

Feature of Meeting

The gay '90s theme at the Sa-Woman's club luncheon meeting yesterday afternoon provided great fun for members and guests. The tables were set with red tablecloths, spoon holders, huge sugar bowls and casters of the period. Ladies cut from old magazines were on the place cards. The luncheon was in charge of Mrs. E. E. Thomas.

Mrs. C. C. Geer, dressed in a costume of that time, spoke on ed many incidents and customs much to the delight of her listeners. Miss Eula McCully introduced the honored guests, the past presidents. She wore a dress which was worn by her mother as a bridesmaid at the wedding Miss Linnie McCully and A. Croasman in the home which was then located in the same block as the clubhouse,

Guests Present Past presidents who responded to the introduction were Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Iva H. Kirk. Miss Mattle Beatty, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Mrs. LaMoine Clerk, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Mrs. Dora Wallace, Mrs. M. Devers, Mrs. Ivan Martin, Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mrs. Mark Mc-Callister, Mrs. George Moorhead,

Mrs. I. M. Schannep. At the business meeting the preliminary exercises were led by Mrs. C. C .Clarke, and Mrs. Dean Patterson, A silent tribute was paid to Mrs. A. N. Bush and Mrs. Alice Dodd, both former presidents who have died recently. Mrs. Georbge Rhoten led in singing old time songs, Mrs. Earl Andresen was at the piano. During the singing, those in costume gave an informal style show. Mrs. W. C. Dibble, who was in charge of the program talked about the important place that women's clubs have taken in establishing libraries. Mrs. C. P. Bishop reviewed the first meeting of the Salem Women's club which was held in her home 37 years ago. It was located where the Supreme court building now stands.

Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist sang several old favorites including, 'Stay in Your Own Back Yard," "Sweet Bunch of Daisles" and "Under the Bamboo Tree," Mrs. Ivan Martin read from old minutes of the Woman's club and traced the work done in establishing the city library. The material was compiled by Mrs. F. A. Elliott. Mrs. Russell Catlin then told of her experiences collecting books and dues pledged for the library in a horse and

Mrs. C. C. Geer played an old "Whistling Rufus" and an "unidentified member" expertly executed the cake walk. Another feature of the afternoon was a guessing contest when Mrs. Clifton Mudd won a prize for identifying the greatest number of old-time pictures brought by members of the group.
