

Youth at Lebanon Ahead on Berries

Group Attends Lectures on First Aid Presented by Red Cross, Albany

LEBANON—Among the accomplishments of the PFA of Lebanon high school with professor Ira Forrey, instructor, is that of Victor Bartruff, a Lacombe boy who has completed his agriculture program which consisted of 2 1/2 acres of black caps from which he sold 1424 pounds of berries at 19¢ a pound, making $128.16. Adding a closing inventory his receipts were $378.16; deducting his expense of $225.83 his labor income was $152.33.

The boys are planning a banquet February 10, where their parents will get acquainted with each other.

Attend Red Cross Lectures
Grace Geist, Lenora Soule, Clarence Shemanek and Don Schlieke are attending the first aid lectures to instructors by Ralph Carlson of San Francisco at the chamber of commerce building in Albany every week night.

There are now 2000 first aid stations in the United States and the outlook is for a station every five miles; 5000 is the goal outlined for the coming year. Fire Chief M. J. Gilson and other business people attend part time.

Expect Grand Chief
At the meeting of the Pythian Sisters Tuesday night, plans were made to entertain the grand chief, Clara Mars of Alice, Ore., who will address the chapter March 1 with the Albany chapter as invited guests.

The 85th birthday of Henry Friday, who makes his home with his niece, Mrs. Perry Ginter, was observed Friday by a family dinner and a visit to relatives.

Dr. R. B. Miller and his brother, Howard, have returned from Walla Walla, Wash., where they were called by the illness of their step-sister, Mrs. Mary Ellen Wilfong, 78, a student at the Santiam academy in 1882, who died in a Walla Walla hospital January 13.

The Christian Endeavor of the Church of Christ sponsored a party at the church Wednesday evening as a farewell to Marjorie Ward, who will move to Philomath soon. She received a group gift.

Roy Fitzwater of Salem is spending a few days on his farm here. He is having 200 walnut trees pulled up. R. C. Burkhart also of the north side, is taking out his prune orchard and will sow alfalfa. He is clearing stump land on the former P. L. Wallace place.

Program and Shower Follow Business Meet Of Woodburn Rebekahs

WOODBURN—Home Rebekah lodge No. 58 held its regular meeting Tuesday evening with Mrs. Georgia Frenz presiding. A short business session was held after which a program and gift shower was given honoring Miss Freda Hall whose marriage to Arthur M. Burt took place Wednesday evening.

A feature of the entertainment was a mock wedding in which Mrs. Nora Broyles acted as the bride. Mrs. Mae Engle, the bridegroom; Mrs. Georgia Frenz and Alton Hopkins, attendants; Mrs. Gladys McClure, mother of the bride; Vernon Frenz, the father; J. Melvin Ringo, the doctor; and Robert Hall the minister. Mrs. Nina Ringo sang "O Promise Me" with original words.

Miss Helen Moeding gave a reading. Refreshments were served in the dining room where the tables were decorated with crepe paper dolls wearing cellophane veils. A pink umbrella was placed in the center underneath which the gifts were placed. The committee in charge of the serving was Opal Hasenager, Joyce Woodfin, Lila Ashland and May Strick.

Turner Couple Married In Vancouver Saturday; Man From Bulgaria Speaks

TURNER—Miss Myrtle Nelson and Greg Thomas, were married Saturday at Vancouver, Wash. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson. They will make their home in Turner.

Cyrus Barker has recovered from her recent illness and is teaching her school in Crawford district.

Mr. and Mrs. U. E. Denyer entertained guests from Portland Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dozier, Mr. and Mrs. Lahodney, and Mrs. Francis.

Paul Stephen Rahseff, district superintendent of the Assemblies of God, of Bulgaria, Europe, spoke at the local church Friday night.

Card Party Set Tuesday For Shaw Schoolhouse

SHAW — A card party will be given on Tuesday, January 26th in the school house. Games are to be the diversions of the evening. This is the second party in the series to be given before Lent.

AT DALLAS
SPECIAL
SUNDAY DINNERS served at the
REX CAFE
Open Until 3:00 P. M.

Wanted in Dallas
4 or 5-Room Modern
HOUSE TO RENT
LEAVE WORD AT THE REX CAFE

Grangers' News

LIBERTY — Delegates and visitors representing the Red Hills grange at Pomona in Turner Wednesday were Ralph Dent, master, Mrs. Dent, Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Northrup, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Clark, Mrs. P. G. Judd, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dallas, E. O. Beckley.

LIBERTY—The Red Hills grange will meet Tuesday, January 25, at 8 p. m. An old-fashioned musicale will be the program, including several numbers by the new grange chorus. The chorus is being formed by members of the Red Hills grange. Several singers practiced this week and more are expected to join.

Noel Williams is organizer and director, with Mrs. Edwin Caldwell, pianist. Practice will be held every Wednesday night in the grange hall. Grangers are invited to join.

