

Citizen Girls Honored at Meeting

The four good citizenship pilgrimage girls were guests on Saturday afternoon of their sponsors, members of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution at the meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Riner. The girls introduced by Mrs. C. C. Clark, chairman were Miss Mary Ellen Dalton of Dallas, Miss Ithil Neal of Silverton, Miss June Harris of Jefferson and Miss Elizabeth Steed of Salem. Each girl gave a short talk.

Mrs. A. E. Austin, regent, presided at the meeting. Mrs. U. G. Shipley led in prayer and read the scripture. The eulogy was read by Mrs. F. W. Settlemier, Miss Dorothy Smalley gave a violin solo accompanied by her mother. She is a member of a junior citizen chapter. Miss Phillip Gosser directs the two junior citizen chapters, James Otis and Patrick Henry. There were representatives from both chapters at the meeting yesterday.

A memorial service was held for Mrs. Catharine Powell of Woodburn. Announcement was made of the date of the state DAR March 15, 16 and 17 with the Multnomah chapter acting as hostess. The memorial services will be held at St. Stephen's Episcopal church. Various reports were given by Mrs. F. W. Settlemier, conservation chairman, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, chairman of American Indian, and Mrs. Herbert Ostlund, scholarship loan.

Mrs. James Kitamiller, first pilgrim to go from the state to Washington, D. C. in 1934, was present and talked. Mrs. Austin appointed the nominating committee, Mrs. C. C. Clark, Mrs. W. H. Byrd and Mrs. Oscar Hayter. The chapter voted to give money to the battleship Oregon.

Guests present were Mrs. Dalton of Dallas, Mrs. M. A. Goughnour and Miss Dorothy Benson of Silverton, Miss R. H. eta May Schuda and Miss Deze Schuidt of Liberty.

Eteri Class Enjoys St. Patrick's Party

A St. Patrick's party was enjoyed by members of the Eteri class of the First Baptist church Friday night in the prayer meeting room of the church. Large green horseshoes decorated the walls of the room. A business meeting was held, followed by the presentation of a skit "Pyramus and Thisbe" from "Midsummer Night's Dream." The characters were Thisbe, Mrs. V. L. Walsler, Pyramus, Leo Bolman, Jester, Floyd Miller, wall, Chris Seeley, moonshine, Vern Zobel, bugler, Rev. Irving Fox; lion, Roy Cole.

Games were in play, followed by the presentation of a skit "Pyramus and Thisbe" from "Midsummer Night's Dream." The characters were Thisbe, Mrs. V. L. Walsler, Pyramus, Leo Bolman, Jester, Floyd Miller, wall, Chris Seeley, moonshine, Vern Zobel, bugler, Rev. Irving Fox; lion, Roy Cole.

Refreshments were served at with the St. Patrick's motif used in the decorations. Bands were sung at the table and an orchestra composed of V. L. Walsler, violin; Floyd Miller, saxophone; Mrs. Walsler, piano, playing during the supper hour. Covers were placed for 105 guests. The committee in charge included Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Seeley and Mrs. Walter Arthur.

Legion Birthday Party On Monday

During the regular business and social meeting of the American Legion and Sons of Norway, the birthday anniversary will be celebrated. The program will include numbers by the high school band under the direction of Gordon Finlay. The Legion quartet will sing, Helen Tyson Pray will give readings and numbers will be presented by Ed Cheney's dancing school.

The refreshment committee is: Mesdames Harold Perkins, Fred Gahlsdorf, Herbert Jirak, R. D. Woodrow, Glen Seeley, Klonz Smith, John Coater, Onas Olson, Phillip Corbet; decoration committee: Mesdames Lyman McDonald, Alfred Williams, Charles Duvall, Glenn Porter.

On March 15 to 17 birthday parties will be given by American Legion posts throughout the nation. The celebration will commemorate the caucus of American soldiers in Paris where the Legion was formed. Dances and entertainments in public and private will be planned. A nationwide broadcast is scheduled to open the celebration when national officers will speak and famous Legionnaires of the radio and screen will participate. The hour's program will begin at midnight, Eastern Standard time.

