

Series of Night Classes for Farmers Arranged at Woodburn

Second Meet Set Tonight

Riches, Inskip to Discuss Pumping Projects in This Valley

WOODBURN—The first meeting of the series of meetings being held at the union school building each Tuesday from 8 to 10 p. m. was well attended by the farmers of the vicinity. These classes are under direction of J. Sidney Johnson, instructor in agriculture at Woodburn high school and he has arranged the following schedule of meetings:

Tuesday night, December 7: "Private pumping projects in the Willamette valley," Harry Riches, county agent of Marion county and J. J. Inskip, county agent of Clackamas county, speakers.

December 21 — Estimating pump sizes needed for various acreages of crops.

January 4 — Selecting pumps for various heads, R. W. Wade, speaker.

January 11 — Building farm power lines, selecting motors, electric rates and costs, William Newmyer, PGE company, speaker.

January 18 — Preparing grounds for irrigation corrugations, borders, furrows and ditches, films from OSC.

January 25—Pipe and Sprinkler systems.

February 1—Flumes, gates and other structures.

February 11—Water rights, state engineer.

February 18 — Securing aid from OSC in planning an irrigation system, Arthur King, OSC, speaker.

All these meetings are open and entirely free to the public.

Wohiscan Staff Members Chosen

WOODBURN—The editorial staff for the publication of the Woodburn high school annual the "Wohiscan," has been named and will be headed by Superintendent Milton Gralapp, who will act as faculty adviser. The annual will be out sometime early in May.

Georganna Smith will be editor-in-chief; Ed Koch, assistant; Fred Evenden, advertising manager; Harold Schiel, assistant manager; Annette Lytle, senior historian; Jean Ann Carver, junior historian; Viola Mills, sophomore historian; Patti Sims, freshman historian; Lynn Simon, P. F. A.; Clarence Enos, art editor; Ada Clair Renn, G. A. A.; Bob Dean, Torch Honor society; Betty Frebztz, home economics; Jean Simmons, booster club; Gordon Seely, Letterman's club; Darrell Anderson, athletics; Bob Gannon, chess club; Gilbert Ramage, chorals; Joan Beck, dramatics; Norma Rostvold, calendar of activities; Edith Calvin, Noble Shrook and Lucinda Homann, typists; Marian Crosby, camera club; Alleen Bentley, science club.

Community Clubs

LABISH CENTER — Attendance at Friday's community club meeting was good and $15.45 was realized from door receipts. Besides the two one-act plays, "I Know? You Know? Shake!" and "The Weigh of All Flesh," the program included piano numbers by Doris Rentz, Doris and Donna Lovre, vocal solos by Constance Weinman and Willard Hornsby, and a reading by Carrie Aker. Accompanists were Phyllis Leedy and Opal Siwert of Salem.

ROBERT LAWS, a Willamette university student, spoke briefly on Christmas seal sales.

EVENS VALLEY—Evans valley community club will hold its December social and business meeting December 10 at the Evens Valley school.

Mrs. Oscar Loe, president, has announced the following committees: Annual program, Mrs. Conrad Johnson, Karen Peterson; refreshment, Mrs. Andrew Pederson, Mrs. Oral Egan, Mrs. Guy Sanders; program for December, Albert Furrue, Lois Rue; Marie Peterson; visiting committee, Mrs. Albert Furrue, Mrs. James Rue and Mrs. Paul Herigstad.

HAZEL GREEN—Friday night the community club sponsored a program presented by the General Electric company. "Rural Electrification" was discussed and Oregon pictures were shown by Ellsworth Fletcher. Music on the piano-accordion was played by Hermina Domogolla. The December program will be prepared by the school directed by Mrs. Ross Miles and Miss Geraldine Fry teachers.

Social Service Club Slates Annual Bazaar And Dinner Tomorrow

AMITY—The Ladies Social Service club of the Methodist church will hold its annual church bazaar in the social rooms of the church Wednesday.

The bazaar sale will start at 5 p. m. and a turkey dinner will be served from 6:30 to 7:30 p. m. The program will be presented by the men of the church.

Farmer and Holter Are Fined $7.50 City Court

SILVERTON—Sy Farmer and Leo Holter, picked up Saturday night and charged with being drunk and disorderly, were tried before Municipal Judge George Hubbs today with result that each was fined $7.50 and costs.

Brother Is Dead

EVENS VALLEY—Oscar Johnson has received word of the death of his brother, Ed Johnson, at Kindred, N. D. Ed Johnson is known to a number in this community.

Prize Steer at Livestock Show

Homer Graber with champion. One of the most coveted prizes at the 38th annual international livestock exhibit at Chicago went to Homer Graber, 20, of Mineral Point, Wis., whose 1,243-pound steer was judged the grand champion of the junior class.

