

Mission Society Will Hold Benefit

Presbyterian Women Hear Reports on Recent Gathering

DALLAS—The Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church was entertained at the home of Mrs. Frank Johnson Tuesday afternoon. The society voted to hold a benefit dinner at the church the latter part of April.

Brief reports from Presbyterian were given by Mrs. L. W. Plummer, Mrs. Edward J. Himes, Mrs. Donald Gabbert, Mrs. Frank Johnson and Mrs. Sidney E. Whitworth.

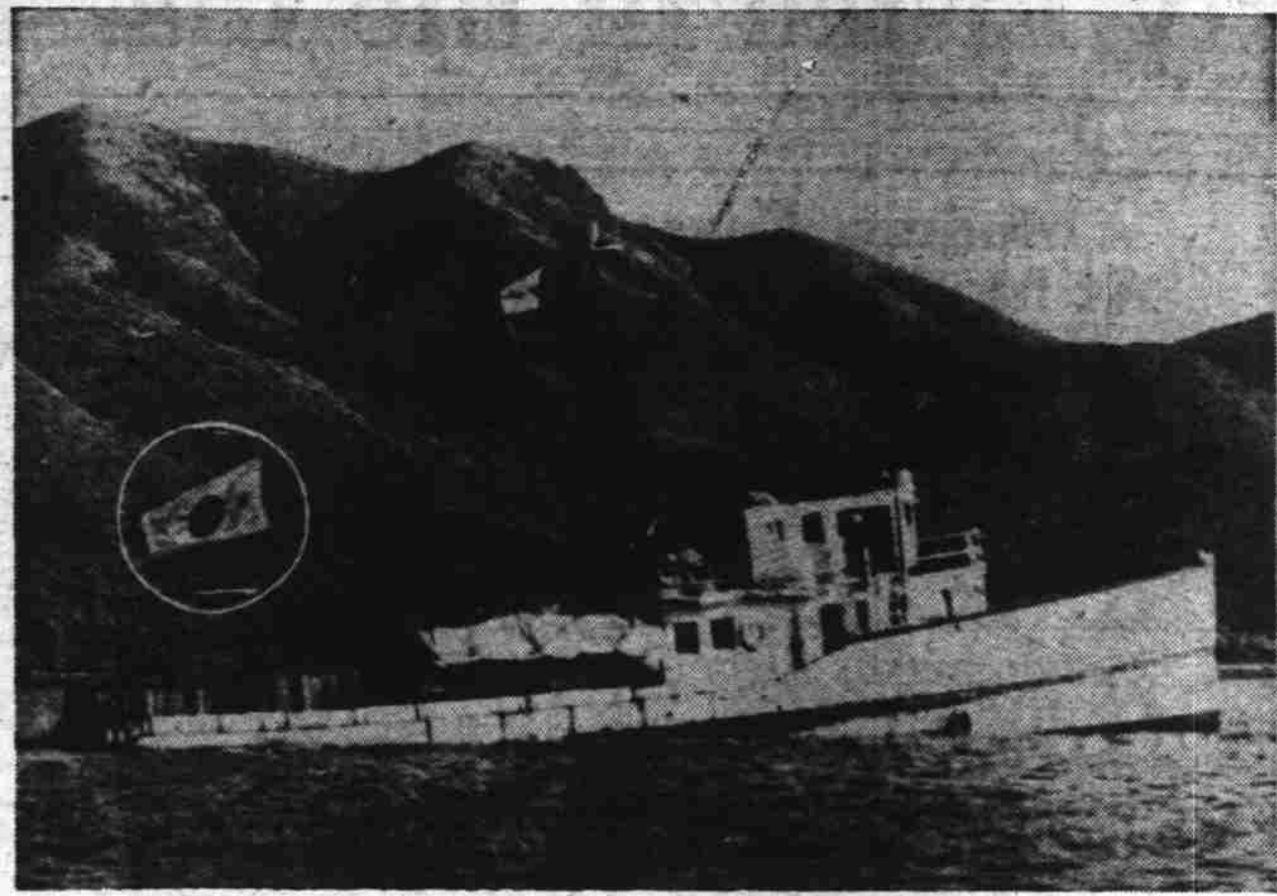

Hear About Missions Mrs. L. W. Plummer had charge of the program, which included talks on the work of the Presbyterian missionaries among the Mono Indians of North America and in Chosen, given by Miss Anne Haugeberg, Mrs. Gabbert and Mrs. Whitworth. Mrs. R. C. Wilson had charge of the devotions.

