And the heck of it is, Hec does it all the time with material that trickles to him from right in and around Seattlematerial hardly anyone ever hears of before it dons the purple and gold of Washington to win championships. It is a pretty well-known fact that very little proselyting or subsidizing takes place in Washington hoop circles Seattle and neighboring high schools provide the Husky hoop hopes, and invariably they turn out-under Edmundson's tutorvorite bonnet that this year, allawill be giving a good account through the season-and, will be laying down the basketball law to a majority of northern division touted tossers.

Don't believe there ever was basketball aggregation that was entirely invincible. There are games in the lives of most basketeers when seemingly all that is necessary is to heave the ball in the general direction of the basket and "ssswissh" it goes through, When a supposedly impregnable outfit runs up against one or two individual opponents who are having their "nights," it's just too bad. While Coach Howard Maple, or "Butterball" as he's affectionately nickmonickered by the 'Cat gang, doesn't expert to whip the Webfoots here December 28, it is entirely in the cards for just such to Firing Near Even.

It'll be just another ball game for Hobson's high-standing, highgeared hoop haranguers, while s handful of feathers from the Ducks will mean something to the 'Cats. A little more firing accuracy and the Bearcat court artists will be tough for any quint to handle. To date their shooting average hasn't been much to get up in the night and write home about. Figures to be around .222 for the six frays. Anyone of the 'Cats is likely to break out in a scoring rash, however, the scoring among them so far being well distributed. Beard, Anton and White all hover around the 35-point mark for the six tilfs, and Weaver and Nunnenkamp are within ten points of them.

Phillips to Fight?

A little good-natured bauter was affoat t'other day in regard to the amateur fistic fray that the Central Youth Organization is staging at the armory January 6. Bert Ford and Dick Ross were bandying around most of the cracks, and Pert figures that, to make the show a "howling success," Bill Phillips should take on the winner. Suspect Bill's advertised appearance on the card would not only make the turnstiles click, but also make 'em whirl-as the crowd left.

Mack Is Honored On 75th Birthday

Old-Timers Who Had Part in Winning Pennants Hold big Reunion

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 23-(AP)-Connie Mack's "baseball family," stretching back to 1902 and his first pennant-winner, gathered 'round the grand old man in Shine Park today, and celebrated his 75th birthday on the spot he made famous with champions.

Still somewhat weak from the illness that confined him to his home for several weeks, but determined to carry on "as long as the motor keeps running" the lean leader entertained with a luncheen for baseball writers, umpires, officials and players who performed for him during his 37-year term as manager of the Athletics. Grey - haired, gnarled - fingered men who were once great names on Mack's Athletics teams of 10, 20 and 30 years ago were in the gathering of 100 or more around Mack in the visiting team's quarters of Shibe Park. Heading the "veteran veterans" were Harry Davis, big-shouldered first baseman of Mack's first pennant-winner; Chief Bender, the Outfielder Rube Oldring.
