Smoke Overcomes 17 'Smoke-Eaters' in Michigan Fire

First aid crews working feverishly over prostrated forms are pictured as five of the 17 firemen were treated during a $50,000 fire at Lansing, Mich. Rescuers of the unconscious smoke victims braved death to drag the fireeaters to fresh air and medical treatment on the sidewalk. The men toppled like ten-pins when trying to carry hose lines into dense smoke clouds gushing from a mail order house.

Granger's Column

VICTOR POINT—The regular meeting of Union Hill grange will be held Saturday night, May 21, instead of Friday, May 20, due to primary election being held on that date.

Mrs. Phillip Fischer and Mrs. Marion Fischer were hostesses Wednesday for the regular meeting of the Home Economics club at the Marion Fischer home.

At the program house, Miss Thelma Humphreys, youngest member of the club and bride-elect of Russel Gray of Toledo, was honored by a surprise miscellaneous gift shower.

MACLEAY — A benefit program and dance will be given at the grange hall Saturday night to purchase uniforms for the orchestra that plays for grange social night. The HE club will serve lunch.

LIBERTY — At the regular meeting of the grange held Tuesday, Robert E. Reider, assistant county agent, for agriculture committee stated that spraying for brown rot on prunes should be done at this time and urged that this control measure be undertaken by all growers. He also stated that it is not too late yet to spray for syneta beetle.

E. O. Beckey gave a short legislative report and Mrs. W. R. Dallas, chairman of the home economics club, stated that a total of $25 had been added to the grange building fund since January by the home economic club.

The grange voted to hold a picnic on the F. L. Scott place in Beuna Vista, May 22. The gathering will be at 10 a. m. when the grange will first attend the church service at Beuna Vista, the picnic to follow.

F. E. Judd was appointed to act with resolutions committee, C. A. Ratcliff, Floyd Bates, William Zosel, to draw up a resolution amending the by-laws to allow for two meetings a month the entire year.

Purchase of a chair for state grange headquarters was voted. State Deputy Master Arthur Brown gave a short talk. Third and fourth degree obligation was given Mr. Morgan and Mr. Darby.

A Mothers' day program was given in charge of Mrs. V. B. Lantyne.

Seniors to Give Play Next Friday

JEFFERSON — "Introducing Susan," the Jefferson high school student body play will be presented at the Masonic hall Friday night, May 20.

Charlie Brown as the professor, and Louise Gilmour as Susan, have the leading roles. Others in the cast are Bubbles Hart, Doris Miller, June Harris, Garnet Chrisman, Bob Fox, Francis Phelps, Lowell Overholser, Bill Anderson, Bob Cole, and Donald Turnidge.

Miss Dana Logan is directing the play and the senior English class is in charge of the production.

Pneumonia Threatens

NORTH SANTIAM—Helen Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, has been ill with a severe cold. Pneumonia threatened for a time, but the little girl is much better now.

Auburn Record on Track Is Poorer

AUBURN—The Auburn school did not do as well at the county track meet Friday as in the past, though some individuals did real well. In the boys' events grade 1 to 5, Charles Fiskins was second in the 75 yard dash; three-legged race, Laurel and Billy Hardman won first; sack race, James Webb, second; potato race, James Webb, third; 200 yard relay, Charles Fiskins, Devaln Graham, Melvin Case and Donald Geaner, second.

Girls' events, grades 1 to 5,

25 yard dash Verna Johns, third. Girls in grades 6 to 8 Dorothy Krehbiel won second in both the 25 and 50 yard dash; Alma Olson and Doris Boley first in the three legged race.

Matlock's Trial Put Off Until Early June

WOODBURN—The trial of R. D. Matlock, Gervais route 1 who was arrested on complaint signed by Charles Wildick and charged with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, was postponed from Wednesday until Friday, June 3, in Judge Overton's court here.

Two Airlie Men Suffer Injuries

AIRLIE—Wade Williams received a bad cut on the ear when a plow share which he was loosening fell on him. The ear was cut through, necessitating several stitches.

Harley Trespar, timber faller at Coopers mill was badly bruised when a limb fell on his back. X-rays showed that no bones were broken.

A surprise dinner was held for Mrs. Emma Womer on her 50th birthday at her home in Pede.