Revere Prepares for Gangland Cleanup

A wholesale clean-up is scheduled for Revere, Mass., the New England town reputed refuge of New York gangsters who were driven out of the Big Town by District Attorney Dewey's war on crime. In charge of the purge will be Captain James T. Sheenan (right), noted Boston criminologist. His chief aides will be District Attorney W. J. Foley (center), and Police Commissioner J. F. Timilty (left), of Revere.

Mrs. Frank Blair Funeral Is Today

SILVERTON—Mrs. Frank R. Blair, 54, former resident of Silverton, died Sunday afternoon at a Portland hospital. Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Larson & Son chapel here, with Rev. Frank Zook officiating.

Roberta Smith, daughter of John R. and Mary Birtchett White, was born at the family home between Silverton and Mt. Angel, July 8, 1883. In December, 1905, she was married at The Dalles to Frank R. Blair. They started the Delacattessen now known as Dickerson's shop, and were in business here for some years. They also resided in Mt. Angel before going to Portland six years ago.

Surviving are the widower, Frank of Portland; one son, Marion Dale Blair of Portland; a granddaughter, three sisters and three brothers, Lulu Riggs of Corvallis, Virginia Schauer of Redmond, Mrs. J. C. Schlador, Silverton; G. G. White, V. J. White and M. O. White, all of Mt. Angel.

Community Clubs

LABISH CENTER — Attendance at Friday's community club meeting was good and $15.45 was realized from door receipts. Besides the two one-act plays, "I Know? You Know? Shake!" and "The Weigh of All Flesh," the program included piano numbers by Doris Rentz, Doris and Donna Lovre, vocal solos by Constance Weinman and Willard Hornsby, and a reading by Carrie Aker. Accompanists were Phyllis Leedy and Opal Siwert of Salem.

ROBERT LAWS, a Willamette university student, spoke briefly on Christmas seal sales.

EVENS VALLEY—Evans valley community club will hold its December social and business meeting December 10 at the Evens Valley school.

Mrs. Oscar Loe, president, has announced the following committees: Annual program, Mrs. Conrad Johnson, Karen Peterson; refreshment, Mrs. Andrew Pederson, Mrs. Oral Egan, Mrs. Guy Sanders; program for December, Albert Furrue, Lois Rue; Marie Peterson; visiting committee, Mrs. Albert Furrue, Mrs. James Rue and Mrs. Paul Herigstad.

HAZEL GREEN—Friday night the community club sponsored a program presented by the General Electric company. "Rural Electrification" was discussed and Oregon pictures were shown by Ellsworth Fletcher. Music on the piano-accordion was played by Hermina Domogolla. The December program will be prepared by the school directed by Mrs. Ross Miles and Miss Geraldine Fry teachers.

Mrs. Dale Magee Has Appendectomy

MACLEAY—Mrs. Dale Magee is in the Salem General hospital recovering from an appendicitis operation. A brother-in-law, H. Norton, husband of Emily Magee Norton, is also convalescing from a major operation performed recently in Washington.

Mrs. Hugh Magee, a trained nurse and mother-in-law of Mr. Norton, has been taking care of him.

Cast Announced for Comedy to Be Staged At Church Thursday

WEST SALEM — The play "There is a Man in the House," will be presented this Thursday at 8 p. m. at the church hall.

The cast is: Miss Selina Slocum, Mrs. Nellie Hathaway; Peg her grandniece, Shirley Dickson; Lila, Peg's friend, Dorothy Kaster; Prudence Fitherbee, Mrs. Helen Lathrop; Arabella, her daughter, Ellen Berg; Mrs. Peasley Mrs. Mary Kuhn; Angelina, Gertrude Kuhn; St. Mary Markel, Estelyn Rierson.

Two Cases Chickenpox Report, West Stayton; First Hard Frost Hits

WEST STAYTON—Pauline and Aletha Stewart, the 5 and 7-year-old daughters of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Stewart, are confined to their home here with chickenpox.

West Stayton folks were treated to the first hard frost of the fall in the early hours of Sunday morning. No damage was done to crops.

Hunters Kill Wildcats Charged as Goatkillers

SILVERTON HILLS — A. H. Mires and Walter Larson killed two wild cats this past week at the C. V. Murray farm. The cats had been killing goats on the Kenneth Warnock farm for some time.

Elect new Officers

STAYTON — Santiam Encampment No. 64 met Thursday evening at the lodge hall. D. George Cole, chief patriarch, was in charge of the meeting. The following new officers were elected: Chief patriarch, Joe Harris; senior warden, Felix Wright; high priest, Everett Downing; scribe, R. G. Wood; and Treasurer, Ben Schaefer.

