PAGE EIGHT

Romping home in a recent feature event at Bay Meadows, Cal., Ariel Cross is pictured leaving King Saxon and Captain Cal, on the outside, to battle it out for second place. In a final drive to the post King Saxon nosed out Captain Cal. Usually a photo finish in the feature of the winner, but in this case the camera records the battle between the would be seconds.

civic and service organizations as well as democratic political or- Jury Order Sent attend the rally, according to W. L. Gosslin, general chairman of the affair. An executive commit ganizations have been invited to the affair. An executive committee, appointed by Gosslin, includes Willis West, Salem, vicechairman, general committee; upstate attendance; Glenn Sav- and waiting for the signature of age, Salem, Marion county attend- Judge L. H. McMahan, the grand ance; Ed C. Kelly, Portland, jury adjourned yesterday until Multnomah county attendance; Dancing and political oratory W. H. Hedlund, Portland, entertainment; Josephine Barr and

> tions. Zoo Park Animals

heartily today for the first time jury be held over. R. M. Erwin, Henry Oleen, and since the serious floods of early F'GOSH SAKES! HE)

WAKE UP

SOUNDS LIKE A

PLANIN

ON HARP!

HO

HO

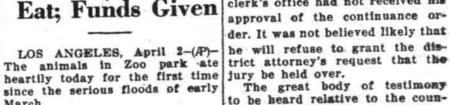

YOU

TRY PLAY

WEETH HEEM, YOU

Dr. J. F. Hosch, all candidates March.

pected report on its investigation Janice Bassett, Salem, decora- of the relief situation. Judge McMahan was in Albany yesterday trying a circuit court case there and at a late hour yesterday afternoon the county Eat; Funds Given clerk's office had not received his

With an order for its continuance into the April term drawn up

Tuesday without issuing an ex-

Donations from motion picture ty relief situation made continustudios, schools and individuals ance of the grand jury necessary came pouring in until William J. and should no continuance order total was more than $2,000. He for the new grand dury to go over the ground again.

By CLIFF STERRETT

Amateur Boxers

boxers from 20 states and Hawail, started pouring into Boston today, all tuned up for the opening Monday night of the national AAU boxing championships.

Bob Quamme, 118, of Salem, as Oregon AAU champion in his weight class, is among the Boston competitors.

Accord Reached

PARIS, April 2-(Saturday)-(AP)-Premier Leon Blum's office announced early today that a "basis of accord" had been reached for settlement of the strike of 30,000 metal and aviation indus-

Christian Mission Set For OSC Campus, October

CORVALLIS, April 2-(AP)-The University Christian mission at Oregon State college will be held October 2-7, it was decided at a conference Friday of campus religious leaders with Dr. Paul J. Braisted, national secretary, ticipated in the national preaching mission in principal cities last year, will come to Oregon after similar meetings at the University of California.

MAC, WAC in Tie

PORTLAND, Ore., April 2-(AP)

C. L. Bonney took up golf and mastered it, to the extent that he is one of the Silverton Golf club's most proficient mashieswingers. But he brought with him too to the sometimes over-conventional golf links the vo-enthu

dates for governor and United States senator. On hand to speak their minds will be Charles H. Martin, Dr.

nem poi esymo letic supremacy will divide its time between the Washington Athletic club of Seattle and Multnomah club of Portland as a result of a 40-point tie in the fourth day.

n of his earlier and five out of six in their spring occupation, and also some of its series here. light-hearted viewpoint; win or The Missionaries won the first lose, it's a great game-today 2 to 1 in eight innings, -0-The reason we are thus care- dropped the second, 5 to 4, and annual all-day sports competition fully introducing Mr. Bonney to finished with a 10 to 1 verdict. between the two organizations to- our readers, both of them, is this: Al lthe games were scheduled for We owe him an apology. It was seven innings.

games from WSC this afternoon

Workers Named

MICKEY MOUSE

MICKEY

GETS HIS FIRST SIGHT OF "OLD BARNEY!"

THE WHALE,

WHEN THE

MONSTER

POPS UP AT

THE FISHING

ROLINDS AND

PLAYFULLY

HE DONE

THEM GUYS

CANOE

Try That on Your Piano!

DOM-PA-PAH!

OOMP-Pa

By WALT DISNEY

WHAT'N BLAZES IS THIST A BLASTED MUSIC SCHOOL?

YOU, PEDRO, LAY

THE GUN!

LIVELY!

