Miss Fisher Is Wed Saturday Evening

Marked by simplicity and en-nanced by the lovely subt mer flowers and pastal gowns of the attendants was he wedding of Miss Jane Gladys Fisher, darghter of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Fisher, of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Harvey, Sr., and Joseph E. Harvey, Jr. son of Portland, which was sciemaized last night at the Knight Memorial church at eight o'clock. The Reverend H. C Stover read the service in the presence of a large number of relations and Preceding the ceremony the church choir of which the bride is a member sang "'Tis Morn-ing" and "O Perfect Love," a wedding hymn. Donald Allison played the organ accompan ment and the wedding marches. The al'ar was banked with an arrangement of pink and white peonles, blue lalphin'um, ralms and white cathedral tape, s in candelabra.

The blonde bride who entered on the arm of her father wore a handsome wedding gown of white satin fash oned with train and bolero facket with long sleeves and tucked waistline. Her only ornament was a three strand choker of pearls. She wore a full length tulle weil which was arranged in a hale can of orange blossoms and carried a slower bouquet of gardenias, white roses and bouvardia.

Bridesmaids in Pastel The bride was preceded to the altar by her three bridesmaids, Miss Esther Gibbard, Miss Jeryme Upston, Miss Marian Averill of Portland and the maid of henor, Miss Jane Bellinger of Tacoma They wore identical gowns of chiffon fashioned with low waistlines and full skirts, tight fitting bodices, shirring at the neckline and short puffed sleeves. They carried old fashloned bouquets in pastel shades of summer biooms and wore clusters of flowers in their hrdr. Miss Bellinger wore cornflower blue, Miss Averill, daffodill yellow, Miss Upston, turquoise blue and Miss Gibbard

mr. Robert Hart acted as best man for Mr. Harvey and ashers were Mr. William Miller, Mr. Talbot Bennett, Mr. Robert Utter and Mr. Paul Hauser.

Mrs. Fisher wore a gown of rose crepe trimmed in a lighter shade for her daughter's wedding. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Fisher, wore a gown of white lace which she were on her 50th wedding anniversary and a corsage of pink roses.

A reception in the church parlors followed the wedding with members of the bridal party receiving the guests. The acrying quet of white roses in a crystal revealed. bowl flanked with white tapers in crystal holders

Reception Follows Presiding at the punch bowl Ray Smith. Mingling with the guests about the rooms were Mrs. Carl Hollingworth and Mrs. Mrs. Lola Bellinger of Tacoma, Edgar F. Averal of Portland. Miss Mary Eyre, Miss Beryl Holt, Miss Mabel Robertson, Miss Marforie Christenson and Miss Lelia Johnson. Young friends of the tride who assisted in the rerving were Miss Caroyl Braden, Miss Ruth Fick, Miss Helen Boardman, Miss Victoria Schreider. Miss Jean Hollingworth, Miss Dorothy Keeton, Miss Elizabeth Savage, Mrs. Dan Schreiber and Mrs. Harold Busick.

The couple left for a short wedding trip after which they will be at home at 1580 Center street. Mrs. Harvey is a popular member of the younger set of the capital and is a graduate of Willamette university where she was a member of Beta Chi sorority. She has tlso been a member of the Spinsters. Mr. Harvey is a graduate of Willamette and a member of Sigma Tau fraternity and is now in business in Falem.

Herbert-Mapes Vows Are Said Saturday Noon

At the home of Rev. and Mrs. Arno Q. Weniger Saturday noon, Miss Bertha Lu Mapes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Manes, be-Herbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Needham of Salem. I. W. Herbert.

The bride was given away in marriage by her father and wore a gown of white georgette made with pleated bolero jacket, puffed sleeves, full skirt and core; se of sweet peas and rosebuds. wore matching flowers in her maid of honor and Miss Ruth Herbert was the bridesma'd. Miss perform the ceremony. Mapes wore peach organza made with bolero jacket and full skirt. Miss Herbert was gowned in pink taffeta fashioned with full corded skirt, buttons down the front and puff sleeves. Mr. Roy Taylor was best man for Mr. Herbert. A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the wed-

For traveling the bride wore a navy suit with white goergette plouse and navy accessories. The couple will make their home in McMinnville where he is em-Mrs. Herbert is a gradunie of Salem high school and Mr Herbert received his education in North Dakota.

Mrs. Stewart Hostess at Birthday Party

Mrs. L. J. Stewart was hostess to a group of her son, Jimmy's, friends yesterday on the occasion of his sixth birthday. The group met at the Parrish playgrounds and games and refreshments were the order of the afternoon. Present were Leland, Merrill and the girls and Joyce McCloud, Bob, Patsy Gamma Rho. and Virginia Lersen, Donna, Bar-

Wedding Announcement Dates and Marriage Plans of Interest

June is running true to form as being the traditional month for brides. This last week a number of Salem maids have plighted their troths at large and small ceremonies. This weekend comes the announcement of several more wedtable was centered with a bou- dings for the month and wedding plans are also being

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts are announcing the date of the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Miss Mildred Roberts, to Palmer Dawes of Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs. modern looking indirect lighting Rufus Cutler Dawes, as Saturday, June 18.