Fashion Bridge Will Be Event of March 23

One of the larger events scheduled for March is the second annual fashion bridge for which members of Beta Sigma Phi, national education sorority, will be hostesses the evening of March 23 at the Elks temple. Mrs. George Seales heads the directorate in charge of the bridge benefit.

Tickets will be on sale this week and may be obtained from any of the members. Playing will begin at 8 o'clock to be followed by the fashion show. Both men and women have been invited to attend the affair. A number of reservations have already been made and it is expected over a 100 tables will be in play.

Musical Events Lead On Calendar for Coming Weeks

The coming week is to be rather quiet with no large social functions planned but the following weeks will be busy with several large parties and benefits. Notable among the affairs are several musical events and an intensely interesting garden lecture.

The first event on the calendar is the lecture sponsored by the Salem Garden club on Wednesday night, March 16, in the First Congregational church when Miss Edith Schryver will give an illustrated talk on Spanish gardens. She will use the hand-colored pictures taken by herself and Miss Elizabeth Lord when on tour.

Miss Lord and Miss Schryver toured Europe in 1927 under the direction of Henry A. Frost, landscape instructor of Harvard, visiting the outstanding gardens of England, Italy, Germany and Spain. As many private gardens, not ordinarily seen by tourists, are opened to groups from special schools of landscape gardening, this tour was an especially complete one. They sailed to the Isle of Majorca in the Mediterranean sea and spent a week at Palma, the capital city, which was one of the special treats of the trip. But as they were early in the season, few tourists had been there and gardens were in better shape. The group visited the old patios and gardens of the 12th century in Toledo, since ruined in the war.

Both Miss Schryver and Miss Lord are graduates of the Lowthorpe school of landscape gardening. The pictures being shown will appear here for the first time, having been displayed twice in Portland. The lecture is open to the public, with only a small admission; tickets may be obtained from members of the Garden club or at the florist shops.

Grainger To Play
When Percy Grainger appears in piano concert at Leslie auditorium on March 21 under the auspices of the Salem MacDowell club he will play one of the most interesting programs heard this year.

Symphonic studies by the German composer Schumann contrasts the romantic and athletic sides of the composer's personality and is one of his most beautiful works. Ballade by Grieg is based on a Norwegian folk melody and is one of this composer's greatest works for the piano. In it there are what is called "unnatural-harmonizations" or those in which the chords, although harmonizing from moment to moment with notes of the melody, do not carry out the inherent harmonic suggestions contained in the melody.

Then Grainger will play "Shepherd's Hey" set by himself from an English Morris dance tune. A "hey" is a figure in the dance.

Another of Graingers own works to be played is lullaby from "Tribute to Foster" which was inspired by his mother's singing of Foster's "Doodah" as a lullaby. Grainger wrote the choral work in 1913 and based it on this Foster piece. In the middle, five solo voices sing a lullaby accompanied by a host of musical glasses, and it is this shimmering glass sound that is transcribed for the piano.

A song composed for voice with lute accompaniment which is typical of a certain school of composers that flourished in England late in the 16th century will be on the program. This is also arranged by Grainger.

The Jutish melodies arranged by Grainger will conclude his program and is a collection of five melodies. He will also play compositions by Bach-Liszt, Howard Hanson and Sparre Olsen.

Mrs. Charles Sherman is manager for the MacDowell club and announces a sale of tickets at Needham's all this week.

Glee Club Scheduled
Announcement has been made this week of the scheduling of the Pamona College Glee to appear at the Salem high school auditorium on Wednesday night, April 6, under the sponsorship of the Crescendo club, musical group of the high school. This is the fourth of the series of attractions offered under the sponsorship of the club.

This organization of male singers includes 32 voices, and is recognized as one of the finest ensembles of its kind on the coast. The director, Ralph H. Lyman, was formerly at the University of Oregon where his work met with distinctive success.

Special interest is being expressed in this concert by townspeople and the audience is expected to be exceptionally large and enthusiastic.

The Missionary group of the Women's union of the First Congregational church will meet at the home of Mrs. W. E. Hanson, 829 North Church street, at 2:30 o'clock on Wednesday for study and a social afternoon. The interdenominational book, "Our Highland Fling," which deals with life of the Tennessee mountaineers, will be reviewed by Miss Constance Kantner. An invitation is extended to anyone interested.

