Alderman G. F. Lobdell moved that the report of the committee on her motion be adopted. The bill was indefinitely postponed, however, when a counter motion by Alderman Fred A. Williams carried the floor.
The streets committee reported that Dave Kor's bids on various sidewalk paving jobs were lower than Bert Tompkins in every instance except four, but the council moved to allow the jobs to the low bidder in each case.

County Officials Object to Relief Burden's Shifting

Portland, Nov. 15-(AP)—Association of Oregon Counties members, in convention, protested the state and federal governments' "heaping the relief burden on us."

Portland, Nov. 15-(AP)—Secretary of State Earl Snell told the Oregon Association of County Treasurers last year's record of $10,500,000 received from automobile license and gasoline fees would be broken this year.
Foreign car registrations will gain about 20 per cent, he predicted.

Lack Information On Tenancy Loans

Whether or not farm tenancy loans will be made in Marion county by the farm security administration this year will not be known until after the state advisory committee appointments have been approved in Washington, D. C. T. R. Hobart, rural rehabilitation supervisor here, reported yesterday. No applications for the new tenancy loans are being accepted because the amount of federal money allocated to Oregon is small.
With many new applications for rural rehabilitation loans being made, Hobart said it had become necessary for him to establish regular interview days for clients and prospective clients. Therefore, he will be at his office, 409 Oregon building, for this purpose Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday morning. A limited number of new loans are being made.

The firms were the McKesson-Stewart and Holmes and the Blumauer-Frank Drug Cos., both subsidiaries of McKesson-Robbins, Inc.
Signing of the closed shop contracts brought a statement from Hugh Bradshaw, business agent of the CIO union, that the signing "made no difference" and that the longshoremen "fully expected to be certified" as the bargaining agency of the warehousemen.

The weakened timber structure supporting the tower on the old county courthouse will be repaired by repair work begun yesterday by the county bridge crew. Examination of the tower recently disclosed that water was leaking through the roof and some of the supporting members already had begun to rot.
Whether other repairs will be made to the old building now that the proposal to erect a new one has been discarded for the county court.

The proposed new highway will be located approximately 400 feet up the hill to the east of the present road. A sidewalk will be provided for visitors to Otter Crest Park.
Officials said the new highway would eliminate a number of dangerous curves and speed up motor traffic.

The 1938 fire patrol tax for Marion county will be 4.8 mills or the same as for 1937. County Clerk U. G. Boyer was advised yesterday by State Forester J. W. Ferguson. At this rate the tax will raise approximately $2,500 on the 72,000 acres of eastern Marion county land involved. The patrol tax is levied only against lands in or adjoining timbered areas which come under the state fire patrol system.

The clumsy craft, for several years on the San Francisco-Oakland run in San Francisco bay, left here Friday in tow of the tug Active for Seattle, to be rebuilt for service in Puget sound.
The Golden Bear, an awkward, open-deck craft wholly unsuited for a turbulent sea, was sold for $25,000 to the Puget Sound Navigation company. Plans called for the vessel to be rebuilt and streamlined, as was another former San Francisco ferryboat, the Peralta.

Fight Manager Is Hurt in Accident

Billy Sherrard, 65, was knocked down as he was crossing an intersection near the city limits of Portland in various matches over the night he suffered a fractured fracture in his left leg and numerous cuts and bruises all over his body.
Sherrard is an old time fighter and lately has been managing the Peterson brothers, Buddy and Tom, in various matches over the country. Both have appeared on Salem cards under Sherrard's management on several occasions.
Resting at the Salem General hospital yesterday, Sherrard was cheerful and attributed his strength to pull through such an accident at his age to the fact that, although during his lifetime he has been employed as a bartender, he has never been under the influence of intoxicating liquor or has never smoked.
Sherrard holds a Statesman accident insurance policy.

District Attorney Lyle J. Page yesterday telegraphed instructions to Sheriff Guy Flagg at Great Falls, Mont., to hold Lewis Robinwitz for extradition to Oregon on a charge of obtaining $1400 from Father Joseph Scherbring of Sublimity in a fake diamond deal.
Robinwitz, the Montana officer had informed Page, has been acquitted of a similar charge at Great Falls.

Municipal Relief Policy Protested

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15-(AP)—Vigorous opposition developed at a meeting of the conference of mayors today to proposals in congress that a larger share of unemployment relief costs be shifted from the federal government to communities.
Mayor Fiorella LaGuardia of New York, president of the conference, said "it congress attempts to re-write a fixed contribution on relief for employables, there are very few cities in this country that will be able to qualify under such a formula."
LaGuardia predicted increasing unemployment this winter probably would necessitate a deficiency appropriation to supplement the $1,500,000,000 provided by congress last session to finance relief until next June 30.

Utilities Launch Attack Upon TVA

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 15-(AP)—Eighteen private utility companies launched today a new attack on the constitutionality of the Tennessee valley authority.
Power production was attacked as the predominant function of the new deal agency and defended as a vital adjunct to navigation and flood control in opening arguments before a three-judge federal court hearing the utilities' plea for an injunction.
Raymond T. Jackson of Cleveland opened arguments for the complainants, asserting:
"We will show that the TVA is selling power for millions of dollars more than the actual cost of production. Navigation and flood control are incidental to this power production and sale."

Nanking Civilians Leaving in Haste

SHANGHAI, Nov. 16-(Tuesday)—(AP)—A great exodus from Nanking, China's capital, was under way today as the Chinese defense system between Shanghai and Nanking threatened to break under the savage thrusts of Japanese legions.
The government ordered all war wounded removed into the interior from Nanking, which has been the center of the army hospital system.
By highways, rivers and canals the civil population was leaving Nanking by thousands, spurred by reports of terrible destruction inflicted on Soochow by Japanese bombing planes. The normal population of Nanking is over 1,000,000.
Some hundred bombs within 30 hours were said to have made a shambles of Soochow, city of 260,000 some 50 miles west of Shanghai, keypoint of China's "Hindenburg line" and formerly one of the country's most picturesque and prosperous cities.

