Myrna Loy

Myrna Loy as a child

Myrna Williams, famous the world over as Myrna Loy, was born on Aug. 2, 1905, in Helena, Mont. She went to school in Los Angeles and got her first taste of the theater world as a member of prologue casts at Grauman's Chinese theater. She was "discovered" by Mrs. Rudolph Valentino and entered films in 1925. She has made nearly 40 pictures but her greatest success was probably "The Thin Man", with William Powell. She is married to Arthur Hornblow, a director in the movies and sculptors on the side as a hobby.

Homecoming Fete Draws 60 Folks

Annual Census Check for Jefferson Shows Little Change

JEFFERSON—The Odd Fellows' hall decorated in bouquets of marigolds and baskets of ornamental gourds for the homecoming of Rebekahs and Odd Fellows and their families Saturday night.

A chicken dinner was served, followed by a short program consisting of readings by Mrs. Dan Korb and Mrs. Effie Terhune and music by Beverly Wells and Olga Schultz. Beverly Wells won first prize in a contest staged. The rest of the time was spent in cards and dancing. Sixty persons were present.

Church Group Meets

Officers and teachers of the Christian Sunday school met at the home of Mrs. Sallie Tandy for a business and social time.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by her daughter, Mrs. M. A. Hutchings, to Rev. and Mrs. Jasper Havens, Mrs. Gatebell, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Freeman, Mrs. Leta Thomas and daughter, Pauline; Mrs. Clair Haight and daughter Lee Ann; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Powell and daughter, Donna June. School Census Same

Mrs. M. A. Hutchings, clerk of Jefferson school district reports that the census is practically the same as last year, with 111 girls and 107 boys.

O. B. Wattenbarger and family have moved from the Claude Widener farm southeast of Jefferson to the Frank Stastney farm northwest of here.

Thanksgiving . . . . .
When the dinner table's bountifully laden with good things . . . when the family's gathered together at the holiday board . . . there's a lot to be thankful for, isn't there? Salem's blessings are many, and at this Thanksgiving season it is a genuine pleasure to reflect upon the good fortune that is ours. For what we have and for what we are, for what we hope to achieve and for what the past year has brought us, we give deep and reverent thanks to an all-wise Deity.