SOCIETY

YOUNG SALEM DANCES at the annual DeMolay ball. Legt, Maxine Holt shows her preference for American beauty roses, but Bruce Van Wyngarden likes Talisman better. Center, two members of the committee talk over the affair with their "dates." Victor Gibson and Alida Mae Sautter are on the left, and William Mudd and Maryanne Owen. Right, on the steps of Salem high school a group of students chat about the dance. In front are Bill Thompson and Eileen Paulson, and in the back are Bob Hoyser ad Marie White. (Kennell-Ellis photos.)

Seen and Heard

By JERYME UPSTON
VISITING in the capital last weekend . . . Eugene List, 18-year-old pianist, who appeared with the community concert series Monday and his sister, Sheila List of Los Angeles, who came north to be with him for the concert.

They were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Downs, who entertained at dinner for them on Sunday and also following the concert . . . They left Monday night for the south where Eugene will spend five days with his parents before going east again . . . This is the first time he has been home in two years . . . Sheila is 16 and attends junior college in Los Angeles . . . She is a very attractive blonde wearing a long bob and at the concert wore a pretty white chiffon dress with full skirt with applique flowers in shades of pink and long black velvet evening wrap.

RECEPTION on Wednesday for members of the American Association of University Women and their escorts in the Carrier room of the Methodist church . . . An informal but delightful affair . . . A short program followed by music and the reception . . . Mrs. Phillip Barrett, the president, greeted the guests and wore a flowered satin gown in shades of delicate blue and pink . . . An attractive spring serving table . . . A large bouquet of daffodils and jonquils centered with violets, the arrangement flanked by four tall yellow tapers in silver holders . . . The pourers, Dr. Helen Pearce, wearing a good-looking gown of raspberry red crepe, and Mrs. Bruce Baxter in black crepe with pretty figured top and sash . . . Mrs. Milo Rasmussen, who was in charge of the dining room, wore green shot with gold metallic thread . . . Having coffee together were Dr. and Mrs. Chester Luther and Professor and Mrs. Earl Brown and in another group Miss Beryl Holt and Mrs. B. E. Boylan, both smart in all black . . . A chatty group, Miss Mildred and Miss Marjorie Christenson, Mrs. Frank Deekbeach and Mrs. Donald Young . . . Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith with her mother, Mrs. William D. Smith . . . Judge and Mrs. George Rossman many others.

CONCERNANCE that the announcement party of Miss Jean Bahlgro on Friday night was the birthday anniversary of one of her intimate friends, Miss Helen Boardman . . . For a while the guests thought the party was honoring Helen as a general brought her gifts . . . At the supper hour the real news was revealed with miniature red hearts bearing the names of Jean and Dr. Wayne Page hidden under the plates . . . Jean, a striking blonde, wore a new spring print for the occasion in shades of blue, with low V neck and three-quarter length sleeves . . .

DISTINGUISHED GUESTS at the Junior Woman's club reception Monday . . . Mrs. Saidie Orr Dunbar, first vice-president of the general federation of women's clubs and national president elect . . . A very charming person to meet and equally as charming to see in her gown of sky blue lace with velvet trim and corsage of gardenias . . . Mrs. A. C. McIntyre, state president, wore black crepe with turquoise lace bodice and jacket and rosebud corsage . . . There were a number of guests present, all having a chance to meet the honored guests . . . Lois Riggs, junior club president, wore a darling taffeta print of varied colors on a yellow background . . . The serving table all in yellow, daffodils and acacia and matching tapers . . . Pouring at either end Mrs. R. P. Riggs in Madonna blue and Mrs. S. H. Madonna blue and Mrs. S. H. Boardman in black chiffon with colored flowers at the neckline . . . Among the servers Miss Jo Brekke in green chiffon with rust velvet girdle . . . Mrs. George Fletcher in royal blue velvet and lace collar . . . Chatting in the lounge rooms Mrs. Mark McCallister, over from Corvallis, and Mrs. David Wright, past presidents of the senior club, both talking about their young grandsons and Mrs. McCallister showing a snapshot of hers . . . Mrs. Jessie Singleton in black velvet with lace on the sleeves and Mrs. Clifton Mudd in blue velvet fashioned with jacket.

