

Wheat Rallies After Setback

Half Million Bushels Said Bought for Export During Day

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Evidence of improved European demand for wheat from the United States helped Chicago wheat prices late today to overcome a cent a bushel temporary setback. Export purchases of North American wheat today were estimated at upwards of 500,000 bushels, including more than 300,000 bushels of domestic hard winter wheat and some United States white wheat from the Pacific coast. Besides, it was disclosed that in the last few days 500,000 bushels of United States spring wheat not heretofore known about were taken to be shipped to Europe.

Down in Liverpool
Wheat market rallies here were in the face of sharp downturns of Liverpool quotations attributed to persistent selling pressure of new crop Australian wheat. The Liverpool price tumbles approximated 3 cents a bushel.

At the close, Chicago wheat futures were 1/2 cent higher, up compared with yesterday's finish, May 98 1/2-1/4, July 98 1/4-1/4, corn 1/4-1/4 down, May 61-61 1/2, July 61 1/2-1/4.

Gardeners' and Ranchers' Mart

PORTLAND, Jan. 12.—(AP)—A healthy tone was apparent on the Portland Gardeners' and Ranchers' market today.
Oregon cauliflower was in good demand with final sales as high as $1.50 per crate. Artichokes were stronger, and the price was expected to go up due to recent frosts in California.

The first peas from Mexico went at $4 to $4.25 per crate of 30 lbs.
A light supply of Walla Walla spinach moved readily at $1.20 per flat.
Apples—Oregon Jonathans, small medium, 25¢-31¢; Spitzbergen, 31¢-35¢; Delicious, extra fancy, 31¢-35¢; Ben's—Calif., Kentucky Wonder, 11-12 lb. boxes—Oregon, $1-1.25; Broccoli—Crate, $2.25-2.35.

Profit Taking Hurts Issues

Leaders, Except Utilities, Fall Back; Volume Has Decline

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Stock market leaders bucked profit cashing today and retreated a little in the process.

Only the utilities, as a group, stayed on the plus side throughout the session, although a few rails and gold mines held at the finish gains earned in an earlier rally.

Mostly advances and losses were mostly measured in fractions. Volume dwindled after an active opening in which large blocks were traded. First hour upturns were erased as the session wore on.

Transactions Down
Transactions fell under yesterday's figure, totaling 1,209,800 shares against 1,506,260. There were 334 advances, 339 declines and 191 issues were unchanged.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dropped .2 of a point at 47.7. The 15 utilities in the compilation added .5 of a point at 34.9.

"GIVER WINGS"

By MARIE BLIZARD

CHAPTER XXVI
Julie wrapped herself in the turk fish toweling robe that had been placed on the bath-chair and opened the door. The maid was gone. And so were all of Julie's clothes except the white silk pique tennis dress which had been miraculously preserved and was left hanging on a hook on the outside of the bathroom door. Her high-heeled brown and white opera pumps were placed beside the slipper chair. Fresh lingerie and stockings were neatly piled on the chair. They sat eloquently, "You are expected to wear."

She saw that there were about ten persons there. Girls in casual clothes like hers, men in fannels wearing striped baggy shirts. Saw Paul. Mostly saw Paul.

"Hello!" she said experimentally with a glance that was meant to include all of them. She felt self-conscious.

Stanley Lombard appeared at her side. "Julie... don't try to remember their names. We'll have a go at it for politeness sake..."

Julie said no and Paul leaned toward her. "Mean it?"

She looked at him and turned back her fingers one by one. "Look here, you can't go back to Fayette right away."