FLOWERS

"EXTRA FARE"

CHAPTER XXIX

The four porters trudged in with their banjos, costumed for a minstrel act. The audience applauded vigorously. There followed a half-hour of blended harmony, melodious "W "What made it wonderful?" he spirituals, facetious dialogue, shufdemanded, laughing into her eyes. fling feet. The passengers were de-lighted, revived. The elixir of "You know," she confessed. "But why do all the wonderful things in bored civilization-entertainmentlife have to end so quickly?" was administered. "Silly dear," he answered, with

When the porters' quartet moved tender reproach, "this isn't the end. on to the waiting audience in the It is only the beginning-for us." diner, a radio filled the club car with "If all the rest can be as sweet jazz from the coast, picked out of as the beginning!"

desolate air of the desert to "It will be!" he promised her, gratify those restless humans who with an arm close about her had nothing to do except complain shoulders.

of imaginary discomforts. Couples Clarice stood beside Mervin who had paired off during the journey danced together, swaying about where he had detained her in their the cramped space. Soon they were passage from the club car. She lost in the ecstasy of rhythm and suspected that his restless desire to move from one car to another was less the result of the two days' con- afraid. . . ." Jaxie rested in Kirby's arms, dancing across the desert to the finement in the train than an excuse strains of magic music, and remem- for those secluded moments with to wait. But I can't wait for you." bered with an ache of pity in her her. Each time, he became more happy heart those brave pioneer possessive. The situation both women who once plodded these troubled and fascinated her. She weary miles in thirst and heat and had scorned the advances of many agony of mind, with helpless babies men, yet wondered why she seemed at their breasts and fantastic hope in their souls. If they could follow the men they loved into such a wil-ing insistence, derness of danger and hardship, She was almost glad the morning and make the other a reality. It is could she not follow Kirby with a would bring an end to this strange love that cannot wait." His eyes blind faith that dismissed all experience, and that she would then burned down into hers. oubts? Stupid of her to let fear arrive at something like reality. His hands lay along her arms creep in to torture her.

creep in to torture her. His hands lay along her arms, holding her close as he stood behind a glance, a casual meeting, two peo-ple passing through a screen door in opposite directions—and all the rest of life was changed for both o, them. Pure magic was this reve-lation of love which had justifiem to her. Two days before she had not known Kirby was in the world. Tonight life held no purpose or meaning without him. To share life with him, was her destiny. It made her tearfully happy and joyously and to think of it. Mervin Gaines danced with his swayed by the wind and the train. | heart and she drew away from him. "I'm sorry it's almost over-this "Why," she marvelled uncertainly, her voice. "It has been so wonder- | can't believe it's true."

trip," she told him, with regret in "are you doing all this for me? I He laughed happily. "Neither can

I believe that by the merest chance I have made the professional find of a decade and found love-all in you! Can I tell you why? No more than you can tell me. When you have the answer to that, my dear, you will know all there is to know. You will be wiser than all the rest of the world. But why do you question it?

Did you question the obstacles with which you have struggled alone for so long? No-you accepted them and conquered them. Then why not accept this miracle and enjoy it to

Games Over Cougar Nine

WALLA WALLA, April 2-(AP)

Whitman college's veteran baseball team took two out of three the utmost? You ask me why. . . . Gaines on one of the platforms I'll answer you. . .. " He lowered his mouth to hers. "Isn't that answer enough? If your success proves itself as well. . .

"But perhaps it won't. I'm "Only time can prove that. It has "Just until I have started. . . ." she protested. "Let me forget everything for a while, except my work. I want to work so hard," she pleaded fervently. "You will have to my dear. Success I cannot give you-only opportunity. But you will take the one

She stirred in his arms. "It will Mervin Gaines danced with his cheek pressed to Clarice's, murmur-ing detached words of endearment in her ear. But she was not lost in the rhythm of love. This experi-ence was but a symbol of the larger ones to follow. His arms which held terms with the completence of the larger ones to follow. His arms which held terms with the completence of the larger ones to follow. His arms which held terms with the completence of the larger ones to follow. His arms which held terms with the completence of the larger ones to follow. His arms which held ones to follow. His arms which held her were the foundation of success, his words were paeans of praise from thousands of lips, his covetous eyes held the admiration of millions. Her thoughts projected themselves into the magnified future, as a small beam of light shines through a pro-jector lens and enlarges the film far away. The picture she beheld was most gratifying. Jaxie and Kirby said their linger-ing goodnights on the rear platform.

was most gratifying. Jaxie and Kirby said their linger-ing goodnights on the rear platform. The air was so cool that she wore a cost, with the deep fur collar hug-white hand against his smooth-

By JIMMY MURPHY

