Six Baskets on Award List For Cakes

Six Statesman readers will win baskets of groceries in the contest which is being conducted for cake recipes using the New Nucoa. The contest is being sponsored by The Oregon Statesman and the makers of New Nucoa and entries will close on Saturday night, March 5.

Remember that you can send in as many recipes for cakes using Nucoa as you wish, but put only one on each sheet, and enclose the end of a package of New Nucoa with each recipe. The flap should show the Good Housekeeping seal of approval and the American Medical Association seal. Already we've such interesting sounding cake recipes as Chocolate Applesauce cake, Lightning Nucoa cake and Pecan Nucoa Spice cake. Be sure your best recipe is among those entered.

The basket of groceries will include a two-pound package of New Nucoa, a quart jar of Best Foods mayonnaise and 5 other Best Foods items. All entrants will receive the new 24 page booklet "Cakes and Cookies with Personality."

Two Skirts With a Single Suit, Is Spring Idea

"Two skirt suits" are rumored to be the rage in eastern style centers, and again the men will raise their eyebrows, thinking they see a bit of similarity to the two pants idea. But again we women have gone them one step better, instead of the second skirt being identical to the first, it's something different, thus making another combination for street wear, without materially adding to the cost of the suit.

Today's Menu

- Chinese cabbage will be salad, deep dish rhubarb pie the dessert. Chinese cabbage slaw Crab and noodle casserole Buttered beets Deep dish rhubarb pie CRAB AND NOODLE CASSEROLE 1 package noodles 1 cup crab meat 1 green pepper, chopped 1 onion, chopped 2 cans tomato soup 1 teaspoon salt Paprika Pepper 1/2 pound American cheese. Cook noodles with salt in boiling water until tender, about 20 minutes. Fry pepper and onion slowly in butter until clear, but not brown.
