

Postal Clerk Under Arrest

William N. Robbins Is Held on Charge of Taking Money From Mail

LEBANON — On a charge of taking money from letter mail, William N. Robbins, for many years a postal clerk in the Lebanon postoffice and until lately assistant postmaster, was arrested Wednesday by US Marshal J. T. Summerville and Deputy Marshal Leo McClain. He posted $1500 bail and was released. He had been named in a secret grand jury indictment. At the last meeting of the commercial club of the year reports were filed and routine business closed.

commercial club took up the question of location as the fair has been barred from Main street and some opposition to the location at the high school athletic field has arisen. A petition was advocated calling for the use of Sherman street from Main to Second, south on Second to Donaca's corner and west on Grant. A definite arrangement will be made at the next meeting. At a special meeting Tuesday night the city council voted $150 from a reserve fund for expenses of the Lebanon high school band on their trip to Seattle Friday.

To Represent Auxiliary Mrs. Cearly Ellenberg will represent the local auxiliary to the American Legion at the meeting of the state child welfare committee in Portland next week. A social evening followed the business session of the Past Masters' club Monday night at the home of Mrs. Elmer Whetstone. The Sunshine club with all members present each with a guest, 32 in all, held a pleasant Mother's day celebration Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs.

Charles Butler. Mrs. Amy Anderson directed a program of readings and with answers to rollcall answered by the native state and state flower and animal. Oregon was first in native members. Mrs. Dale Weeks, Mrs. Bernice Wallace and Miss Helen McGowan were score winners at the meeting of the Hi-Lo Bridge club Tuesday at the home of Miss Lucille Weeks with Helen Golden joint hostess. Trustees of Sand Ridge cemetery, southwest of Lebanon, one of the oldest pioneer cemeteries of Oregon, have set May 18 and 25 as cleanup day.

Dallas Festival Queen Choice Is Sliced to Three

DALLAS—Beatrice Bengé, Beverly Branch and Mildred Voth were selected Wednesday by the Dallas high school faculty to rule the historic pageant and festival to be presented by the Dallas schools June 3. These three girls were chosen from a group of six candidates nominated by the senior class in a previous vote. The final voting to determine the queen will be done by the student body next week. The two other girls will be attendants and will make up the court. Preston Doughton of the faculty is chairman of the committee appointed to select the queen.

Scholarship, leadership in school activities, character, the vote of the senior class, and personal appearance from the standpoint of a queen were factors considered by the faculty in making their choice. Beatrice Bengé is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Bengé. Beverly Branch is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Branch and comes to Dallas high school on the Lewisville bus. Mildred Voth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Voth and is the third member of the family to graduate from Dallas high. Mildred rides to school on the Salt Creek bus.
