

"A GOOD DRUM DOES NOT NEED HARD STRIKING"
—AN OLD PROVERB

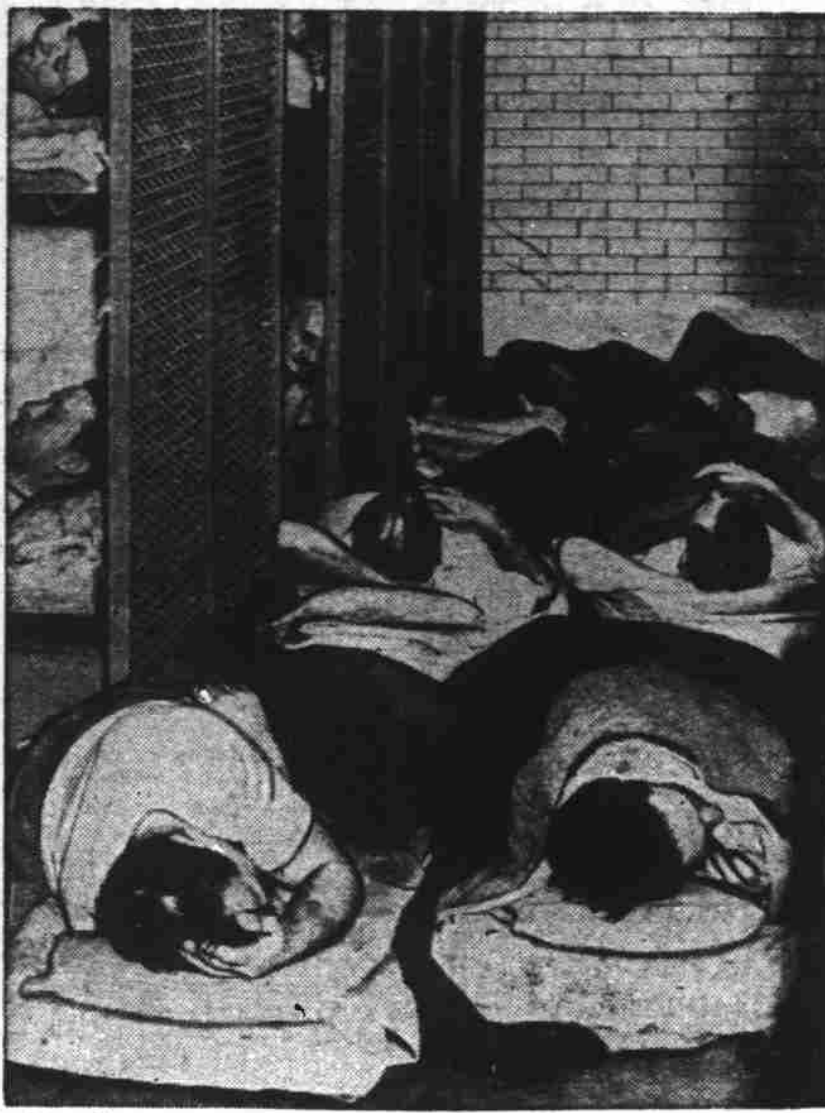

When coffee is of fine quality — when it maintains unvarying excellence year in and year out — it does not need loud shouting nor bombastic claims to support its reputation. This has been the policy of Hills Bros. during their sixty years of coffee-roasting experience. The goodness of the coffee itself is the reason millions of people buy it again and again.

Los Angeles to Build new Jail

Construction was recently rushed on a new prison farm at Castaic, Cal., in order to relieve crowded conditions at Los Angeles county jail. The new barracks will accommodate 600 prisoners. Present quarters are so congested that many inmates are forced to sleep with their pallets on the floor. This view was taken in the Los Angeles county jail at 10:35 p. m.—IN photo.

Granger's Column

SILVERTON—The Silverton Grange Home Economics club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Theodore Hobart with 14 members present.

Plans were made to arrange for a social night for the grange for the first Saturday in March. The next meeting of the group will be March 9 with Mrs. Earl Frink, Miss Merle Bowen is club president.

BRUSH COLLEGE—The best attended meeting of the season for Brush College grange was that of Friday night. The program, in charge of Mrs. Glen Adams, lecturer, included exhibition by the reorganized drill team under the captains, Ruth Whitney and Vivian Burton; and numbers by Corydon Blodgett and Ralph Ewing.

Grange Master F. E. Wilson presided at the business meeting when a special new order was a round table discussion of the new grange building. Last year's building committee on the building was discharged and a committee for formulating plans to raise funds was named: F. E. Wilson, Roy E. Barker and Glen Adams; and building committee, Dr. C. L. Blodgett, Elmer Cook and H. M. Buell. Reports were given on the 4th club conference at Dallas by Irene Cutler and Ruth Whitney. Plans were made by the Home Economics club for a group to attend a home economics demonstration conference at Dallas.

LIBERTY—Tuesday night was anniversary night for the Red Hills grange and three anniversaries were observed. These were 150th of the signing of the United States constitution, the birthday of Oregon as a state, it was admitted on February 14, 1859; and the seventh birthday of the Red Hills grange. It was organized in February 1931 by S. H. Edwards of Monmouth.

