Wool in Boston

BOSTON, March 24-(AP)-(USDA)

—A number of mills were making in-quiries today and occasionally purchased moderate quantities of few kinds of do-mestic wools on the Boston market.

Good French combing length fine terri-tory wools in original bags brought 62 to 65 cents scoured basis, while graded lines of French combing length brought prices ranging 63 to 66 cents scoured basis. Fleece wools of quarter blood grades were receiving some call at around 26 to 27 cents in the grease for graded bright wools.

Chicago Values Boosted 11/4 Cents but End 5/8 Point Higher

CHICAGO, March 24-(AP)-Wheat values moved briskly upward 1% cents, but profit-taking curtailed gains t. day.

Surprise upturns of liverpool wheat quotations gave emphasis to trade misgivings about warlike threatenings abroad, and so too did large purchases of Australian wheat by great Britain and Portugal. Besides, it was estimated that export takings of North American wheat today totaled upward of 500,000 bushels, largely United States hard winter grades.

Weather Continues Dry A further market stimulus was the fact that weather in domestic wheat areas southwest continued

Triplet Lambs Born In Roadarmel Flock; Expect Higher Price

SCIO-Fred Roadarmel reported triplet lambs at his farm two miles northeast of Scio.

While it is too carly to predict with certainty, several wool growers of the Scio area express conlambs this season will approach figures satisfactory to sheepmen.
