"I'll promise to stop driving from the back seat if you'll stop cooking from the dining room!"

An elegantly balanced compromise, say we. We hope the results are as harmoniously successful as the elegant balance achieved between fur and fabric in her coat. A princess silhouette developed out of dark green wool, is banded at the hem with a cuff of skunk. The ample skunk cravat and the great flat muff, revived from turn-of-the-century modes, should convince anyone that 1900 couldn't have been a bad time to be alive.—Copyright 1937, Esquire Features, Inc.

Christmas Meal To Be Served Buffet Way

By MAXINE BUREN I'm a great believer in making holidays real holidays. And that goes for everybody in the family. Baking a duck or a ham the day before makes Christmas a much less busy day for the family menu maker who serves dinner with the main dish cold.

Because Christmas is a day when appetites are somewhat subdued by candy, nuts and fruits, many women simply put out a cold buffet dinner sometime along in the early afternoon and whoever happens to be visiting eats along with the family. Fewer tins to wash at the last minute and less cooking on a busy day.

A molded fruit salad can be made the day ahead and potatoes and a vegetable cooked at the last minute. So the weekend menus for the holidays as planned are:

- CHRISTMAS DAY Vegetable salad mold, Roast duck or baked ham, Mashed sweets, Cranberry sauce, Buttered corn, Steamed pudding.

- SUNDAY Cranberry salad, Duck or ham sandwiches, With hot gravy, Riced potatoes, Carrots, peas and celery, Canned peaches, Christmas cookies.

Apricots Mix With Other Fruits in Dessert

Apricots and bananas blend together as a salad, dessert or as a cocktail, and make an attractive appearing as well as tasting combination. For a Bavarian cream run the fruit salad in a can through the ricer with two bananas, then jelly in lemon or orange gelatine as for the regular recipe.

- Dinner for President's Family Listed The White House announced the following menu for the Roosevelt family's Christmas dinner: Blue Point Oysters—Saltines, California Head Soup, Fairy Toast, Curled Celery, Stuffed Olives, Roast Turkey, Sausage-Chestnut Dressing, Cranberry Sauce, Sweet Potatoes and Apples, Beans, Grapefruit Salad, Plum Pudding, Hard Sauce, Ice Cream, Cake, Coffee.

WOODBURN—Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Shorey were pleasantly surprised when a group of friends called at their home on Cleveland street Wednesday night in honor of their 30th wedding anniversary.

DAYTON—The annual Christmas meeting with a 7 o'clock covered dish luncheon was held Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Foster with 12 members present. Mrs. Herman Louis won high score at bridge.

SILVER CLIFF—The annual Christmas party of the Silver Cliff Woman's club was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Floyd Fox, with Mrs. Carrie Townsend co-hostess.

HAYESVILLE—Mary Pervis was hostess for a surprise kitchen shower for Iris Mason Thursday night at the Mason home. Mrs. George Mason assisted in the serving.

DAYTON—Mrs. Leigh Freeman delightfully entertained the Kill Kare Klub at her home Wednesday afternoon with 15 members and five guests present.

Today's Menu

- The day before Christmas and menus are going to be pretty modest because the day's to be a busy one. Molded grapefruit salad, Shrimp croquettes, French fried potatoes, Hot spiced beets, Pumpkin pie.

- SHRIMP CROQUETTES 1 sliced onion, 1 clove chopped garlic, 1 tablespoon milk, 1 tablespoon butter, 1/4 cup bread crumbs, 1 teaspoon minced parsley, 2 eggs, 1 dozen large shrimp, Salt and pepper. Brown the onion and garlic in butter, add bread crumbs, parsley and milk. Add one of the eggs, well beaten, shrimp and seasonings. Add enough flour to hold together. Shape into croquettes and let stand for half an hour. Then roll in egg, then in more crumbs and fry until brown.

Candy Fills Boxes For Holidays

- More candy to go into last minute Christmas boxes: PRALINES 3 cups sugar, 1 cup thin cream or milk, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 cup pecans, 1 cup sugar, caramelized, 1/4 cup hot water. Add water to caramelized sugar and cook until melted. Put all but nuts together and boil to a soft ball. Remove from stove, beat until creamy and add nuts. Drop from spoon on oiled paper.

Avocados Combine With Fruit, Vegetables

One nice thing about avocados is that they go with both vegetables and fruits so if you've purchased one of these versatile fruits and use only half of it with your salad try mixing with a combination of cooked vegetables. For individual servings, cut the fruit in thick slices, and fill the center with a mixture of grapefruit, orange, banana and nuts, moistened with half milk, lemon and half whipped cream. Top with a cherry.

Vegetable Soup Takes Plenty Potatoes

A can of vegetable soup makes a good beginning for cream of potato soup. Add some onions and lots of chopped parsley to the hot soup, cook until done, then add two or more boiled potatoes that have been cut up. Celery salt makes potato soup good, and a dash of onion and garlic salt will add extra flavor. Baked potatoes are especially fine to use as the base for soup.

PEANUT CENTER FOR BON BONS

Put roasted peanuts through food chopper with fine knife. Add enough fondant to hold peanuts together. Shape into small balls. Dip in melted fondant.

Holiday Salad Formed In Wreath

A bright salad that is particularly appropriate for the holiday season is a lettuce and cranberry-apple-celery mold, formed in small or large ring mold and served with a center of mixed fruits. A garnish of parsley looks like the bow on the wreath.

Keizer Club Holds Yuletide Program