GUESTS were many at the Town club formal a week ago . . . A gay affair for the younger set and an array of good-looking people and gowns . . . A few of them were Mrs. Charles Brown, a picture in a quaint gown of black taffeta fashioned with full skirt, square neckline outlined in lace . . . Guests of the William Hammonds, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Dunkin, here from Portland, the latter in chateau crepe, a nice foil for her Titian hair . . . With Josephine McElchrist and Peter Buck were Dr. and Mrs. Rosser Atkinson (Betty Jane Barr) of Portland, who were married in January . . . Betty wore black with white top . . . A spring like print with a Charles Heitsel, a burgandy figure on a beige background . . . Leaving together Mr. and Mrs. Howard Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Perry, the latter wearing a good-looking floor length cream brocade wrap over a navy blue skirt . . . Mrs. Josephine Hamilton carrying a nosegay of violets and rosebuds . . . In another group Mr. Robert Joseph in white crepe and Mrs. James Walton in a flowered print . . . Out-of-town guests, Mr. and Mrs. David Thompson of Silverton and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dye of Astoria (Genevieve Thompson).

MISS MARGARET COSPER will pour the first hour, and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks the last hour. Anyone owning antiques suitable for the display is asked to bring them. The public is invited to the tea.

Mrs. Vina Flane entertained Royal Neighbors Sewing club on Wednesday. In charge of the social guest, Mrs. Leo Dowd, Mesdames Dora Pratt, Zola Peterson, Gladys Youngblood, Ruth Hall, Faith Morris, Bertha Loveland, Irene Speed, Addie Rogers, Sarah Peterson, Lucille Pruitt, Carrie Egan, Florence Higgins, Julia Gregory, Edna Shepard, Bertha Pritchard, Sibly Roberts, Laverna Flala, Edna Weltzer, Hazel Elliott, Linda Butler, Lillian Cummins, Olive Anderson, Laura Noyce, Leona Wetzel, Carrie Chaffee, Harry Ackerman, Gertrude Walker . . .

The American Lutheran guild is meeting at 2 o'clock on Wednesday at the church, with Mrs. A. J. Olson in charge of devotions, and Mrs. E. H. Horn in charge of lesson study. The program will include several numbers sung by the MacDowell club trio. Hostesses are to be Mrs. William Brieitke, Mrs. Carl Bahlgro and Mrs. Emil Sandau.

The Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will hold a meeting at 1 o'clock on Wednesday at the church with Mrs. A. F. Marcus in charge of the program. Mrs. John Trachsel from China will talk. Mrs. C. E. Condit is in charge of devotions and Mrs. Charles Pratt is hostess for the tea hour.

Miss Smith Wed To Salem Man Saturday

A wedding of interest to Salem folk which was solemnized in Portland yesterday was that of Miss Barbara Smith, daughter of Mrs. Grace Church of Portland, and Michael E. O'Callaghan, jr., of Salem, son of Mrs. Michael O'Callaghan of Duluth, Minn. The vows were read at noon in the parsonage of the Freeport Community Methodist church with only a few friends present in addition to the family. Rev. Harry G. Humphrey performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Philip Church Smith, and wore a brown wool costume suit trimmed with barundaki, a brown straw hat with dusty pink trim and a brown veil. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds, bouvardia and forget-me-nots.

Miss Susan Campbell was the bride's only attendant and wore a light blue shirtwaist suit with blue accessories. G. I. O'Callaghan served as best man for his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Callaghan left immediately after the ceremony for a short wedding trip and will return to Salem to make their home at 530 North Capitol street. Mr. O'Callaghan attended Oregon State college where he was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

R. J. Hendricks Arts League Speaker

R. J. Hendricks will talk to members of the Salem Arts league at the regular meeting in the fireplace room of the Public Library on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. He plans to tell briefly why he wrote his latest book about the characters of General Lane, Sheridan and Russell and other actors in the drama of Indian affairs in early Oregon. These were later great leaders in the Civil war.

