

Dads Approve Firemen List

Paving Underway on Maple Street in Lebanon, Council Hears

LEBANON—The street committee reported to city council Tuesday night that streets were in fair condition and that the waste from the paper mill is being applied as rapidly as time and weather conditions would permit.

Sewer extensions across Main were reported completed and paving on Maple street underway. Dr. J. G. Gill, special committee on recreation, outlined a plan of proposed activities which were approved by the council.

Firemen Elected
The council approved the election of firemen for the year: Chief, Mervin Gilson; assistant Elmer Fitzgerald; secretary, Victor Carlson; assistant, Albert Smith; reporter, Ross O'Brien; police, Bert Cotton; captain of Company No. 1, Kenneth Fuller; lieutenant, L. E. Heyne; captain, No. 2, Glenn Tucker; lieutenant, V. A. Reeves; captain, No. 3, Roy Week; lieutenant, Loyd Tucker; captain, No. 4, Clarence Shumanek; lieutenant, Albert Carlson.

The Methodist Women's Foreign Missionary society met Wednesday with Mrs. A. W. Wheeler and decided to invite acting Bishop Eben Johnson of Portland, a missionary in Africa for many years, to give the thank-offering day sermon May 15.

Following the regular meeting of the P. E. O. at the home of Mrs. Harold Irvine Wednesday afternoon a tea was held honoring the girls of the senior class of the high school with Miss Lena Medler, dean of girls, and Mrs. Milton Coe, wife of the city superintendent, as additional guests.

Mrs. Coe gave piano numbers and Mrs. E. L. Clark, chaplain addressed the girls on the purposes and work of the P. E. O. and told of its organization many years ago by seven girls of approximately the age of the girls present.

The birthdays of John Young of Lebanon and his granddaughter, Janet Young, were observed Sunday by a family dinner at the home of Mr. Young's son, Ira of Creswell, coming from Lebanon were Mr. and Mrs. John Young and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Young celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last October and next Sunday will be present at the celebration of the golden anniversary of his brother George Young near Salem.

Mrs. Ruth Bartholomew has sold her second street residence the former Fry property, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder of North Lebanon.

Ed Calahan, Standard Oil Service station man left Wednesday on his vacation making Portland his first objective from where he will drive to Tacoma to be met by his mother Mrs. J. M. Ogden of Lebanon.

Mrs. Mildred Summers, associate matron of The Dalles had invited 20 guests to her home preceding chapter meeting, for dinner honoring the 'worthy grand matron, Hazel Ingram, and the worthy grand patron, John L. Gary.

These guests were later introduced to be the grand pages selected for the 1938 sessions of grand chapter, as follows: Mrs. Florence Lintner, Portland; Mrs. Ardelle Rice, Beldy; Mrs. Beth Hughes, Forest Grove; Miss Olive Shepler, Hood River; Mrs. Ruby Chrisman, Enterprise; Mrs. T. Sims, Portland; Mrs. Alice Robinson, Independence; Miss Elaine Glover, Silverton; Mrs. Irene Hector, Albany; Mrs. Lucille Johnson, Oregon City; Mrs. Ruby Tunnell, Estacada; Mrs. Leona Leslie, Newberg; Mrs. Merilda Stringham, Elgin; Mrs. Vera Lantz, Oswego; Mrs. Dorothy Weiss, Sheridan, and Mrs. Mildred Summer, The Dalles.

Musical Program Given for Women

AURORA—Wednesday afternoon music week was observed by the Aurora Woman's club with the following program, conducted by Mrs. Oren Ottaway, music chairman of the club:

Songs by all present, led by Mrs. Oren Ottaway, accompanied by Mrs. E. C. Diller; songs by the girls' glee club of the Canby union high school, directed by Miss Sparks; numbers by girls' quartet and boys' quartet; violin solo by Leona Myers, accompanied by Francis Groh; vocal solos by Leone Luginbill and Kenneth Millar; guitar solos by Pearl and Evelyn Fugh.

A letter from President Roosevelt in praise of music week was read by the president, Mrs. B. W. Stoner. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. M. N. Crissel, May 18.

Summer Session Opens June 6 at Normal With Churchill as Director

MONMOUTH—Classes will open June 6 for the annual summer session at Oregon Normal school, extending through to August 19. This period includes the special two-week course from June 6 to 17; also the regular terms for which four hours of credit may be earned.

Council Grants Club's Request, Water Reduction

WOODBURN—The Woodburn Garden club was successful in their request for reduced water rates for the summer months for sprinkling purposes. The city council, at their meeting Tuesday night, cut the regular rate of 30 cents, which is charged after the regular 4000 gallons have been used, to 15 cents and the 15 cents former rate to 10 cents.

The council, however, decided that in order to take advantage of this reduction, water bills must be paid on or before the 15th of each month, the old rate being charged on all delinquent bills.

Observance Music Week Is Started

Churches at Mill City Will Hold Special Service Honoring Mothers

MILL CITY—Music week will be observed here from May 8 to 14. Special programs will be given at both churches in honor of Mothers' day. The community program will be held in the Church of Christ May 10.

The high school sponsored a concert, with the Willamette Gleemen giving the program and the grade school entertained with the operetta "Tom Sawyer." The Parent-Teachers' association will put on a musical program at their next meeting.

Enters Hospital
Joe Podrabsky left Monday for Portland to enter St. Vincent's hospital where he expects to be for several months taking treatments for a crippled back which he received some time ago while working in the planer.

Church Sponsors Pilgrim's Story

SALEM HEIGHTS—The Salem Heights community church is sponsoring the pictured retelling of "Pilgrim's Progress" Sunday at 7:30 p. m. at the community hall. As the story is told by a competent narrator sixty-five beautifully colored slides illustrating the story will be shown. Pilgrim's Progress has the unique distinction of being the book most universally read next to the Bible, and has exerted a great influence in the life of religious people.

No admission will be charged.

Attend County Meet
FOX VALLEY—Mrs. Floyd Bassett accompanied by Mrs. Della Westenhouser, Mrs. Leon Smith and Mrs. R. A. Coraforth were local delegates attending the Woman's Federated club convention held at Woodburn Friday.
