Legion Auxiliary To Make Awards

Trophy Will Be Presented to Outstanding Girl in Eighth Grade

DALLAS—The monthly sewing meeting of the Carl B. Penton post of the American Legion auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Hayes Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Albert Bennett and Mrs. Clifford Helgeson as assistant hostesses. Mrs. William Domaschofsky is president. The group voted to make the same cash awards as in previous years for the best posters in the poppy poster contest now being carried on in the Dallas schools. Mrs. Roy Donahue has charge of the contest. The auxiliary also voted to award a cup to the outstanding girl in the Dallas eighth grade graduating class. The award is based on the following five points: honor, courage, scholarship, leadership and service. It was also voted that they would award a medal, based on the same points to the outstanding eighth grade girl in the Pickreall, Falls City and Perrydale schools.

New Paganism Is Sprague's Theme

SILVERTON—Charles A. Sprague, editor of The Oregon Statesman, spoke to over 80 members and special guests of The Builders' class at the Methodist church Tuesday night. Sprague took for his subject, "The New Paganism." Musical numbers were furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Paige and Mrs. William Swift. Mrs. Theodore Hobart, president of the class, was chairman and I. B. Alfred, teacher of the class, spoke briefly. Members of the high school class were special guests.

Summer Rates on Water Are Asked

Woodburn Council to Give Answer on Request Next Meeting

WOODBURN—The regular meeting of the city council was held at the city hall Tuesday night.

Considerable discussion was given to a request presented by the Garden club relative to reducing water rates for sprinkling during the summer months. George Jones, James H. Lively and J. J. Hall were the committee for the club. The council took the matter under consideration and a decision will be reached at the next meeting.

An application to put in 2-inch water pipe under the Pacific highway near the Allen garage for use by the residents of the east side of the highway was ordered signed and given to the highway department.

O. F. Mulkey and Mike Koch requested that the city clean out the ditch between their property and Front street. The matter will be looked after by the street committee.

Peter Brachmann was given a 60-day option at $250 on two city lots at Seventh and Harrison street for building purposes.

Plans are under way for the purchase of another carload of water pipe.

Ordinance No. 764, assessing the abutting property for the improvement of East Lincoln street, was passed.

Dale J. Ickes Elected To St. Helens Position

FALLS CITY—After nearly eight years of faithful service as superintendent of local schools, Dale J. Ickes is leaving for a position in the St. Helens schools.

Training School Stages Annual Dinner Honoring Woodburn Fire Fighters

WOODBURN—The annual dinner given by the Oregon state training school for the Woodburn fire department members, their wives and friends was held Monday night at the training school. This is a yearly affair given by the school to show their appreciation for the protection given by the local fire ladders.

Talks were given by Fire Chief Clyde Whitman, Assistant Chief Glenn Blair, Glenn Couley, secretary-treasurer of the department and Superintendent Sam Laughlin of the school. Oliver S. Olson was a special guest and also gave a short talk.
