

Day Observed At Silverton

Residents Hear Dr. Riley of Salem; Rituals Are Held at Cemetery

SILVERTON—A large audience gathered at the armory Monday morning to listen to Dr. P. O. Riley of Salem give a beautiful Memorial address. Dr. Riley traced the history of Memorial day, taking it through the World war to the present day.

Other numbers on the program, of which Jack Lewis served as chairman, were the introduction of distinguished guests who included Dr. Riley, Mrs. Mable Lerfald, president of the Legion auxiliary; L. A. Hall, commander of the Legion; Mrs. Elsie Simeral, Mrs. A. Ackley, Mrs. L. Norgaard, Mrs. Lida Tesher, W.R.C. members; Mrs. Richard Larson, Gold Star mother; Evelyn Hall, president of the junior auxiliary; Harry Wilson, Jr., president of the Sons of American Legion, and Chris Quall, Spanish American War veteran. C. J. Towe gave "In Flanders Fields" and P. M. Powell gave the response. The American Legion auxiliary trio, Mrs. J. J. Lewis, Mrs. W. P. Scarth and Miss Elaine Clower, accompanied by Mildred Hubbs, sang "God So Loved the World." Taps was given by Harry Wilson.

M. J. Kerner gave both the invocation and benediction. Selections were played by the American Legion Junior band, directed by H. E. Campbell.

Following the program at the hall, a long line of parade was formed to march to the cemetery where the ritualistic services were carried out.

Ida M. Millhollen Funeral Is Held

ALBANY—Mrs. Ida May Millhollen, 69, widow of the late Edward M. Millhollen who died in 1932, died at her home Thursday. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Fisher Funeral home at 2 o'clock with burial in the Oakville cemetery.

Mrs. Millhollen was born in the Oakville neighborhood May 31, 1869, the granddaughter of Captain John Smith, first missionary to the Warm Springs Indian reservation, and also a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Crawford, pioneers of the Williams Presbyterian church of Oakville.

Mrs. Millhollen was a registered nurse and for many years made her home in Portland and Vancouver, Wash. For more than 40 years she was resident of Albany.

Surviving are two children, Mrs. John Bryant and W. R. Millhollen, both of Albany.

Mrs. Blake Heads Sunnyside School

SUNNYSIDE—Mrs. Charles Taylor is recovering satisfactorily from a major operation which she underwent recently at the Salem General hospital.

Mrs. Caroline Blake has been reengaged as principal and upper grade teacher at Sunnyside. Mrs. Florence Whelan has been rehired as primary teacher.

Notices have been posted for the annual school election to be held June 20 for the purpose of electing a clerk and two directors. One director is to serve for one year to finish out the term of Frank Barnett, who resigned. This vacancy has been filled temporarily by Ray Heckart, who was appointed by the county school superintendent.

James Colgan Funeral Is Held at Marion

MARION—Many friends and relatives attended the funeral of James Colgan at Salem under the direction of Clough-Barrick company, with Rev. Watson conducting the service. Interment was at Twin Oaks cemetery. Turner, Pallbearers were Paul Helsler, Claude Overholser, E. Pletzer, Carol Wilcox, Lee Farlane and J. L. Calavan.

Mr. Colgan was born November 22, 1860, at Owatonna, Minn., in 1896 he married Mary Comers at Salem. Thirty years ago he came to this locality where he engaged in farming and dairying.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Mary Colgan; two sons, Raymond and Lionel Colgan, Jefferson; two daughters, Mrs. Hazel Givens, Albany, and Mrs. Gladys Currier, Jefferson; and four grandchildren, two brothers, Ed Colgan, Portland, and Harry Colgan, Salem.

Pythian Lodges Guests At Church in Hubbard

HUBBARD—The Knights of Pythias lodge and Arion temple Pythian Sisters were the guests at the Hubbard Congregational church at the Sunday morning services.

