

Mrs. Zetta Schlador Assured of Mayor's Office, Silvertown

Write-ins Are Popular There

Storruste Has High Total for Treasurer, Hubbs in Recorder Race

SILVERTON—Write-ins were excessively popular in Friday's election at Silvertown. With only competition for city recorder, write-ins were made for a most crowded race. Zetta Schlador's heavy write-in vote on the republican ballots assured for her the nomination for mayor of both parties. L. C. Eastman polled 25 votes from north precincts in Silvertown. Mr. Eastman is former mayor of Silvertown, others who received write-in votes for mayor were Dr. J. McDaniel, John Winegar, George Manolis, Lloyd Moser, Mrs. H. B. Latham, H. B. Latham, B. F. Terry, Earl Ross, Dr. P. A. Lear, Earl Garver, Julius Alm, Mayor W. H. Moffett, W. L. McGinnis, Reber Allen.

No candidates had filed for city treasurer but M. C. Storruste received over 60 votes. A number of others received more than one vote. M. G. Gunnarson, city treasurer, polled the most. Others written in included Glenn Bridwell, George Hubbs, Norris Ames, Earl Adams, C. A. Anderson, Roy Morley, Parzy Ruzo, C. R. Wilson, Frank Wray and W. S. Jack.

Recorder Race Close
Write-ins were scarce on the recorder's division with interest centering on George Hubbs and Knute Gregerson with Hubbs finally winning by a small margin. Hubbs also received a number of write-in votes on the democratic ballots.

L. F. Tucker, R. A. Fish and A. Cote were nominated to councilman positions. Fish and Tucker are democrats and Cote republican. Each of the candidates received a number of write-in on their opposing party's ballots. Others receiving write-ins were C. A. Anderson, Earl Garver, W. L. McGinnis, T. M. Lukens, L. L. Stewart, George Manolis, H. B. Latham, Frank Wray, Norris Ames, Otto Lagard, Harvey Williams, George Steelhammer, Lowell Brown, Glenn Bridwell.

An unusual amount of interest was shown in election returns here Friday night and crowds milled around both the city hall and the Knights of Pythias hall where the local returns were posted.

Rileys Back From California Travel

MONMOUTH — Mr. and Mrs. Paul Riley returned home Tuesday from a jaunt of about 2,000 miles south which took them to San Luis Obispo, Calif. They visited Dr. and Mrs. Willis Butler and Dr. and Mrs. Jay Butler there. The Butlers are former Monmouth residents.

At Willows, the Rileys called on Mr. Clark H. Hagg, long time resident of Monmouth. Hagg is a cattle buyer there, and Mrs. Hagg is employed in a newspaper office.

Mrs. Riley says this is an ideal time of year to visit California. Crops were green and of vigorous growth; roses at their peak of lovely bloom.

Reunions of OSC Classes Planned

OREGON STATE COLLEGE—The silver jubilee class of 1913 will be featured at this year's alumni reunions to be held in connection with the commencement weekend here. Saturday, May 28, will be observed as Alumni day. The golden jubilee class group will include those from 1913 to 1938.

Joining with the silver jubilee class will be friends from the classes of '14, '15 and '16 who will hold secondary reunions. Other reunions are scheduled by the classes of 1894 to '97 inclusive.

J. E. Cooter and Dorothy Stausloff of Salem and Helen Cogwell of Corvallis are heading plans for the silver jubilee reunion.

Grangers' News

MONMOUTH — Weed identification was the chief program feature of Monmouth grange meeting Saturday. W. J. Stockholm and S. H. Edwards had grouped a large number of weeds on two long tables. Each weed recognized was labeled. A collection of dried plant specimens, arranged for exhibition, were shown by E. R. Jackman, crop specialist. OSC speaking to the assemblage, Jackman classified weeds as annuals, biennials and perennials. He listed annuals as practically harmless; the next group more difficult to exterminate, and the perennial weeds the sort which require continuous vigilance to conquer.

The white top weed was mentioned as a foreign weed here, but which has gotten a hold in eastern Oregon in the past 10 years. It spreads by root and by seed. Roots 14 feet in length have been found. Occasional specimens have been discovered in western Oregon.

Monmouth's Park Walks Made Over

MONMOUTH—The local city park, although small in area, is becoming more charming to behold each year, due to the continuous efforts of Civic club members. Recently the concrete walks surrounding the park block have been renewed and repaired to provide more convenience for pedestrians and a vastly better appearance. Laurel shrubs which died out last year have been replaced in the northside row.

A helpful piece of park equipment is the new gasoline powered lawn mower purchased by the Civic club, aided by other local organizations. Its influence is already evident in smoother, neater clipping.

Monday and Tuesday, May 23 and 24 have been named cleanup days here. City authorities have arranged disposal of junk, and citizens are urged to cooperate.
