

County Meet Opens Today

Woodburn Church Is Host for 39th Annual Session Starting Tonight

WOODBURN—The 39th annual Sunday school convention of the Marion county Sunday school council of Christian education will be held at the Methodist church here beginning Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. The convention theme will be "Keepers of the Light".

The program Friday night includes a song service by the Woodburn Church of Christ Sunday school, devotionals by the Woodburn Free Methodist Sunday school, address of welcome by the Sunday school of the Woodburn M. E. church, response by the Hubbard Sunday school, special music by the Bethel Sunday school, visualized address by Homer Lelsy, special music by the Woodburn Church of God, 20 minute discussion period with Homer Lelsy as leader.

Saturday Program

The Saturday morning program beginning at 9:30 o'clock will include a song service in charge of the Gervais Sunday school, devotional service led by the Sunday school of Donald, special music by the Aurora Sunday school. At 10:15 there will be a discussion with members divided into three groups, elementary, senior and administrative. Leaders will be Mrs. George R. Clippell, Louis Koenig and Glenn E. McClellan. Rev. Irving A. Fox of Salem will deliver a talk on "A Ministers' Reflection," which will be followed by a basket dinner at 12 o'clock noon. A meeting of the nominating committee is scheduled to open at 1 p.m.

The afternoon program, 1:30, will open with song services led by the Sunday school of Fairfield, devotional service by the Woodburn Presbyterians, special music by the Butteville Sunday school followed by another three group discussion with the leaders the same as for the forenoon meeting. There will also be a business meeting during the afternoon.

Officers of the Marion county council are Fred de Vries, president; Glenn E. McClellan, vice president; Mrs. E. J. de Vries, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. H. P. Shanks, superintendent of the children's division. Mrs. Grace Klampe is secretary.

Robins Make Return Known at Recital of Their Evening Song

HAYESVILLE—The traditional herald of spring made its appearance known in a dramatic way Monday night.

The robin makes his winter home here some winters, but none were to be seen this year.

Monday night, in the very tip-top of a fir tree, one sang the evening song as if its throat would burst, to make it known they were back again for the summer.

Grangers' News

Salem grange will hold its regular monthly meeting in the Auburn school house this Saturday night. The poultry industry will be given special consideration during the lecture hour. Several reels of moving pictures depicting interesting and important phases of the poultry industry will be shown.

Prof. J. F. Zvinth, instructor in the Agricultural Department of the Senior Salem High School, will give a talk on the magnitude and importance of the poultry industry in the Willamette Valley, the state and the United States. The musical program will include a vocal solo by Junior Manning Nelson accompanied by Miss Freda Hultgren.

Among important business matters to be taken up for further consideration during the business hour will be a special committee report to be made by Theo. G. Nelson on the possibility of establishing and maintaining experimentation and demonstration of plots of grass, grain and home gardens on grange owned land in connection with a hall to be bought or built by the Salem grange in the near future. Salem Grange public meeting at 8 p.m.

SILVERTON—Just what the program will be at the Friday night meeting of the Silverton grange is unknown as yet but Mrs. Karl Haberly, lecturer reports that the Fairfield grange has been invited to attend and give the evening's program.

Fruitland School Offers Program

FRUITLAND—At the school house Tuesday night the school children put on an interesting program, centered around the great leader Washington.

The program included individual numbers by Lola Jean Wiley, Barbara Ryan, Truman Ruppel, Lucille Reeder, Marjorie Smith, Betty Lively, Doris Runner, Raymond Gerig, Ruth Hostetler, Elva Smith, and group songs and numbers.

Monday night a Christian Endeavor Social was enjoyed by R. v. D. R. Kaufman and two daughters Kathryn and Josephine, Gladys Gerig, Thelma Gerig, Inez Runner, Geraldine Woolley, Joyce Lively, Dora Bellemay, Raymond Armstrong, Dale Lively, Milton Bressler, Dwight Runner, Ernest Gerig, Fred Fagg and Clarence Fagg.

The Fruitland harmonica band, with about 16 enrolled is making progress. The instructor Mrs. R. G. Lively, has been ill for the past week but is recovering now.

Onion Houses Burned In Blaze Near Aurora

AURORA — At 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning the Aurora fire department was called to Miramonte Farm, formerly known as Muckel ranch on the Willamette river three miles north of Aurora but firemen arrived too late to save the onion houses which were a total loss.