East Side, Study Clubs Meet, Amity

AMITY—The Amity Study club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. O. Morse, with Mrs. T. W. Dickey presiding.

After business meeting, Miss Laura Judy, chairman of the program committee, gave a review of the three months' lessons on American literature and works of Benjamin Franklin, Longfellow, Hawthorne, Oliver Wendell Holmes and others. Current events were discussed. During the social hour the hostess served 10 members and one guest.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. C. L. Allison, February 4.

The East Side Sewing club met Thursday with Mrs. Nettie Schaeffer. After business meeting the afternoon was spent quilting for the hostess.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames J. F. Switzer, Eddie Schaeffer, T. C. Richter, Tom Smith, H. R. Martin, Katie Weston, Mary E. Breeding, Bert Tovey, Edward McClure, Nettie Tovey, Al Dereave, Mary French, Lloyd Tresham, M. Blair, Harry O'Reilly, Elwood Cooper, Glenn Alderman, W. A. Williams and the hostess, Mrs. Clara Broadwell was a guest. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Eddie Schaeffer February 3.

Seniors Present Successful Play

MONMOUTH—The senior high school play, "Here Comes Charlie," presented Thursday and Friday nights by a cast of 10, was acclaimed a successful performance by the large audiences it drew, nightly.

Friday night the cast and committee heads sponsored a late supper party, complimenting Miss Edith Clark, the coach, and Miss Alice Welbes, who assisted with costumes and other details, at the home of Virginia Craven. Appropriate gifts were presented them. Present at the party were Miss Clark, Miss Welbes, Nadene and Donna Buss, Lenora Jensen, Jean Inlow, Edna June Yarnall, Warren Newton, John Irving, Harold Hamar, Glenn Waggoner, Bert Collins, Kenneth Mulkey, Maurice Smith, Richard Dietrick, Carl Bond and Virginia Craven.

To Go to Aberdeen for Visit With Relatives

BRUSH CREEK—Mrs. John Isaacson (Martha Jensen) who has been a guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Anna K. Jensen, since Thanksgiving, will leave this week for Aberdeen, Wash., where she will visit for a few days with her husband's people. She plans to return to Brush Creek in time to observe her mother's birthday anniversary here on January 31 and soon after that will return to her home in Montana.

PTA at Aumsville Has Regular Meet

AUMSVILLE—The Parent-Teacher association met at the schoolhouse Thursday night for the regular meeting. Committee reports were made. The treasurer, Miss Roberta Smith, reported $313.36. Mrs. William Forey reported work being started in the sewing club toward the bazaar fancy work and quilts, and announced a joint meeting of the sewing and study clubs to be held February 2 in the school dining room. Mrs. Steiner announced the conference being sponsored by OSC February 8-11.

Announcement was made by Fred Garbe of the Farmers' Union meeting to be held January 25, at which state and county presidents will be present, and at which Senator Carney will be the principal speaker and will speak on Bonneville power.

The program included community singing led by Mrs. D. W. Lamb, with Mrs. R. T. Mountain and Mrs. Fred Potter playing two-piano accompaniment; Mr. Harper, original poem; high school glee club, selection; high school girls' quartet, selection; two-piano selections by Mrs. Fred Potter and Mrs. R. T. Mountain; humorous dialogue by Norman Long and Leonard McCoy; accordion solos, Fred Steiner.

Albany District Pioneer Buried

ALBANY—Richard Anderson, 80, whose funeral services were held Saturday, was a pioneer of the Tangent section, born on his parents' donation land claim in 1857. He early became interested in farming, and after he wed Josephine Cooper in 1881, they settled on the old homestead following five years spent at Prineville. He spent the last years of his life on the Cooper claim, one mile from the place where he was born. He was a member of IOOF lodge of Albany and was an active member for 57 years of Sand Ridge grange, being a past master. A brother, William Anderson of Albany, and sister, Mrs. Clara Burhart of Portland, survive.

Folk From Rickreall Are Dinner Guests in Corvallis on Friday

RICKREALL—A large group from here went to Corvallis Friday evening where they were entertained at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Valden Guldts. Those going were Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Pence, and Betty; Mrs. L. L. Larkin, Lloyd, Claude and John Larkin, Blaine Southwick, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Riney. They were accompanied from Monmouth by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Iverson and Mr. and Mrs. James Rabb of Independence. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lahman of San Francisco are visiting with his aunt, Mrs. R. F. Grobert. Mr. Lahman is a member of the ship's crew that is at present in Portland.

Talbot Telephone Officers Elected

TALBOT—A meeting was held in the Talbot schoolhouse Tuesday night to elect officers for the coming year on telephone line 46. Elected were: Chairman, D. E. Turnidge; secretary-treasurer, George Potts, Jr.; linemen, John Calayan; directors, Claude Johnson, Jake Gilmour and William Wiederkebe.