A bountiful covered dish dinner was served. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stacey, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wilson, Ernest Clark, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Beckley, (the men in order all former masters of this grange; also present Master and Mrs. Ralph Dent, Pomona Master and Mrs. J. O. Farr, County Deputy and Mrs. W. A. Jones of Macleay, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rice of Roberts.

W. R. Dallas, toastmaster, gave a short history of Red Hills grange and its work. J. O. Farr expressed sentiments in favor of the associated farmers' organization; S. H. Edwards spoke briefly on the Ludlow amendment, and other visitors spoke. Telegraphic greetings were read and received from Howard Zinser who was this grange's first overseer. He is now in California.

This program was presented by Mrs. Grant Teter, lecturer; Vocal solo, Noel Williams; grange chorus number; clipping, "Your Country," Mrs. Dallas; original grange song, P. G. Judd; Mrs. E. Caldwell was accompanist. Wayne Williams gave a talk on signing the constitution a century ago. Group singing ended the program.

In the grange session which followed, routine business was transacted. The Ludlow amendment also was discussed and opposed by E. O. Beckley and Wayne Williams.

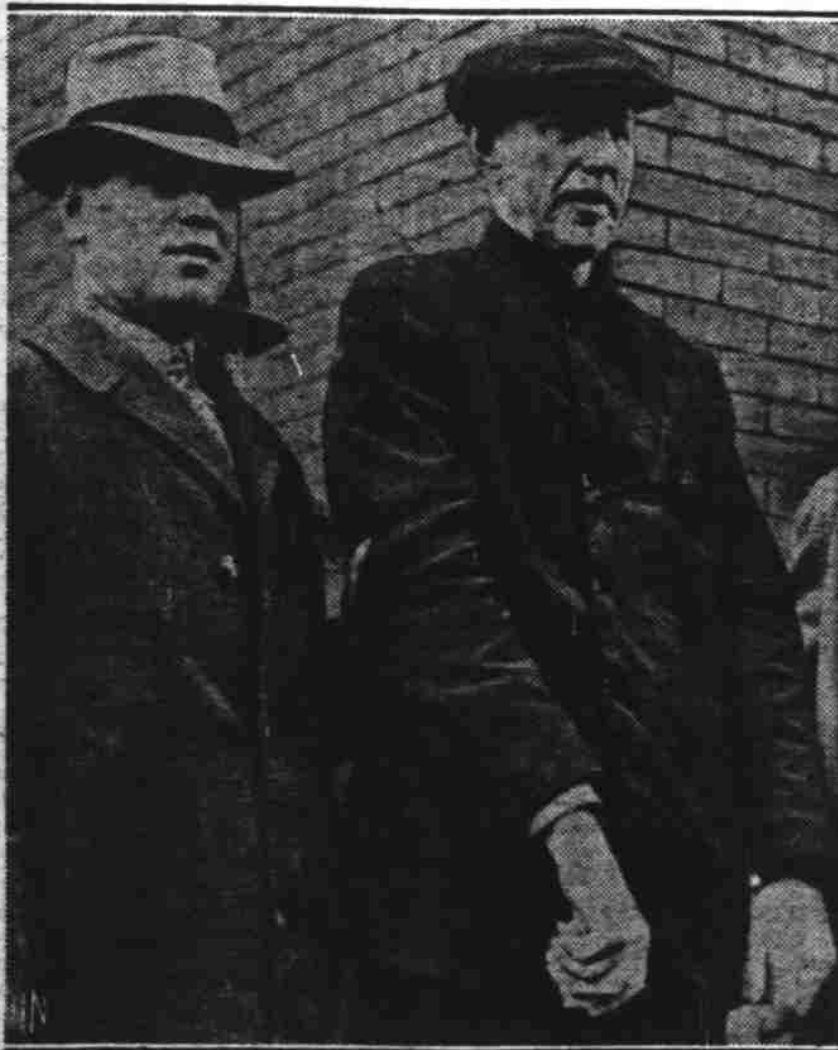

CHEMAWA—Chemawa grange will serve a chicken dinner and give an hour's entertainment at the MWA hall Tuesday night, February 15, beginning at 5:30 until all are served. Plans were completed by the home economics club at its regular meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. H. W. Bowden in the Kelzer district. The proceeds from this dinner will go toward the purchase of the site for the new grange hall. A good attendance was present at the Bowden home and quilting was the order of the day. The next all day meeting of the club will be on February 23, with Mrs. Harvey Hansen.

Chemawa grange held its regular business meeting Tuesday night with all officers present except one who was ill. After a lengthy session the lecturer, Chas. Weathers presented a program stressing agriculture. Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Kiehhege and Harry S. Keeter were hosts for the night and the valentine motif was carried out in the refreshments and decorations. Guests were present from Salem grange and their master, M. E. Townsend, spoke briefly on steps taken by the Salem chamber of commerce in an effort to secure Salem as the meeting place for the national grange convention which will be held somewhere in Oregon next November.