Rev. J. S. Van Winkle, the pastor, spoke on "The worth of Fraternalism." Mrs. Loes Muller sang, "Going Home"; Miss Kathryn Hawk played two special numbers, Handel's Largo, and "Consolation" by Mendelssohn.

Grangers' News

VICTOR POINT—The degree team from Union Hill were guests of Silverton grange at their regular meeting Friday night, conferring the third and fourth degrees on class of candidates.

Besides the team those attending from here were Mrs. C. C. Carter, Mrs. John Stalneger, Miss Jeanne Oeder, Henry Peters and Jim Darby, Jr.

Vanguard Draws Fire to Locate Batteries

Exercising extreme caution, these Japanese soldiers are pictured entering a Chinese fortified city at the head of an attacking force. These men endanger their lives in order to draw gunfire from the Chinese, thereby showing their comrades, in the rear, how the town is fortified. Japanese censors permitted this photograph of an actual war scene to be taken but would not consent to publication of the name of the city where the action took place.—IIN photo.

Community Clubs

Graduates Honored
BETHEL—An interested audience was present at the meeting of the community club Friday night, at which time 4H achievement day and eighth grade graduation were observed. Baskets of roses and green streamers formed a decoration. There was a display of 4H club work; 67 exhibits which received much attention. Baking, needlework and home-making entries were judged by Mrs. E. E. Matten, Mrs. J. R. Carruthers, Mrs. Ralph A. Wilson. Handicraft and forestry exhibits were judged by J. R. Carruthers.

The 4H club program took the form of a model meeting and a radio broadcast. Coralee Nichols presided at the meeting. There was a summary of 4H club work by Clurus Hageman; rhythm band number by the school, directed by Charlotte Hain; reading, Robert Scott; song, Mina Lee Spranger, Charlotte Hain, Luella Nichols, Marcella Wolfe, Mrs. Cass A. Nichols accompanying; radio contest, Clyde Reed, Gene Rienscho, Lorraine Kirscher.

Fair Ribbons Awarded
County fair ribbons were awarded: $15 donated by the community club was distributed to exhibitors; gifts were presented to the judges. A. C. Spranger, president of Bethel local, presented the Farmer Union scholarship to Corvallis summer school, outstanding club member. Coralee gave the half scholarship which she won on her pigs, exhibited at the state fair, to the next in line, Wanda Froehlich.

Wayne Harding, county 4H club agent, presented gold pins to Wanda Froehlich, winner in canning contest, and to Freda Bucur-each, winner in food preparation contest; a pin to Coralee Nichols, Bethel representative in the style review; ribbons to Werna and Wanda Froehlich, won on their Guernseys exhibited at the county livestock show. A copy of the "Victor Book of the Opera" was presented to the school as winner of first place in Marion county social progress contest, sponsored by the Radio Corporation of America. The first prize cake was presented to Mr. Harding by Freda Bucurech on behalf of the 4H club.

Hewitt Is Speaker
Roy R. Hewitt of Salem gave the graduation address, an inspirational and helpful message. Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson presented the diplomas to Carl A. Reed and Robert L. Scott. She also presented to a large number of pupils the awards given by the system of writing, for fine penmanship.

A resolution of regret that Mrs. Weddle is leaving Bethel school after nine years as its teacher, to enter 4H club work, was presented by Rev. S. Hamrick, and adopted unanimously. A gift was presented to Mrs. Weddle, from the pupils and families of the district, by Mrs. J. R. Carruthers. The evening closed with the annual ice cream social in the school dining room.

SILVERTON HILLS—Election of officers at the Silverton Hills community club Saturday night were: President, Jim Underwood; vice-president, Anton Sacker; secretary-treasurer, Maurice Benson; directors, George Benson, Eldon Mulkey, Hilda Sacker, Joe Bonner and Dewalt Tippler.

The club voted to give a benefit dance on June 4 with the Mikelson orchestra.

