Egan Guests Get In Wreck Tangle

WALDO HILLS—A four-way mixup of cars on the Silverton-Stayton highway a short distance from the Gray Days home came near marring the holiday dinner at the Frank Egan home.

It began when an unidentified car went into the ditch. Just as the wrecker began work the Vern Hawthorne car, on its way from Portland to the Egan home here, came along and in passing went into a tail spin, turning completely around three times.

A few minutes later Elmer Peterson, also on his way to Egan's, drove around the wrecker only to find a woman driving on the wrong side of the road. The bumper on her car cut the tire on the Peterson car into ribbons, dented a fender and bent the radius rod.

Eventually all guests, numbering 26, arrived and enjoyed the day.

Cooperative Creamery at Mt. Angel Will Open Celebration of 25 Years Growth This Morning; Lasts 2 Days

MT. ANGEL—The program for the 25th anniversary celebration of the Mt. Angel Cooperative Creamery is slated to begin at 10 o'clock, Wednesday morning, December 29. Various speakers will take the floor, outlining the progress of the creamery during the past 25 years, tell of its present aspirations, and future possibilities.

In the last 25 years the creamery has grown from a small establishment that had an output of 3,056 pounds of butter in 1912 to the modern creamery of today that in the past year has manufactured over 2,000,000 pounds, besides producing a large quantity of milk powder and ice-cream.

Prominent Speakers
Governor Charles H. Martin, hooper speaker scheduled for the first day of the celebration, has sent word that he would most likely be prevented from attending by pressing engagements. Among other speakers named will be Dean Schoenfeld, J. D. Mickle, Leslie M. Scott.

Today's celebration will be similar in outline, with the opening number set for 10 a.m. Dinner will be served to patrons at noon on both days. Some idea of the magnitude of the dinner to be prepared is given by the fact that 3000 lbs of dressed meat has been made ready for the occasion.

Patrons may arrange to attend the dinner on whichever day is best suited to their plans. Tickets will be provided.

Children Unite in Holiday Program

DAYTON—The auditorium of the Dayton union high school was filled with patrons of the district for the Christmas play, "Why the Chimes Rang," presented by the Sunday school classes of the five Dayton churches. Ramona Oaks, dressed in Holland costume, sang in Dutch dialect "Silent Night." White gifts were placed on the altar for the aged and needy families of Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Healer and family of Seattle were Christmas guests of relatives here. They were among the 46 members of the Coburn family who were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Coburn.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Crum and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arlington B. Crum of Portland, were Christmas evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam M. Bates.

Moore Remodel Store at Lyons

LYONS—Work of remodeling the confectionery and beer parlor in Lyons is well under way. Mr. and Mrs. Moore, the new proprietors, are adding a second story to the building they recently purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Don Bretburton. When the building is complete it will be quite an improvement.

Mrs. Leon Smith and daughter, Shirley, are spending some time with relatives at Pendleton.

The Sunday school Christmas program given at the church Friday night, was well attended considering there were so many Christmas entertainments during the week.

The J. H. Johnston has as holiday guests her sister, Mrs. Nelle Thomas and daughter, Phyllis, of Medford, Miss Helen Thayer of Lyons and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Humphreys and two children, Betty Lou and Leland Ross.

Water Recedes After Reaching High Mark Of Season at Rickey

RICKEY—The water here is almost down to winter normal again but Monday water reached the high mark of the season. Rain, floods and roads were flooded and Pudding Creek was more like a river than a tiny creek when the water broke through the bank in places and rushed through fields.

No accidents were reported but one driver missed the road near the school house and the car was left stranded on the road edge in the water for a number of hours.
