West Stayton Clubs Enjoy Joint Picnic at Park in Stayton

WEST STAYTON—The Birth-day club and members of the Quilting club enjoyed a picnic in the Stayton Park Wednesday; a basket lunch was served.

Mrs. H. L. Stewart was pleasantly surprised by the members of the quilting club when she was presented a gift for her assistance as dinner hostess the past season.

Rumor Romance for Vanderbilt

Frequent appearances together of Alfred Gywnne Vanderbilt, young society bachelor and sportsman, and the charming Manuela Hudson, daughter of an old San Francisco family, have lent credence to rumors that they may be Cupid's next prominent victims.

Lebanon Fair Is Under Way

Uncle Joe Alley to Revisit Scene of Battle at Gettysburg

LEBANON—Lebanon looks like a city arrived over night as the tents, amusement stands and devices and concession buildings are in place on Sherman street, east of Main, for a continuous show during the strawberry fair.

The fair started Thursday night with a colorful pageant at the athletic field of Lebanon high school with the crowning of Queen Nadine, attended by her eight princesses, Ardis Springer of Shedd; Reva Hughes, Sweet Home; Virginia Tucker, Albany; Lawee Sander, Halsey; Bancha Garrett, Brownsville; Ethel May Murphy, Harrisburg; Evelyn Kendle, Scio; Marian Richardson, Tangent.

The university band of Eugene, Albany band and musicians of other nearby towns will join the local bands in providing music during the two days of the fair.

Teacher Re-elected

Mrs. Dale Curtis has been re-elected teacher of St. John Hill school which closed Friday with a picnic, program and sports; the women of the community arranged the picnic in honor of Mrs. Curtis.

A feature of the Methodist women's WFMS meeting at the home of Mrs. D. Cormier Wednesday afternoon was an address by Miss E. Ernestine Coles, teacher of English and art at Keelakekua, Hawaii. Miss Coles was called from the islands by the death of her mother in Albany a few weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Kaunmerer, who have spent several years in Corvallis, have moved back to Lebanon and built a modern home on their plot south of town.

Going to Gettysburg

J. H. (Uncle Joe) Alley, 101 years old April 4, a Civil war veteran, will be the guest of the government July 1 at Gettysburg, Pa., on the 75th anniversary of the renowned battle at that place.

E. E. Taylor, well known Lebanon man, has been appointed to his car leaving the trip and return; they will leave by train in time to enroll at Gettysburg, June 29.

Transportation, board and everything that goes to provide a comfortable and pleasant trip will be provided by the government for both Mr. Alley and Mr. Taylor.

The Mountain States Power company is replacing three blocks of two inch wrought iron pipe along Second street north of Rose with four inch cast iron water mains under the supervision of Superintendent L. McClain. This will increase the water volume,

Yergen Home Is Scene Club Meet

AURORA—The Aurora Woman's club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. A. Yergen with Mrs. John Kister, assisting hostess. The main event of the afternoon was a most interesting report of the state federation held at Pendleton, by Mrs. W. B. Stoner, delegate.

Guests of the club were Mrs. H. Dixon, Mrs. Willis Mathieu and Mrs. Ray Yergen, Miss Patricia Yergen and Miss Carmi Ottaway.

The annual club picnic will be held June 15 in the park of Miss Julian, if not raining with lunch at 12 o'clock, and it raining in the Knights of Pythias hall with a 7 o'clock dinner. Husbands and families are invited.

This was the last club meeting until October.

with more uniform pressure. Nine men are employed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Clark are assisting a family reunion with their sons, James of Portland, Reed of Klamath Falls and Huntington of Salem and their families. Their daughter, Flora Jean, was one of the Lebanon high school graduates Tuesday night and with her mother will take a trip with Mr. Clark as he travels through Washington next week.
