

Legion Heads Visit Dallas

State Officers Present at Fenton Post's Session Thursday Night

DALLAS—A number of state officers of the American Legion and auxiliary were guests of the Carl E. Fenton post at the meeting Thursday.

The auxiliary meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. William Domaschofsky. During the business meeting, Mrs. Ray Scott, chairman of the child welfare committee, reported that two needy veteran families had been given assistance during the month. Mrs. Harold Rich was presented a past president pin by Mrs. Domaschofsky. It was announced that the next sewing meeting would be held at the home of Mrs. Clifford Helgeson on March 15 with Mrs. Albert Bennett and Mrs. Jack Hayes as assistant hostesses. Mrs. Fred Stinnette, chairman of the membership committee, announced one new member, which makes the Dallas unit above the quota assigned them.

Room Given US Flag

Mrs. William Mott stated the auxiliary had presented a flag to one of the rooms in the elementary school, as did the auxiliary of the VFW and the Ladies of the GAR. A letter from Mrs. John Cerny was read by Mrs. Walter Waite. Mrs. Cerny is a member of the Dallas unit but is now making her home in the Philippine Islands.

Mrs. Frank N. Waters of Salem, department president of the auxiliary, was a guest at the meeting and was introduced by Mrs. Domaschofsky. She made a short talk in which she urged the members to attend a meeting in Portland April 6 when the national president would make her official call to Oregon. She also announced that on March 21 the national president of the Legion would be in Portland and that the auxiliary would hold a conference in Portland that day.

Mrs. Harry F. Snyder of Astoria, department vice-president, was then introduced and told briefly of the progress of the membership drive for this year, stating that she hoped that Oregon will reach its quota before the state convention at Pendleton that day.

Mrs. Lloyd Jones of Sherwood national committee woman, who had recently returned from Washington, D. C., where she attended the national defense conference, gave an excellent talk bringing out some interesting facts about the defense of the United States in comparison with other countries.

Mrs. James Turzillo of Salem, a member of the national legislative committee, was also present. She told of some of the legislative measures which the Legion and auxiliary had sponsored in the past and some of the bills for which they hope to have passed by congress.

Mrs. Otto Heider of Sheridan, finance officer, was introduced by Mrs. Domaschofsky and gave a brief talk, as did Mrs. Jack Eakin, of Dallas, department treasurer and Mrs. Otella Palmateer, of Dallas, president of District 2. Mrs. M. E. Palmateer of Salem and Mrs. Frank Miller of Forest Grove.

Legionnaires Also Meet

Albert Bennett, commander of the Carl E. Fenton post, presided at the Legion meeting. The following guests were present for the meeting and were introduced by the commander: Lloyd Jones of Sherwood, James Turnbull of Salem, Jeff Olson, past commander of the Bonneville post, Otto Heider of Sheridan, Harry Kuck of Portland, H. Morton of Portland, Frank Waters of Salem, Major Hamilton of Portland, Stanley Bayles of Independence, Frank Miller of Forest Grove, Mrs. Palmateer of Salem, who is department commander and Carl Moser of Salem, department adjutant.

Following the business sessions a joint meeting of the auxiliary and Legion was held. A short program was given which included a solo dance by Lloyd Domaschofsky and two vocal solos by Hubert Springsteen accompanied by Miss June Domaschofsky. Department Commander Palmateer was introduced by Commander Bennett and gave a short talk. Mrs. Frank Waters, department president of the auxiliary, was introduced by Mrs. Domaschofsky, and gave a brief talk. Mrs. Lloyd Jones also told something of the national defense program of the organization.

A social was then enjoyed and refreshments served by the auxiliary.
