Social Night Held By Eastern Star

INDEPENDENCE — The social night Tuesday of Adah chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, was enjoyed by many.

The mothers of the chapter were honored by a solo, "That Wonderful Mother of Mine," sung by Mrs. M. J. Butler. Mrs. Joe Hubbard was presented a corsage by the worthy matron for having been a mother the longest; and Mrs. Paul E. Robinson read a poem.

Accept invitation
An invitation was accepted to meet with Amity chapter on Monday night, May 23. Adah chapter members and Lyon lodge will visit the Eastern Star home at Forest Grove Sunday.

Mrs. Robinson, worthy matron, announced that on Tuesday night, May 24, "Obligation Night" will be observed and a lovely candle-light degree put on.

Men Judge Hats
Following the business session the men were judged and judged the hats made and modeled by about 20 members. Mrs. Clarence Harwood won first prize in this contest; Mrs. Walter Smith won the observing contest; Mrs. Verna Detrick won the spelling contest and Mrs. McKnight the correct number contest.

The members over 40 years of age won the attendance contest from those under 40 years. The losers will serve a $3.00 o'clock dinner at the May 24 meeting. At the dining table the birthday of O. A. Wolverton was observed; also the 19th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Branch.

"Penny" Arrives from Heaven

When a baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Feldman of Philadelphia, above, it was only natural that she be nicknamed "Penny" because her parents paid for the stork's traveling expenses with 10,000 pennies which he had saved during the past three years.

ed four of her pupils from the fourth and fifth grades in a part were Virginia Olson, Jo Ann Tweedie, Beverly Davenport and Beverly Hughes.

Lots Presented School District

JEFFERSON — Mrs. Lydia Hoyt made a present to the Jefferson school district No. 14 this week, by deeding over to them two lots in the northeast corner of the block, on which the school building stands.

The Past Noble Grand club entertained in the lodge rooms of the Odd Fellows hall Tuesday afternoon in honor of the mothers. The color scheme of purple and gold was carried out in the room and table decorations.

A social time with contests formed the afternoon's entertainment. Guests were Mrs. Keith Hart, Mrs. Clinton Hart, Mrs. Bob Harris, Mrs. A. J. DeVaney, Mrs. John Calahan, Mrs. J. H. Roland, and Mrs. Moody Banner of Salem.

Oriental Garden Background for Upperclass Prom

WOODBURN — One of the most gala events on the calendar for Woodburn high school for the month of May will be the junior-senior prom to be held in the gymnasium Friday night at 8 p. m.

The gym has been decorated to form an oriental garden with Japanese lanterns adding to the oriental atmosphere. Stan's

Human Horse Stops for Stork

When David Sweatt, 73-year-old carpenter of Brownsville, Tex., was promised a job at Baton Rouge, La., he was too poor to purchase a mule to pull his wagon so he got between the shafts himself, but the family's long overland journey of 700 miles was stopped at Opelousas, La., when Mrs. Sweatt gave birth to a daughter.

Swing band will furnish the music.

Patrons and patronesses will be Dr. and Mrs. Gerald B. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Naslund, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Whitman, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Enos, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shaw.

Teacher Under Knife

GRAND ISLAND — Miss Zella Gillam, primary instructor in the school, underwent a major operation in a Portland hospital Wednesday morning. Mrs. Charles A. Ferguson is substituting for her.
