

Attebery Reports On Europe's Isms

Real Threat to US Though
"Dictator" Charges Are Empty now, States

SEATTLE, Jan. 19.—(AP)—The Rev. E. Raymond Attebery, recently returned from Europe, told an audience here that the "neo-pagan philosophy and Caesar-worship of Hitler and Mussolini have united German and Italian youth in a mass devotion that is startling to encounter."

"Mussolini has set the imagination of Italian youth aflame with the dream that Italy is returning to the power and glory of Rome under the Caesars," he said.

"Our democracies, to stave off dictatorships, must carve out objectives for the people, and special interests must discard their privileges—our moneyed interests, in time of crises, must be ready to offer their resources and our gifted leaders their lives, on the altar of the common good, to meet the fascists' program of self-sacrifice."

He said critics who brand President Roosevelt a "dictator" while enjoying the right to attack him publicly at will should experience the stern repression in Germany, where fear of secret police makes citizens plead with visitors not to disclose their secret criticisms of the government.

Sixty per cent of the professors have left Germany rather than submit to Nazi instructions to bend the minds of their students into the narrow channels of fascism, the minister declared.

Rev. E. Raymond Attebery was student body president of Willamette university in 1919.
