

Faculty Plans Vacation Time

Final Examinations Held at Gervais; Several of Teachers Leave

GERVAIS—Final examinations were held at the high school Tuesday and Wednesday. The teachers are leaving during the week for their homes in other places and for their locations for next year. Principal Virgil Scott moved his household goods to Salem Monday where he will reside for the present. He has been elected principal of the Turner high school. Mrs. Scott is recovering slowly from operations in a hospital there recently. Howard Tong, athletic coach, will probably remain here most of the summer because of inability to get living quarters at Gaston where he will be high school principal next year. Misses Lulu Earnhart and Patricia Jewell will leave the last of the week for their homes at Pendleton and Oregon City. Miss Marie Mannix has not yet decided on plans for the summer. Her sister, Frances, who teaches at Waldport is expected to join her and her mother here this week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene V. Myers are moving to Monmouth where they will attend summer school. Mr. Myers has been elected for his third year as grade principal. Mrs. Myers taught at Keizer last year and has been elected for next year. Miss Dorothy Schwab, teacher in the lower grades lives at Mt. Angel and drives over every day. She has been elected for next year.

Sisters Stay Longer
The Sisters of St. Mary's will remain there till about the middle of the month before going to Beaverton for the summer.

The high school picnic will be held Friday, June 3, at Hazel Green park.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Uhammer have moved their household goods to Gervais and will occupy the McAdoo house at the east side of town when it is available. Leland DeJardin will graduate at Mt. Angel college Sunday, June 5, when he will receive a BA degree.

To Visit in Jefferson

JEFFERSON—Miss Mina Wright of Los Angeles and Miss Anna Wright of Oakland, Calif., are expected home about June 12. Both are employed in the California cities.

TVA Heads Assail Ousted Chief

Charges that Dr. Arthur Morgan, ousted chief of the TVA, sought to sabotage the project because of his "rule-or-ruin" policy with regard to the program were made by Dr. Harcourt Morgan, left, and David E. Lienthal, TVA board members, when they appeared before the congressional committee investigating activities of the TVA.

Ebbert-Davenport Nuptials Are Said

SILVERTON—A surprise wedding was solemnized at Stevenson, Wash., Saturday at 11 a. m. when Henry Davenport, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Davenport of Silverton, and Eloise Ebbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ebbert of Monmouth, were united in marriage by the Rev. Ella Williams of the Methodist church at Stevenson. The young people were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark (Edna Goodknecht).

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Davenport visited with Mr. and Mrs. William Jones (Allida Berregard) at Odell, and with Louise Berregard at Hood River. Sunday they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Jenkins, formerly of Silverton, but now at The Dalles.

Mr. Davenport is a graduate of the Silverton high school and later attended Pacific university. He is now employed with a Mt. Angel meat company.

Mrs. Davenport is a graduate of Monmouth high school and normal and is now a junior at the University of Oregon. The couple will set up housekeeping July 1.

Stella N. Carr Home From East

SALEM HEIGHTS—Mrs. Stella Neagle Carr, who motored across country with friends 10 months ago to her old home in New York state, returned by train last week after visiting relatives and friends and places of interest. Mrs. Carr declares Oregon is best.

Mrs. F. A. Anderson returned to her home at the Holdeman's after a two months stay with her daughters, Mrs. Christine Ackley and Mrs. Price, in Portland. Mrs. Lyllis Price accompanied her mother and will stay while recuperating from a fall.

Herbert Erickson flew from Oakland, Calif., Saturday night to visit with home folks, Dean and Mrs. F. M. Erickson and Dr. Mary Erickson. He returned Tuesday. Herbert is a graduate of Willamette university and is assistant manager of California Packing company, Del Monte brand, at Oakland.

Knight's Sister Here From East

Jefferson Chorus to Offer Program of Music Monday Night

JEFFERSON—Mrs. Mattie Wruck of Winona, Minn., arrived here Wednesday to be with her brother, L. H. Knight who is critically ill. E. C. Knight, brother of L. H. Knight, returned to his home in Berkeley, Calif., Tuesday after a few days visit at the Knight home. Miles Armstrong has arrived from Livingston, Mont., to be with his mother, who is assisting with the care of her father, Mr. Knight.

Miss Virginia Mason, teacher in the Tillamook high school is home for the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lane are the parents of a 7-pound daughter born to them May 31, at the home of Mrs. Lane's grandparents, Mr.

and Mrs. J. M. Slyter, near Marion. The baby has been named Annie Alice Lane.

Iowa Folks Visit

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Butenhoff of Red Oak, Iowa, are guests at the home of their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fryrear. The Fryrear chorus, under the direction of Dr. H. C. Epley will present a program of music Monday night, June 6, at 8:30 o'clock at the Christian church. Mrs. Albert Arnold and Mrs. Gilbert Looney will sing special numbers.

James Pate, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Pate, has finished a successful year of teaching in the Wheeler high school, and has returned home. He has been rehired for the next year.

Hans Hansen Visits

BRUSH CREEK—Hans Hansen, former resident of this district spent the first part of the week visiting his cousin, L. H. Meyer, and other friends here. Mr. Hansen is doing landscape gardening at Portland.

Out-of-Town Folk Visit at Jefferson

JEFFERSON—Out-of-town visitors in Jefferson over the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Warner of Castle Rock, Wash., guests at the home of Willard's mother, Mrs. W. W. Warner. Fred Walter of Toledo, a guest at the home of Mrs. E. J. Alexander; Mr. and Mrs. Sidnev Beck of Portland, visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Roland and other relatives; Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Williams and nephew, Arthur Blum of Banks, guests at the home of Mrs. Leta Thomas and children.

Al Walden of Portland was looking after graves of relatives in the Jefferson cemetery, and also calling on old-time friends. He conducted a harness shop in Jefferson for a number of years.

James Johnston is improving rapidly at the Salem general hospital where he is receiving treatment. The condition of L. H. Knight, who is confined to his bed with arthritis, remains about the same. Mrs. Knight, who has been ill, is improved.

Irvine Wright is supervising the building of camp cabins for a Mr. Shoen, on the Pacific highway north of Jefferson at the intersection of the old and new highway.

Virgil Wilson returned to Red Bluff, Calif., Sunday night after a two weeks' visit with relatives in Jefferson, Salem and Portland.

Grand Island Girl Class Salutatorian

GRAND ISLAND—High school students from this district who received their diplomas at the Amity high school commencement exercises Thursday night include Mary Evelyn Wiley, Mary Pockhill, Cecil Will, Melvin Prorose and Arnie Lien.

Mary Evelyn Wiley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Worth Wiley was salutatorian of the class. Mrs. Fred Be'hune and children, Billy and Betty, have moved into the little house recently built near the home of her mother, Mrs. Arka Lawrence. She expects to make this her permanent home while the work of her husband requires his continually moving from place to place.