A pleasant tea hour followed with Mrs. L. W. Plummer assisting the hostess in serving. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Robert Kutch on May 10.

Japanese Alter Craft Flags in Mexican Waters

Its April meeting Wednesday night, April 20 in the high school auditorium. Election of next year's officers will be held. Refreshments will be served by R. E. Helm and his committee.

Community Clubs

WALDO HILLS—The Waldo Hills Community club will conduct a food sale Saturday at a Silverton downtown grocery.

UNIONVALE—The Dayton Union high school "Foot Lighters" will present two skits at the Unionvale April Community club meeting at the schoolhouse Friday, April 15. Gladys Wirfs, Walter Wirfs and Wendell Willard will present accordion, harmonica and guitar numbers. Refreshments will be served.

DAYTON—The Webfoot Community club April meeting was held Friday evening at the Webfoot schoolhouse with good attendance. The program consisted of five comic short skits, songs, readings and music. Committees were appointed and plans made for the last meeting of this season to be held on the last day of school to be an all-day picnic. Lloyd Holdredge and Daryl May are the two eighth grade graduates. Miss Ruth Westfall, the teacher, has been re-elected to teach the next term of school.

SUVER—Suver Community club met Friday night at the hall. W. C. Leth, county agent, presented the charter to the boys' 4H sheep club, including Merlyn and Melvin Couey, Marvin Rock, Melvin Ridders and Lynn Spencer with E. G. Harris as leader. Leth gave an interesting talk on club work and introduced Mrs. Harold Spencer, who is leader of the girls' 4H sewing club. An interesting evening of games and contests followed after which refreshments were served.

Grant Taylor Is Buried at Halsey

ALBANY—Funeral services for Grant Taylor, 73, who died at his home in Halsey April 9, were held Tuesday from the Halsey Methodist church with Rev. W. A. Briggs in charge. The Fisher funeral home was in charge of the funeral arrangements. Burial was in the Pine Grove cemetery.

Grant Taylor was born July 11, 1864, on the donation land claim of his father, George W. Taylor, pioneer of 1847, between Salem and the present site of Turner.

The Oregon society of Daughters of 1812 recently unveiled a hero's marker over the grave of the grandfather, John Taylor, in the Aumsville cemetery.

Grant Taylor was the first rural mail carrier out of Halsey, starting in the service in 1901 and retiring in 1928, due to poor health.

Surviving are two brothers, Douglas Taylor of the Halsey state bank and George Taylor, also of Halsey. The deceased was married twice.

Officers Elected For Youth Society

HUBBARD—At a recent business meeting of the young people's society the following officers were elected for the quarter: Fred Schelle, president; James Van Winkle, vice-president; and Florence Campbell, secretary-treasurer.

The auction bridge club met Friday night with Mrs. Anna Scholl. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Joseph Atcheson, Mrs. Blanch Brown, Mrs. Winnie Mulloy, Mrs. Pat Beal, Mrs. Elmer Stauffer, Mrs. L. A. Braden, Mrs. Julius Stauffer, Mrs. A. J. Smith, Mrs. Margaret Evans, Mrs. Neva McKenzie, Mrs. George Grimps, Mrs. Hugh Wells, and the hostesses Mrs. Anna Scholl and Miss Lenor Scholl. High scores were won by Mrs. Joseph Atcheson and Mrs. A. J. Smith, consolation by Mrs. Elmer Stauffer.

Wins Turned in By Both Brooks Baseball Teams

BROOKS—In two games last week the Brooks grade school boys baseball team defeated Hazel Green. The Brooks boys met North Santiam boys on the Brooks diamond Friday, winning another game. The Brooks diamond is in good shape.

The Brooks lineup is: Chester Nelson, catcher; Charles Dowe, pitcher; Leslie Lowery, first base; Alfred McCoy, second base; Glen Moricka, short stop; Tamiyasu, third base; Ernest Gaub, left fielder; Jack Bosch, center fielder; Raymond Potts, right fielder.

In the first two softball games of the season, the Brooks girls won, defeating Liberty here, 17 to 14, and also defeating Liberty at Liberty, 13 to 6. Friday the Brooks girls won from Mill City girls on the Salem Heights diamond.

The lineup for Brooks was: Martha Umamoto, catcher; Tomoka Ninomiya, pitcher; Martha Hutto, first base; Alice Williams, short stop; Emile Morioko, second base; Roseann Henny, third base; Cleo Ramp, left field; Bertha Loomis, center field; Haruyi Tamiyasu, right field; substitutes, Alice Holmes, Lilly Potts, and Martha Imagous.
