan, charged with being drunk in a public place.

Y Clubs to Dine—Silas Gaiser, city school superintendent, and Willamette Coach Roy S. Keene, will speak at a joint dinner of the three Hi-Y clubs at the YMCA Wednesday night at 8:30. The topic they will discuss will be "School Spirit."

Club No. 3 Meets—Townsend Club No. 3 will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the Court street Christian church for the regular session. The Brown brothers are to furnish a musical program to which the general public is invited.

Flue Fires Sunday—Two chimney fires were extinguished by the city fire department Sunday. One, at 5:45 a. m., was at 919 Mill street, and the other was to 1350 South Commercial at 6:40 p. m.

To Los Angeles—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rose, who have lived at 787 North Winter street for the last 30 years, have gone to Los Angeles to spend the winter. Mr. Rose is state commander of the Indian war veterans.

Hollywood Meeting—Regular meeting of the Hollywood community club will take place at 7 o'clock tonight at the Salem White confectionery, 1964 North Capitol street.

Tryouts Continue—Final tryouts for the Elka charity show will be held tonight at the Salem Civic theatre studio, 240 1/2 South Commercial street, at 8 o'clock.

Report Expected From Grand Jury

The Marion county grand jury is expected to make an incomplete report on its latest sitting Wednesday, it was reported at the district attorney's office yesterday. The jurors will return to their task at 10 a. m. today and probably will remain in session through next week.

Overload of Logs On Truck Target

Log haulers, who persist in overloading their trucks, will be disciplined more severely than in the past under a new regulation adopted by the state highway commission.

Notice of the new regulation yesterday was sent to Charles P. Prgy, superintendent of state police. For the first offense the permit of the haulers will be suspended for 30 days. The second offense will result in a suspension of 60 days and the third offense 90 days. For four or more violations the permits may be revoked permanently.

Utility Reduction On Rates Listed

Utility rate reductions aggregating $1,093,315.67 during the period April 1, 1935, to November 1, 1937, included $855,670.82 involving the tariffs of electric company operations. N. G. Wallace, state utility commissioner, reported Monday to Governor Charles H. Martin. Reductions of telephone and telegraph companies aggregated $154,202.85 and gas utilities $36,400. Reductions of steam heating utilities totaled $16,942. Wallace said these reductions were effected through informal proceedings, with the exception of $251.25 involving the rates of the Central Oregon Telephone company at Burns.

RICH CAKE ICING in just 4 minutes

WARNING!

DON'T MISS

Paramount Market's

ANNUAL

Canned Goods Sale!

Wednesday, November 3, to and including Saturday, November 13

Stock Up Now and Save

Court and Liberty J.N. STAMPS Phone 3161

Shoe Sale

for an Extra Pair

Straps... Pumps

Colonial Pumps... Ties

Medium and High Heels

Take Advantage of SEARS Money-Saving Event... Remember That Extra Pair Only Costs $1.00

Regular $3.00 Pair

Two Pairs for $1.00 Extra

$4.00

Sizes 3 1/2 to 9—Black

Regular $1.98 Per Pair

Two Pairs for $1.00 Extra

$2.98

Sizes 3 1/2 to 8—Browns and Blacks

Sears, Roebuck & Co.

484 State
Open Saturday Evening Until 9

Gosh! am I popular

Chesterfields give everybody more pleasure

Take out a pack and it draws 'em like a magnet... right away smokers crowd around for that refreshing MILDNESS and BETTER TASTE

Chesterfields

a lot of smokers are turning to 'em every day

Copyright 1937, LORRETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.