Mr. Hendricks will tell of his search for the warwhoop of the American Indians of the west and of his copywriting it so that Salem will hold ownership for 27 years.

Mrs. Ben Burr of Spokane arrived in the capital yesterday to be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Victor R. Griggs for several days. Mrs. Griggs went to Portland to meet Mrs. Burr yesterday where she has been attending the Big Tree regional conference of Girl Scouts. Mrs. Griggs has invited a few friends to her South High street home on Monday afternoon to meet Mrs. Burr.

Mrs. Victor E. Griggs will entertain members of St. Paul's guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Wednesday afternoon at her home, 670 South High street at 2:30 o'clock.

DeMolay Spring Dance to Be Event of Friday Night at Armory

Calendared as an outstanding affair of this week is the 14th annual spring dance for which members of Chemeketa chapter, Order of DeMolay, will be hosts Friday night in the armory from 9 to 12 o'clock.

Playing for the semi-formal dance will be Jack Shepard's orchestra from Oregon State college and by an inter-society trio will sing. Tickets may be obtained from any of the DeMolay members.

Master counsellor, Ernest Greenwood, has appointed William Mudd as general chairman of the dance. Assisting him are Victor Gibson, William Snell, Elmer Scheelar, Loren Hicks, Wilfred Hagedorn, LeRoy Bright, Bruce Van Wyngarden, Robert Pound, George Alexander, Ed Bishop and Don Sealey.

The armory will be festive with clusters of balloons around the lights and in the corners. The DeMolay emblem will be above the orchestra pit with palms, ferns and flood lights completing the decorations. Carrying out the St. Patrick's motif, green paper hats will further decorate the hall.

Patrons and patronesses will be Governor and Mrs. Charles H. Martin, Honorable and Mrs. Earl Snell, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton B. Mudd, Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bright, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. George Rhoten, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Don Michelson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Legari, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Shanks, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Coughlin, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. E. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fletcher and Donald Poujade . . .

World Day of Prayer Is Observed

Some 200 women of Salem and vicinity gathered on Friday at 10 o'clock to observe the world day of prayer with a program under the sponsorship of the Salem Council of Church Women. There were 26 churches represented at the meeting.

The program was made out by Mrs. Alice Henderson in New Zealand and was identical to those used throughout the world. In addition, Prof. William Wright sang, Mrs. Robert Fromm gave an accordion solo, Mrs. Marion Curry presented a reading and Mrs. Irving Fox gave an impersonation.

Luncheon was served at noon, and afterwards Mrs. Walter Post, missionary from Borneo gave a talk. An additional guest was Mrs. Stanley Clomes, returned missionary from India . . .

Sunday School Class Honors Teacher

Miss Emily Cromley of Eola was given a surprise party by members of her Sunday school class on Thursday at the Eola school. She was presented with a picture of the class. A program and games occupied the group during the evening.

Present were Miss Cromley, Ruby Hayden, Mrs. Charles Hiler, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lange, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lewis, Mrs. Noah Kessel, Mrs. William Antican, Mrs. Ed Antican, Mrs. Nick Hervey, Mrs. Antican, Mrs. James Anderson, Mrs. Derroll Hewitt, Tom Cromley, Maxine Ferguson, Esther McLara, Nick Herrel, Jr., Lawrence, Dorothy, Wayne, Robert, Kenneth, John, Franca and Rita Kessel, Derrel, Virginia and Shirley Lewis, Gordon and Beverly Nyberg, Donald Antican, Richard Hewitt, Billie, Roger, Arthur and Johnny Lange, Minnie and Pauline Hiler, Roy, Maxine, Roberts, Margery Elliott, Jean DeLapp and Billie Paik . . .

Mrs. William E. Kirk will give a play review at the regular meeting of the Beta Chi Mothers club Tuesday afternoon at the State street chapter house at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. F. O. DeLong is chairman of the tea hour and assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Louis Ashlman, Mrs. Frank Erickson, Mrs. E. J. Ayers and Mrs. Harvey Parker.

PERCY GRAINGER, composer-pianist, who will appear at Leslie auditorium on March 21 under the auspices of the Salem MacDowell club.