Independence on ONS Grad Roster

INDEPENDENCE—Seven Independence students will graduate from the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth on Wednesday, June 1, at 10 o'clock a. m. They are: Gerald Leonard Newton, Martin Frank Preissler, Clara Syverson, Magnus Syverson, Mary Louise Grover, Ruth Syverson, Mary Louise Grover, Ruth Louise Ramey, and Joyce Johnson.

Clara Syverson has been elected to teach at Clatskanie and Joyce Johnson in Klamath county.

Rev. Hicks Stays Monmouth Pastor

MONMOUTH—Rev. E. C. Hicks, pastor of the Evangelical church, attended the annual conference in Portland and was appointed to the charge at Monmouth for another year.

Miss Eloise Allor, city librarian here, expects to take a leave of absence next fall to attend the University of Washington for advanced study of library methods. She was graduated some years ago from Willamette university.

Mother Gets "Kidnaped" Child

Philadelphia courts wrote fins to a tangled marital dispute when they awarded custody of 20-month-old Helene Fabiani to her mother. Mrs. Fabiani had charged that her estranged husband, a New York boxing promoter, "kidnaped" the child last November.

George Askin, 89, Aurora Man Dies

AURORA—George Askin, 89, died of a heart attack at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon in Canby.

He was born in Oakville, Ontario, Canada, April 15, 1849, and came to Oregon in 1880, settling in Oregon City where he was a millright for the Hawley mills for a number of years, later buying a farm at Needy, where he resided until 1900 when he retired, purchasing a home in Canby where he resided until the death of his wife two years ago. He has since made his home with his daughter, Mrs. G. A. Fredrickson, in Aurora.

He leaves two daughters and three sons, J. W. Ledbetter, J. W. and Frank E. of Port Townsend, Wash., G. W. Askin of Aurora.

Burial will be from Miller's mortuary at 2 o'clock Thursday. Cremation in the Salem crematorium. The service will be conducted by a spiritualist speaker.

Mrs. R. H. Bye Is Honored, Birthday

CENTRAL HOWELL—Mr. and Mrs. Perle Bye entertained in honor of the birthday anniversary of their mother, Mrs. R. H. Bye. Present were Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bye, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Janz, Mr. and Mrs. Merl Bye, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bye, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. McCune, Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Stewart and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tweed have the forms in for a new chicken house, 24 by 40 feet. The Tweeds enlarged their hatching equipment to quite an extent this season. Several large incubators and brooders are included in new equipment.

Monmouth People Take new Homes

MONMOUTH—Principal and Mrs. M. A. Thompson and their five children are now located in the Harry Sharrow house on West Clay street, having moved early this month from the Haley house on North Monmouth Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moore who vacated the Sharrow house are occupying the F. E. Murdoch house on East Jackson street. Moore is manual arts instructor in the high school.

Marvin Henderson, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Henderson, who underwent an operation for mastoid at a Salem hospital May 14, is recovered sufficiently to be brought to his home west of town. The boy, a pupil of Miss Agnes Sheehan in the Antioch school, was critically ill for several days.

Ralph Turner Returns To Home at Unionvale

UNIONVALE—Ralph Turner, over-seas World war veteran, who has been at the Veterans' hospital in Portland three weeks, returned Thursday.

Re-singling the barn on the Walter Diebel farm is in progress with M. A. Palmer of Dayton in charge of the work.

Seven acres of corn was plowed for the first time Friday and Saturday at the Clarence L. Fowler farm.

Bodecker Hospitalized

FOX VALLEY—John Bodecker, who has been in the Stayton hospital since last Saturday, was moved to a Salem hospital Friday. Bodecker was quite seriously injured about the head and shoulders while at work loading logs above Detroit last week. Bodecker is a brother of Mrs. George Berry of Fox Valley.

Sargent is Winner

HOPEWELL—Russell Sargent of Hopewell, a Grand Island student and Grand Island 4-H club member, has won a two weeks scholarship in the county health contest, to attend the 4-H summer school at Corvallis in June.

