Fishing Bulletin Season Now Here

PORTLAND, March 4-(P)-Angling enthusiasts hailed today the first fishing bulletin of the season, issued by the state game department.

Information on waters opened in advance of the regular season was limited but weekly reports will reach full status in a week or two, Frank B. Wire, supervisor, said.

The bulletin reported fair catches of steelhead from the Nestucca and Trask rivers and some cutthroat trout from tidewater.

Trout of 10 inches or more have been taken from Ten Mile Lake in Coos county. Sea run trout provided fair sport in the Alsea and Yachats rivers in Lincoln county. Good luck with a variety of sea fish was reported by rock fishermen.

Baer Loses to Finn in Upset

Buddy Has Enough in 7th After Artistic Lacing by Gunnar Barlund

NEW YORK, March 4-(P)-Gunnar Barlund, ring-scarred Finnish heavyweight, sprang a fistic upset tonight by stopping Jacob Henry 'Buddy' Baer, Jr., giant younger brother of Max, in the seventh round of a 10-round match, the main bout at Madison Square Garden. Referee Billy Cavanaugh halted the bout in 1:36 of the seventh as Baer hung on the ropes in his own corner, and awarded a technical knockout victory to Barlund.

The outcome not only surprised a gathering of 8565 cash customers, who paid $23,102.34, but shocked the betting fraternity which had made Baer a 5 to 12 choice to win and 5 to 6 favorite to win by a knockout.

Baer called it quits after taking a pasting for five of the first six rounds. He was not once knocked off his feet, though he slipped and went to his knees once, in the sixth round, but Buddy turned appealingly to his corner and then to the referee just before the bout came to a sudden ending.

'Enough,' Says Buddy 'I've had enough,' Baer mumbled to Cavanaugh as the referee started to pry the pair apart.

Baer, in his own corner, was on the receiving end of a two-handed shelling and bleeding freely from the nose and mouth. His arms dangled at his side, his huge shoulders slumped, and he gave every appearance of being thoroughly discouraged.

In the midst of the furor caused by Barlund's decisive victory, one of the Finn's handlers, Al Ramo, fell to the ring floor in a faint. He was quickly revived but had twisted one knee and had to be carried from the ring.

The sturdy Finn spotted his rival 42 pounds, scaling only 200 1/2 to Buddy's 242 1/2, but his effective left-hand punching and superior generalship more than offset Baer's physical advantages.

Officials to Eye Ban on Fishers

Wild Life Group Would Outlaw Fixed Gear as Detrimental

The state planning board, at the suggestion of Governor Charles H. Martin, will conduct an investigation of an initiative measure filed here recently by the Oregon wild life council to ban fixed gear fishing in the Columbia river and its tributaries.

This agreement was reached Friday at a conference here of a committee of the Oregon sea and game fishermen, presided by Elmer Beebe, president, and the governor. The governor originally was requested to assist the net fishermen in fighting the initiative measure.

'We have been accused of catching the bulk of steelhead and female salmon and being a menace to the Columbia river salmon industry,' Beebe told Governor Martin.

Only 17 Per Cent Taken 'Official figures show that our gear takes only 17 per cent of all salmon caught in the Columbia river. The same figures show that steelhead catches by the Columbia river commercial fishermen represent only 7 per cent of the entire salmon take and that of this 7 per cent we take only 39 per cent and other gear 61 per cent.'

Beebe said the charge that the net fishermen's gear was taking more female salmon than other gear was ridiculous.

'We believe the sportsmen of Oregon have been misled into sponsoring this measure,' Beebe declared. 'The measure is sponsored by the Columbia river gillnet fishermen who want a complete monopoly on the Columbia river salmon.'

Beebe said passage of the measure would disrupt the state's third largest industry.