Army Man to Speak

SILVERTON—Ramona chapter of the Eastern Star will hold a special meeting Tuesday night for degree work. Mrs. Carol Van Cleave will be in charge of the social hour of cards and refreshments which will follow.

Grangers' News

FAIRFIELD—Mrs. Allyn Nuson entertained members of the Fairfield HEC at her home Thursday. This was an all-day session with club lunch at noon.

During the business meeting election of officers resulted as follows: Mrs. M. B. Lucas, re-elected president; Mrs. Allyn Nuson, vice-president; Mrs. B. C. Hall re-elected secretary-treasurer.

The group will sponsor a Christmas entertainment at the hall Saturday night, December 18, with everyone invited, admission to be a gift not to exceed 15 cents in price. These gifts will be exchanged at the program. Mrs. D. B. DeRette will arrange for the program which will include a play by Fairfield school children, also music and readings. Women are asked to bring cakes.

The next regular meeting of the club will be an all-day session at the home of Mrs. W. E. McGilchrist, January 6.

The regular meeting of Fairfield grange will be held Friday night, December 10, with Mrs. C. E. Allenback and Mrs. Nuson, the serving committee for club supper following the lecturer's hour. The program will include numbers from Eldridge and Fairfield schools.

Mrs. Dale Magee Has Appendectomy

MACLEAY—Mrs. Dale Magee is in the Salem General hospital recovering from an appendicitis operation. A brother-in-law, H. Norton, husband of Emily Magee Norton, is also convalescing from a major operation performed recently in Washington.

Mrs. Hugh Magee, a trained nurse and mother-in-law of Mr. Norton, has been taking care of him.

Cast Announced for Comedy to Be Staged At Church Thursday

WEST SALEM — The play "There is a Man in the House," will be presented this Thursday at 8 p. m. at the church hall.

The cast is: Miss Selina Slocum, Mrs. Nellie Hathaway; Peg her grandniece, Shirley Dickson; Lila, Peg's friend, Dorothy Kaster; Prudence Fitherbee, Mrs. Helen Lathrop; Arabella, her daughter, Ellen Berg; Mrs. Peasley Mrs. Mary Kuhn; Angelina, Gertrude Kuhn; St. Mary Markel, Estelyn Rierson.

Two Cases Chickenpox Report, West Stayton; First Hard Frost Hits

WEST STAYTON—Pauline and Aletha Stewart, the 5 and 7-year-old daughters of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Stewart, are confined to their home here with chickenpox.

West Stayton folks were treated to the first hard frost of the fall in the early hours of Sunday morning. No damage was done to crops.

Hunters Kill Wildcats Charged as Goatkillers

SILVERTON HILLS — A. H. Mires and Walter Larson killed two wild cats this past week at the C. V. Murray farm. The cats had been killing goats on the Kenneth Warnock farm for some time.

Elect new Officers

STAYTON — Santiam Encampment No. 64 met Thursday evening at the lodge hall. D. George Cole, chief patriarch, was in charge of the meeting. The following new officers were elected: Chief patriarch, Joe Harris; senior warden, Felix Wright; high priest, Everett Downing; scribe, R. G. Wood; and Treasurer, Ben Schaefer.

Army Man to Speak

SILVERTON—Ramona chapter of the Eastern Star will hold a special meeting Tuesday night for degree work. Mrs. Carol Van Cleave will be in charge of the social hour of cards and refreshments which will follow.

Rauscher Enters Veteran Hospital

JOSEPH LULAYS ON 3-WEEKS TOUR OF 3 STATES IN SOUTHWEST

SUBLIMITY—Henry Rauscher, proprietor of Sublimity service station, has gone to the Veterans' hospital in Portland for treatment. His condition is reported unchanged. Herman Hoeschlin is caring for the station.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Podrabsky of Longview are visiting this week at the Herman Hassler home.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Minden are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son, this being their fifth child.

Lulays on Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lulay and Vincent Lulay left Friday for a three weeks tour through California, Mexico and Texas. Miss Rita Frank is caring for the children until they return.

Mr. and Mrs. Alois Bettef and daughter Betty and Miss Estell Lulay have just returned from a two weeks visit in Nebraska. They report conditions there the same as here.

The women of St. Ann's Altar society held an all day's sewing in the parish hall Thursday. Quilting was the main feature with a covered dish dinner at noon.

Marie F. McCall Is Club Speaker

HAYESVILLE—The Hayesville Woman's club was entertained Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. L. Moor, Ida Denny assisted. Marie Flint McCall gave an interesting talk on Mexico and exhibited many interesting articles from there.