Son to Friths

HUBBARD—A baby boy was born at the Ann hospital, Hubbard, on Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. William Frith of St. Paul. The parents named the baby Theodore.

Dodd Injured, Fall

SILVERTON—Ferris A. Dodd, pastor of the Calvary Pentecostal church is at a Salem hospital following a fall from the Santiam bridge where he was employed.

Commencement at Independence on

Activities Opened Last Wednesday; Exercises Set for Tonight

INDEPENDENCE—Commencement activities began last Wednesday night, with the "Junior-Senior send off" dinner, for the 49 graduates of the senior class of 1938, the largest class in the history of the high school.

Friday night each senior took part in the class night exercises, given in the form of a play titled "Star Dust." Anna Mae Ramey gave the salutatorian address and Ritsuko Inouye, the valedictorian.

The Baccalaureate service was held at the Presbyterian church on Sunday night with Rev. Henry G. Hansen delivering the address. There was special music by the Presbyterian choir.

Commencement will be held on Tuesday night, May 31, in the IHS gymnasium. Dean Rubach of Oregon State college will deliver the address; Rec. A. W. Brown will give the invocation and benediction; vocal numbers will be by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne MacGowan, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Baylis; and the IHS orchestra will play the professional and recessional.

Awards Scheduled

Awards will be presented by Principal Paul E. Robinson, and A. W. Foster, chairman of the school board will present the diplomas to the following seniors: Dale Abbe, Elsie Baker, Genevieve Bassuet, Emil Bealing, James Brown, Charles Brown, Glenn Bursch, Isaac Burch, Glenn Cole, Eileen Cook, Helen Cooke, Virginia Cooper, Ruby Cox, Doris Creason, Mavis De Caster, Anne Drasoff, Harold Engblom, Orville Fate, Darlene Hargin, Kenneth Housley, Homer Hubbard, Eloise Imbler, Ritsuko Inouye, Jean Ellen Irvine, Mavin Jenkins, Alta Jewell, Peggy Johnston, Melville Jones, Frankie Mae Lane, Elmer Linn, Betty Lou Long, Richard Madsen, Clare Millhouser, Dorothy Moffitt, Maxine Oberson, Keith Peterson, Harlan Peterson, Beth Purvine, Earl Purvis, Ernest Rafferty, Anna Mae Ramey, Gladys Rogers, William Stryker, Delbert Taylor, Mary Van Cleef, Bette Sylvester, Roy Weaver, Opal Wells and Mary Marie Williams.

The annual school picnic will be held Friday, June 3, at Hazel Green Park.

Training School Closes

The Independence Training school closed for the summer vacation last Friday, until summer school starts on June 6.

There were 31 eighth graders graduating, who were: Robert Barnhart, Rex Beeman, Walter Boyce, Mary Louise Carey, Maxine Case, Maxon Case, Thelma Cox, Ralph Hill, Donald Kosanko, Margaret Keene, William Kueale, Dolly Larson, Ovid Gale Long, Henry Maret, Harry Matsuda, Dona Jean Meisha, Ralph Miller, Darrell Mitchell, Lynn Nelson, Alfred Peoples, Mildred Pomey, Julia Rhoads, Frederick Skinner, Earl Slater, Ray Smith, Jess John, June Travis Marvis Ward, Richard Weaver, Vivian

Farmers' Union News

TALBOT—The Sidney-Talbot Junior Farmers Union met in the Talbot schoolhouse Friday night with President Eldon Turnidge in charge.

It was reported that John Finlay, who took part in the county oratorical contest at Bethel, had won a $3 prize. Ilene Blinston was appointed to contact some other junior local for a softball game. A report was given by Ilene Blinston, delegate to the state Farmers Union convention held at Sheridan Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

TALBOT—Sidney-Talbot Farmers Union met in the Talbot schoolhouse Friday night, with President George Potts in the chair.

