

Royal Neighbors Plan Convention

Saver Unit Will Entertain District Meeting Next Month

SUVER—Mr. and Mrs. Orville Allen are the parents of a 5-pound daughter born to them at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller Saturday morning. Mr. Allen was admitted to the TB hospital at Salem last week. Robert McClain is confined to his home with sciatica. The Royal Neighbors held their regular meeting at the hall Thursday. Plans are being made for this lodge to entertain the district convention in April. River Leaves Banks For the third time this winter high water caused motorists to detour when the Luckiamute left its banks and covered the roads. Henry Finkle and son who purchased the old Davidson place last fall are building a small house just north of the bridge. Finkle owns a farm near Salem and his family will remain there. They are laying tile over most of the place and have also purchased a new tractor. C. D. Ritchey who is employed near Hoskins falling timber came home Thursday because of the snow there. He has been very ill with flu at his home since.

Inspection Milk, Water Supply Is Part Club Work

BETHEL—A doctor and nurse from the Marion county health association have been at the school giving physical examinations the results of which will be used in selecting the winner of the scholarship to the 4H summer school at Corvallis. Pupils in the 4H health club who are competing are Coralee Nichols, Lillian Hamrick, Marcella Wolfe, Luella Nichols. Inspection of water supply is going on at the homes. Milk samples are being sent into the county office for testing to ascertain if it is safe for drinking. The milk must be approved; free of germs and from healthy cows.

Jones and Bride Arrive at Farm

MISSION BOTTOM—Mr. and Mrs. Creighton B. Jones returned Tuesday from a wedding trip through Washington, Idaho, Utah, Nevada and home via California and will reside and operate the Jonesmere farm on route one, Gervais. Mrs. W. Al Jones and Miss Mable Creighton are moving to Salem and will live in the W. H. Dancy home at 369 North Liberty street. Mrs. Jones and Miss Creighton lived on the Jonesmere farm for 21 years. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Porter and son, George, visited to Medford after a week's visit with relatives and friends here.

Martin-for-Governor Petitions Circulating

SILVERTON—Signing of Charles Martin-for-governor petitions is rapidly going ahead this week. Over 500 names have appeared on the petitions, it is reported. It is also recalled that early in the fall of 1935, the democratic club at Silverton had 252 members. A large number of the signers on the Martin-for-governor petitions are republicans.

Entertain Card Club

OAK POINT—Mrs. Jones Graber entertained the Night Hawk card club Saturday night. Mrs. Edward Harnsberger and Leo Peterson won high score; Mrs. Roy Bigelow and Joe Rogers, sr., consolation, and Mrs. Joe Rogers, sr., the traveling prize. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Newton were invited guests.

Twin Hostesses

Twin air hostesses—something unusual in aviation today—and pretty ones, at that. The twins are Loyce and Louise Jenkins, 21, of Fort Worth, Tex. They have been employed by Braniff airways.
