Wilson Charged With two Counts In Linn County

ALBANY—Two warrants for the arrest of Bud Wilson, 24, were sent to Los Angeles Saturday by Herbert Shelton, Linn county sheriff. One was issued on a complaint charging him with contributing to the delinquency of a minor, and the other involved him in the alleged cashing of a check which is said to be fraudulent. The check was cashed at an Albany grocery store.

The delinquency warrant charges Wilson with taking a 16-year-old girl from Albany to Los Angeles.

Open House Held By Rural School Draws Attention

KEIZER—Open house at Keizer, held Tuesday night, was enjoyed by a large group of patrons and friends of the school.

Parents expressed genuine surprise and appreciation of the annual display of school work. Displays of handicraft, drawings, penmanship, works of art were highlighted by three outstanding charts, "Science in the Home," "Science in the Schoolroom" and "Citizenship," all created by the pupils.