Nelson Gilmour reported on the dairy committee. Ethel Blinston was elected as correspondent. Mrs. Jake Gilmour and Nelson Gilmour gave legislative reports. Jake Gilmour reported on the subsidiary committee. An estimate of twine the members of this local would need this harvest was taken by the secretary, Delmer Davidson.

D. E. Turnidge, a member of the flood control committee reported on the actions the engineers are taking in this locality. The relief committee, Mrs. Dave Burnett and Mrs. Addie Davidson, gave reports on illness in the community. By motion the local decided to pay expenses of delegates to the state convention. Reports on the state convention, held at Sheridan Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week were given by Mrs. D. E. Blinston, Mrs. Elmo Brown, Mrs. Rose Gilmour, Jake Gilmour, D. E. Blinston, George Potts and Delmer Davidson.

At the close of the business meeting Mrs. Elmo Brown had charge of the program. Numbers were: Guitar solos, Dottie Wiederkehr; accordion numbers, Robert Chase; reading, E. B. Cochran.

Refreshments were served by the committee at a late hour.

Willquette and Garald Workman, High School Elects

Clifton Miller was elected student body president for next year at an election held Wednesday by IHS. Junior Hartman was elected vice president; Margot Syverson, secretary; Maxine Williams, treasurer; and June Ramey, scribe.

The Margold "I" club elected: Betty Addison, president; Barbara Ruef, vice president; Mary Inouye, secretary and Geraldine Primus, treasurer.

Claggett Plot Cleaned

MISSION BOTTOM—W. Pierce Collard, secretary-treasurer of the Claggett Cemetery association with a crew of men cleaned the cemetery Saturday. This is an annual event and it is hoped to have a board meeting and have some permanent work done. There are two on the board now, Dr. J. C. Evans and Pierce Collard.

Baccalaureate Is Held at Albany

ALBANY—Rev. Virgil Halbig, pastor of the First Christian church, preached the baccalaureate sermon Sunday evening to the members of the graduating class of the Albany high school.

The service was held in the auditorium of the high school. Rev. Halbig took as his subject "Some Fundamentals for Life and Success." Music was furnished by a union choir of the churches, organized for the occasion by Mrs. Roy T. Worley, Dr. T. W. Yarnes, pastor of the Methodist church, presided.

Graduation exercises will be held in the high school auditorium Wednesday evening, June 1, with Dr. Bruce Baxter, president of Willamette university, as the speaker. There are 147 boys and girls in the graduating class this year, one of the largest classes to graduate from the school.

Dallas Lion Club Nominations Made

DALLAS—At the regular meeting of the Dallas Lion's club held this week officers for the new year were nominated as follows: Lawrence Smith, president; Walter C. Leth, first vice president; Dr. Ernest C. McCollon, second vice president; Art Collinsworth, third vice president; John D. Voth, secretary-treasurer; I. L. Smith, lion tamer; Otto Adolph, Tiny Eice and Paul Bollman, tail twister; directors, J. A. Inglis, Hollis Smith, Albert Gerlinger and A. J. Cleveland.

Election of officers will be held at the next meeting.

Decorate Cemetery

MARION—Relatives and friends spent Friday in the burial plot of Marion cleaning and putting graves in order for Memorial day.

This is one of the oldest cemeteries in the valley. Joe Cook donated the plot for a public burying ground in 1888.

Chesterfield

Consider the evidence...
The strongest statement—the best advertising—is to tell something about a product that the user can prove for himself...
A lot of smokers have found that Chesterfields have a taste they like... that Chesterfields are MILDER.
and here's the Smoker's happy verdict
"...more pleasure from Chesterfields than any cigarette I ever smoked... They Satisfy!"

Weekly Radio Features of the PLEASURE cigarette

GRACE MOORE
ANDRE KOSTELANETZ
PAUL WHITEMAN
DEEMS TAYLOR
PAUL DOUGLAS

Copyright 1938, LORRY & MYERS TOBACCO CO