Recipes Include Bread, Cookie Specialties

This miscellany of recipes from the Englewood community club's collections will add greatly to those in many Salem recipe files. Mrs. Townsend's corn bread would be excellent to serve hot for supper and cold in chilled milk as the main dish for lunch.

CORN BREAD (Mrs. Townsend) 1 cup cornmeal 1 cup flour 1 teaspoon baking powder 1/2 cup sugar 2 eggs unbeaten 1/2 teaspoon soda in 1 cup sour cream 1 teaspoon salt Sift flour with baking powder. If milk is used, add 2 tablespoons melted butter. Bake 25 minutes in a hot oven.

This quick nutbread, a favorite of Mrs. Bertha Schreiber, sounds good:

QUICK NUTBREAD 2 cups flour 1 cup sugar 4 teaspoons baking powder 1 teaspoon salt 1 cup milk 2 tablespoons shortening 2 eggs 1 cup nuts Beat eggs with sugar, store in milk alternately with flour, salt and baking powder that have been sifted together. Add melted shortening and nuts that have been dredged with flour. Put in greased pan and allow to stand 15 minutes. Bake in a moderate oven for 40 minutes. Raisins or dates may be added if desired.

Cookies are an ever popular addition to the list of recipes.

DATE COOKIES 1 cup white sugar 1 cup brown sugar 1 cup shortening 3 eggs 4 cups flour 1 teaspoon soda 1 teaspoon flavoring Save a little of flour for rolling out. Mix, roll thick and spread with this filling, then roll up like a jelly roll. Let stand a few hours in a cold place, slice and bake.

Rich ingredients do make good food, we'll all admit that, but everyone couldn't make up good cake even if eggs were up to a dollar a dozen. However, recipes have something to do with the success of the family baking expert, so here are several good ones to try on the family.