The next meeting will be the annual Christmas luncheon to be held at the Golden Pheasant December 16 with a gift exchange.

Special guests were Mrs. A. J. Baltzer, Mrs. Bernard Moorman, Mrs. Gertrude Ridge, Mrs. Geo. Strozts, Jr., and Pauline Denny.

P. J. Walton Files Suit For Divorce in Polk Co.

DALLAS—A suit for divorce was filed here in the circuit court by Percy J. Walton against Gertrude R. Walton. The plaintiff charges that the defendant deserted him without cause in February, 1935.

They were married in Philadelphia in 1913 and there are two children. A property settlement is attached to the suit and an agreement also gives the defendant the care and custody of the minor child.

Oscar Hayter is attorney for the plaintiff.

Farmers' Union News

ZENA—An open meeting of the Farmers' union will be held at the Zena schoolhouse Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, when Dan McClellan of the state engineer's office will talk on the proposed Willamette valley project. Orchards Heights local will be a guest. Refreshments will be served, with families to bring cake and sandwiches.

SUBLIMITY—The Sublimity local of the Farmers' union met in the COF hall, Thursday. An interesting and educational program included an illustrated lecture on the prevention of tuberculosis, presented by Mr. and Mrs. George Moorhead of Salem, connected with the county seal sale; a talk on communicable diseases that are preventable by Dr. R. Lee Wood of Salem; a discussion on lime by W. B. Sullivans. George Potts of Jefferson gave a talk to the members.

The annual election of officers resulted: President, Stanley Hitchcock; vice-president, Fred Hottinger; secretary, Louis Hendricks; conductor, John Heuberger; doorkeeper, Frank Stalger; executive committee, Jos.

FAIRFIELD—At the November meeting of the local Farmers' union, members voted to invite the women to attend the next regular session, Friday night, December 17, when final plans will be made for the Farmers' union convention at 'Fairfield' in January.

The group voted favorably to the proposed change in election of national officers.

FAIRFIELD—At the November meeting of the local Farmers' union, members voted to invite the women to attend the next regular session, Friday night, December 17, when final plans will be made for the Farmers' union convention at 'Fairfield' in January.

The group voted favorably to the proposed change in election of national officers.

Church Unit Has Social at Shaw

AUMSVILLE—The Wesleyan Methodist Sunday school of Aumsville held a sociable good time at the town hall in Shaw Friday night. Games were enjoyed. The Missionary society of the church presented a quilt to the pastor, Rev. Henry Aarhuus.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pilgrim and two daughters Olive and Harriet Pilgrim, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pomeroy and three daughters, Jane, Ida and Lavina Pomeroy, Mr. and Mrs. Edinborough of Silver Creek Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Garbe and daughter Tressa, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ogle and daughter

Dairymen's Meet Slated, Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL—Thursday, December 9, has been selected for an all-day dairymen's meeting to be held at the Mt. Angel Cooperative creamery. The meeting has been arranged by Harry L. Riches, county agent, and will be open to all dairymen and farmers. The meeting will start at 10:00 a. m.

Speakers will include Prof. P. M. Brant of Oregon State college at Corvallis and R. W. Morse, extension specialist in dairying, also of Corvallis. Open discussion will follow the speeches.

LABISH CENTER—Committees for the Ladies' Aid are busily making last minute preparations for their annual supper and bazaar, which will be held Wednesday night at the schoolhouse, with supper set for 6 o'clock. A program of short skits is being arranged by Edna Kurth and Mrs. H. M. Bibby.

Mrs. E. J. Voegelien has returned from an extended visit with relatives in the midwest.

Supper, Bazaar Slated Tomorrow

LABISH CENTER—Committees for the Ladies' Aid are busily making last minute preparations for their annual supper and bazaar, which will be held Wednesday night at the schoolhouse, with supper set for 6 o'clock. A program of short skits is being arranged by Edna Kurth and Mrs. H. M. Bibby.

Mrs. E. J. Voegelien has returned from an extended visit with relatives in the midwest.

Albany Group Is Coming to Valley Banquet Meeting

ALBANY—Attending the meeting of the Greater Willamette association in Salem Tuesday night will be a large delegation from Albany. A banquet and election of officers are features.

Dr. David J. Ferguson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Albany will be guest speaker. C. H. Murphy, president of the association will preside.

The Greater Willamette Valley association was organized in 1935, and covers the territory from Portland south to Roseburg.

Home Missionary Society Meets This Afternoon

SILVERTON—The Women's Home Mission society of the Methodist church will hold its December meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Mary Townley as hostess.

GO right across lady...you're taking home a lot of pleasure

Chesterfields for Christmas

Chesterfields for Christmas...they'll give more pleasure

Copyright 1937, LORETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.