Count of Jobless Will Start Today

Definite Information on Who Is to Answer and How, Is Provided

Today, with the beginning of the national unemployment census drive that lasts until November 20, inclusive, Mayor V. E. Kuhn, as a member of the mayor's committee, releases the following information in regard to the nature of the census, who should and should not register and how to register.
1. What is the census? Ans.—Upon the direction of congress, the president has approved a plan for a census of all unemployed and partly employed workers. All persons at work on emergency work projects of the government are also included in this census. Mayors have been asked to form in 16,000 cities and towns the citizens' committees, representative of the varied interests of the community, to collaborate with the postmaster and give whatever assistance is necessary to assure a complete and accurate registration of the unemployed. Fourteen questions are listed, to be answered by the person registering. Each question is fundamental for an understanding of the problem of unemployment. The purpose of the census is to aid in the formulation of a program for reemployment, social security, and unemployment relief for the people of the United States.

2. Who should register? Ans.—All persons who are totally unemployed, able to work, and want work. All persons who are partly employed, able to do more work, and want more work. All persons working full time or part time on projects of WPA, NYA, CCC, or other emergency work projects which are supported by public funds.
3. How to register? Ans.—On registration cards bearing a list of 14 questions made up for that special purpose, and procurable at your local post office.
R. J. Hendricks, chairman of Mayor V. E. Kuhn's citizens' committee, yesterday named A. C. Burk, Mrs. L. J. Stewart, E. C. Grabenhorst, Mrs. Lyman, Steed Mrs. C. C. Geer and Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck to supplement appointments he had formerly made. Those previously named were C. A. Sprague, George Putnam, Ralph Curtis and Stephen A. Stone.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 15-(AP)—Parched-throated sailors, snatched from death by the coast guard cutter Mendota after their Greek freighter, Tzeny Chandris, went down off Cape Hatteras, brought back today stories of a dramatic fight for life against the odds of shark-infested waters, stormy seas and conditions that drove one man insane.
A bright red gash across the nose of Capt. George Coupanodis, master of the little vessel which sank with the loss of seven lives, bore testimony to the harrowing struggle.
The wound was inflicted by the teeth of a fellow seaman, driven mad by 32 hours of exposure in the open sea, clinging to a bit of wreckage, the captain said. The crazed seaman died before coast guardsmen arrived to pick up the last 15 survivors of the crew of 28.

Italy May Refuse Role at Brussels

Because of this government's statutory policy of neutrality in foreign hostilities, any such move by the conference would pose an extremely delicate problem for the United States.
Unofficial speculation here centered on two possible steps by the conference should it attempt to deal in actual punitive measures:
1. The outlining of a program and an attempt by the conference to execute it.
2. Recommendation of a course of action to the League of Nations, leaving to that body the responsibility for executing it.
Informed observers said the latter was more likely to be favored by this government.

included a discussion of the present business situation.
Since the adjournment of the regular session in August, he said, there had been a "marked recession." He thought, however, it was "not of serious proportions," and that it had none of the aspects of the 1929 situation and need not result in "any prolonged recession, or any general economic paralysis."
But, he said, "it has the effect of decreasing the national income—and that is a matter of definite concern."
After many discussions with business, large and small, labor leaders and farmers, he continued, he had arrived at the conclusion the "immediate task is to try to increase the use of private capital to create employment."

Outstate Tourists Liberal Spenders

Average of $34.30 Is Left By Each Motorist in Oregon, Report

Tourists who visited Oregon by private automobile in 1937 spent an average of $34.30 while in the state, the travel and tourist bureau of the state highway department reported Monday.
The figure was based on a questionnaire survey covering 3000 tourists from the United States and Canada.
The survey shows that the average length of stay in Oregon was 9.5 days and an expenditure of $3.61 a day.
The highway department estimated that the 1937 tourists left approximately $1,000,000 in gasoline tax.
Tourists' Numbers Gain
Non-resident motor registrations at the end of October totaled 143,196, a gain of 11 percent over the corresponding period in 1936 and about 54 percent over 1935.
With two months left the total for 1937 likely will exceed 155,000 cars, officials said. It was estimated that 25 percent of the cars fail to register which means that the actual total of registrations would exceed 200,000.
Applying factors of expenditures and stay developed, officials said non-resident motorists will have spent nearly $20,000,000 in Oregon this year.
More than 50,000 inquiries were received at the travel and tourist bureau this year.

Sour Liquid, Gas Rose After Her Meals
"I had been troubled terribly by nervous indigestion," said Mrs. Whitney. "I suffered with an acid condition and my food soured and caused a burning feeling in my stomach. I belched up a bitter fluid and gas pressed around my heart until I could hardly breathe. My kidneys were sluggish and caused me to get up 3 or 4 times a night and brought on pains in the small of my back. I had to take laxatives continually for my body seemed to be full of poisonous wastes and I had dizzy spells and was very nervous. I suffered with neuritic pains all through my body. These pains settled in my joints so that I could hardly walk or do my household work."
"Finally I decided to see if Van-Tage would help me. Right from the start it began to give me fine relief so I kept on taking it and the results have been marvelous. My whole system has had a fine cleansing and I can eat without having gas afterward. I feel like a different person for I can go to bed and get my proper rest without being disturbed by sluggish kidneys. I have gained weight and my dizzy spells and nervousness are a thing of the past. My old neuritic pains are relieved and I get around without difficulty. Van-Tage is Wonderful!"
