Two Given Aid—The Salem first aid car attended two cases yesterday. Virginia Garie of Aumsville received head injuries and a slight concussion of the brain when the car in which she was riding from Aumsville to Salem turned completely over at the turn just north of the Texaco plant on the 12th street road. She was taken to the Deaconess hospital by the city tax ambulance where last night she was reported in no danger. The accident occurred shortly after midnight. Herbert Hunt, whose home is at 2460 Trade street, was the second case requiring first aid attention. Hunt, age 17, yesterday afternoon was scuffling in the Castilian ballroom where a group were decorating for the dance held there last night, and severely wrenched his left knee. He was taken to the Salem Deaconess hospital where it was necessary to administer gas before the leg could be straightened. His leg was put in a cast and it is expected he will have to keep it thus for several weeks.

Suit Filed in Elder Estate

Bank Account's Ownership at Issue; Plaintiff Cites Agreement

Suit to establish ownership of a $4721.59 bank account was filed by Grace Nelber as executrix of the Hannah E. Elder estate against Maude Smith, Gale Missler, Arthur Elder, Margaret Lee and Peggy Jane Missler. The plaintiff and defendants are heirs or legatees of the Hannah E. Elder estate with the latter, according to the complaint, have protested the plaintiff's claim that the money belongs to her.

The plaintiff alleges that in 1929 she moved to the home at Hannah E. Elder and in consideration for a promise to care for her until her death Mrs. Elder changed the bank account to one of joint ownership with the money passing to the survivor of the two. It is on this agreement that plaintiff bases her claim to the $4721.59, the amount in the account at the time of Mrs. Elder's death in 1935.

There will be no scheduled activity in department one of circuit court today but in department two Judge L. G. Lewelling will conduct motion day proceedings.

Ludendorff Dies; German War Hero

Catholic Hospital Is Place of Death Despite His Enmity to Faith

MUNICH, Germany, Dec. 20.—(AP)—General Erich Ludendorff, considered the master mind of Germany's World War armies, died today at the age of 72.

He will be given a state funeral with highest military honors Wednesday in Munich's Field Marshals' Hall, a shrine of Nazi Germany. Tomorrow the body will lie in state in the flag hall of the general command of the seventh army corps.

The streets will be cloaked in black and silver for the funeral march from there to the Field Marshals' Hall, where in November, 1923, Adolf Hitler, the almost unknown, and the general strode side by side in the Nazis' abortive "march on Berlin."

Ludendorff died after three weeks' illness. He had been operated on for a bladder infection and apparently was recovering when the strain proved too much for his heart.

In Catholic Hospital
In spite of his bitter opposition to Christianity and especially Catholicism, Ludendorff died in a Catholic hospital, attended in his last days by nuns. The choice of the Josephinum hospital was dictated by Professor Ludwig Kiel, administrator, of real property to L. A. Smith for $400.

On the Record

By DOROTHY THOMPSON

Britain not willing to reconsider the colonial question, in the right place, and in the right atmosphere, and many people in England who bitterly resented the Halifax visit to Berchtesgaden, would be glad to see the colonies mandated, as Wilson originally hoped, to the League of Nations, and genuinely internationalized. The protection of the rights of national minorities in the various states, including German minorities wherever they exist, appeals to the conscience of all decent men. There will, however, be no hope for decent treatment of minorities as long as Germany has set such a shocking example in her treatment of the German Jews, as long as it is Nazi policy to use her minorities in other countries for propaganda purposes.

What needs to be ended, if there is to be anything except international anarchy, is the policy of blackmail; of nation after nation assuming the role of Samson, and threatening to pull down the whole structure of civilized world, if its demands are not immediately complied with.

It is against this that one part of American opinion is willing to take a stand. It is to end this, that one section of American opinion is willing to collaborate. It is willing to collaborate for no other purpose and for no other end. The issue is not that of making a "democratic front." The problem is to make a front against aggression and blackmail, in behalf of international law and the sanctity of treaties, with the front open to any nation that will come in and help.

But this is apparently not the attitude of The London Times—once known as The Thunderer—but speaking now in the cautious and querulous voice of Lord Astor. Copyright, 1937, New York Tribune, Inc.

Hitler sent condolences to Ludendorff's widow, Cathilde, who had moved to the Catholic Josephinum hospital to be near her husband.

The general and Hitler recently closed their long misunderstanding and distrust at a peace talk.

RAPHAEL
Madonna Tempi—Group 2
Prince of the Renaissance, painter of countless masterpieces, produced three great masterpieces before he was 25. Wealthy banker, left a fortune of $150,000. The only real rival of the great Michelangelo.

MASSYS
The Banker and His Wife—Group 3
17th century Flemish master for whom costume, manners, and social conditions were a hobby. First artistic triumph when his father-in-law tried to crush off a realistic style by painting on the nose of an angel in a picture.

VELASQUEZ
Infanta Margarita Teresa—Group 4
Court painter to Spain's Philip IV. Spent his life portraying, in costume, members of the royal family, in return for a small wage and the honor of wearing the king's cast-off clothing.

RUBENS
Fox and Wolf Hunt—Group 5
Most prolific and joyous of Flemish masters. A "painter's painter," famous for robust sodes. Did a royal ambassador. With many assistants ran prosperous "masterpiece factory."

DELAcroix
Hamlet—Group 6
Greatest French painter of early 19th century. Restless Romantic. Visited Africa, Spain, England, put them all in his warm, colorful canvases and his brilliant journal.

DEGAS
Two Dancers—Group 9
Shy, unsocial, master of pastel. Timid of women, but painted them constantly, especially ballet girls in levery unconventional pose. Friend and mentor of American's Mary Cassatt.

RENOIR
By the Seashore—Group 10
Great Impressionist. Painter of women and of joyous scenes of outdoor life. Starved while he painted the masterpieces that now command hundreds of thousands of dollars.

VAN GOGH
The Oyster Eater—Group 12
Great Modern master of vivid color. Tortured mind, driven by frustration and ill health to suicide at 37. His brother Theo his only companion while alive. Now millions marvel at his work.

CURRY
Lisa Storm—Group 12
He and Kansas made each other famous. After Currier, New York, Paris, he covered the States with the circus, returned to Kansas to paint all he'd seen. Outstanding among living American painters.