One night recently thieves broke into Albert Davidson's garage and stole about 30 gallons of gasoline, tools and robes. They also stripped a tractor of all tools and gasoline. Mrs. Connie Henningsen, teacher of the Parish Gap school, is ill and is in Portland this week for medical treatment. Mrs. E. J. Freeman is substituting for her. C. F. Johnston is on the sick list this week. He is suffering from bronchial trouble.

Recipes Topic at Hayesville Club

HAYESVILLE—Mrs. W. R. Powers, assisted by Mrs. M. Wells, entertained the Hayesville Women's club Thursday for their "recipe luncheon." Each member brought her prize recipe, made up.

Mrs. F. Marshall served as president. Mrs. R. Day gave a paper from the National Geographical society. Guests were Mrs. W. Ray, Mrs. Elsie Frey, Mrs. Pierre Saucy, Mrs. L. Carrow.

Bruce Willis tripped over a laundry bag recently and cut his face, necessitating three stitches.

Masonic Officers Meet In Woodburn Wednesday For District Meeting

WOODBURN—A meeting of the Masters' and Wardens' association of district No. 6, A. F. & A. M. was held in the Masonic temple here Wednesday evening with about 60 present representing lodges of Donald, Gervais, Silverton, Salem, Amity, Rickreall, Independence, Dallas and Woodburn.

The meeting was presided over by L. R. Tweedie of the local lodge. The speaker of the evening was R. H. C. Bennett of Newberg, who was introduced by F. W. Seitelmier. Others who spoke were Lles S. Finseth of Dallas, Captain Walter Lansing and Milton L. Myers of Salem.

Refreshments were served in the dining room where Robert M. Kreason of Dallas acted as toastmaster. George Jones was chairman of the refreshment committee.

Miss Simkins Named Placement Secretary

MONMOUTH—Miss Leneve Simkins of Cottage Grove, a graduate of Oregon State college, recently was appointed placement bureau secretary at Oregon Normal school, filling the position vacated by Miss Margaret Wheel-don.

Valentine's Day Feb. 14 -- Send a

Valentine's Card!

Find just the design you want, just the verse to express your sentiments, among the hundreds of cards in Salem's most fascinating Valentine display!

5 for 5c and up to $1.50

Cooke's STATIONERY COMPANY
340 State - Just East of Ladd & Bush

Youngsters' Make-up Boxes
6 to 12 Valentines for hand-coloring... complete with brush and water colors.
15c to 50c

15c to 50c

5 for 5c and up to $1.50

Don't Be Blind to Facts

You could not dial a telephone number blindfolded—efficiently.

A friendly chat with your physician, who has had years of experience in not only making people well but keeping them well, will open your eyes to important facts about your health.

Bring His Prescriptions to Us

Our Prescription Service Is the Best Service We Render

WILLET'S

Capital Drug Store

305 State, Corner Liberty Phone 3118

Don't Be Blind to Facts

You could not dial a telephone number blindfolded—efficiently.

A friendly chat with your physician, who has had years of experience in not only making people well but keeping them well, will open your eyes to important facts about your health.

Bring His Prescriptions to Us

Our Prescription Service Is the Best Service We Render

WILLET'S
Capital Drug Store
305 State, Corner Liberty Phone 3118

January CLEARANCE SALE

Brings to You The Most Amazing Bedroom Suite Value Oregon Has Ever Seen!

48⁸⁸

Less Your Old Suite As Part Payment!

Trade In Your Old Suite!

THREE PIECES IN BEAUTIFUL WALNUT REG. WORTH AT LEAST $30 MORE!

Away with the old, outmoded bedroom set, when you can have a beautiful new suite like this at such a genuinely big saving! Never has Gevurtz offered such a value. Today, it's Oregon's biggest in three-piece bedroom suites... the full-sized bed, vanity and chest for $48.88... and when you see it you will be convinced. Limited number only!

• TERMS LOW AS $1.00 A WEEK!

9-Pc. Living Room Complete
The whole harmonizing group is priced at just what you'd expect to pay for the wonderful inner-spring beautifully covered suite alone! We include:

- Day and Night Chair
- Occasional Chair
- Occasional Table
- End Table
- 2-Pc. Lamp Group

EASY TERMS! EASY TERMS!

99.95

Big Reductions in The Rug Department

Save 1/4 to 1/2 on
Dining Room Suites!

1-of-a-Kind
Mattresses and Springs Reduced!

Clearance Savings
on Refrigerators,
Washers and Ranges

Visit our
Bargain Basement

The Gorgeous Chair Ensemble You've Longed For

The most gorgeous Eastern made Gevurtz has ever offered at such a sensationally low price! Values to $85! Finest hand carved frames; high grade springs; down; richest coverings; value unequalled!

44.50

TRADE IN OLD FURNITURE!

$1⁰⁰
TERMS LOW AS A WEEK

GEVURTZ
FURNITURE COMPANY 275 N. LIBERTY STREET, SALEM, ORE.