The ceremony, which will be very quiet with only relatives and close friends attending, will be held in the chapel at St. Helen's hall in Portland of which Miss Roberts is a art; worn floors look new with next fortnight. Tuesday night a the petronesses and faculty mem- Neskowin has practically turned graduate. She service will be read at high noon.

The engagement of the couple was announced a year ago last spring. Miss Roberts is well known in Salem and following her graduation from St. Helen's hall went abroad and has been in the process of dec- sity of Oregon playing for danc- out. . . . Carolyn Brown in a and mist but not a downpour. . . . graduated from the Conservatory of Dresden. She is a young oration and Charles Val Clear ing. The affair is from 10 to 1 distinctive gown of light peach Children and high school youngviolinist of note and has been on concert tours in the United States for several years.

Mr. Dawes is a graduate of Northwestern and the University of Chicago law school.

Miss Rankin Tells Plans

Miss Maxine Rankin whose marriage to Robert N. Needham will be an event of June 18 has announced her wedding plans. The ceremony will be performed in the afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the chapel of St. Stephen's cathedral, Portland, with Dean Horace M. Ramsey reading the service in rector of the Center. Reyond the presence of members of the two families and intimate are two classrooms and a study friends of the couple.

The bride will be given in marriage by her uncle, Dr. John S. Rankin. Miss Genevieve Riedel of Portland will be Mr. Clear, his enthusiastic deher sister's only attendant and Winfield Needham will serve scription of new furniture and as best man for his brother.

A recer on in the parish house will follow the wedding. ministration in Portland sounded The couple will make their home in Salem after a wedding trip. Miss Rankin is the daughter of Mrs. W. C. Rankin of came the bride of Mr. Everett Portland and Mr. Needham is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. I.

Willamette Co-Eds to Wed

Two Willamette university maids have chosen graduation day and the day following for their marriages. Miss Mary Jeannette Sargent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sargent of Wasco, will become the bride of Charles Neville, son of Mrs. F. A. Neville of Portland, Sunday, June 12, at St. Paul's Miss Esther Mapes was the Episcopal church at 5:30 o'clock. Rev. George H. Swift will

> Miss Mary Elizabeth Kells and Ralph Gustafson will sing preceding the ceremony. The bride who will be given in marriage by her father has asked Mrs. Gwen Gallaher McCullough to be her matron of honor and bridesmaids will be Mrs. J. W. Harris of North Bonneville and Miss Winifred

> Frank Neville of Portland will act as best man for his brother and ushers include Robert Wilson of West Linn, George McLeod and Fred Neville.

A reception at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher on North Capitol street will follow the wedding.

Miss Ruth Tscharner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. ployed on the News-Reporter. Tscharner of Portland, will become the bride of Mervin Brink, son of Mrs. Myrtle Brink of Prineville, at a large church ceremony in Portland Saturday, June 11, at the Patton Metho- Of Mr. Minty dist Episcopal church at 8:30 o'clock with Dr. Robert Moulton Gatke officiating.

Miss Evelyn Fraser will be the honor attendant and bridesmaids will be Miss Lillian Hart and Miss Lois Burton. Lawrence Nunnenkamp will serve as best man for Mr. Brink and ushers will include Douglas Brink, William Fisher, Lawrence Morley and Ellsworth Morley. A reception at the bride's home will be held following the wedding. The couple will make their home in Prineville where Mr. Brink is with Pine Products Lumber company.

The two couples have attended Willamette university and the girls are members of Delta Phi and the men of Kappa and Virginia Lersen, Donna, Barbara and Dolores Kletzing, Sunny Mrs. Mabel Powers will pre-Chadwick Chapter, order of the Buddy Paul, Billy and Josent her pupils in recital at the Eastern Star will held a regular year's graduating class. They left Ruda Quamme and Mrs. Kenanna Bailey, Ronald Brunk, Lynn Roberts' studio on Monday pight business meeting. Tuesday anna Bailey, Ronald Brunk, Lynn Roberts' studio on Monday night business meeting Tuesday eve- for the north and will return by neth Boyle. Jensen, Albert Cohen, Jimmy at 8 o'clock. She will be assistning, June 7, in Masonic temple, way of the Oregon heaches, Mr.

Green, Beryl Elerick. Mrs. Stewart was assisted by Mrs. B. A. sional Women's cherus under the tending the grand chapter sesStaver company and they plant for the Molalla high school for the north and will return by neth Beyle.

In Masonic temple, way of the Oregon heaches, Mr.

Guests present were Mrs. Kenland in acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. A. Kroenchers and Miss Dillog is primary trackmint and Mrs. Stewland in acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. Charten in Molalla high school land in acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. Charten in Molalla high school
land in acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. Charten in Molalla high school
land in acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. Charten in Molalla high school land in acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. Charten in Melalla high school land in acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. Charten in Molalla high school
land in acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. Charten in Molalla high school land in acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. Charten in Molalla high school land in acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. Charten in Molalla high school land in acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. Charten in Molalla high school land in acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. Charten in Molalla high school land in acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. Charten in Molalla high school land in acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. Charten in Molalla high school land in acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. Charten in Miss Pales land in Acquamarine net with Jess and Mrs. Charten in Mrs. Stewland in Acqu

Salem's new Art Center Will Open Today

By MAXINE BUREN Today Salem's important venhave its formal opening from 1 until 6 o'clock. The west half of the ground der.

floor of the old high school building has been completely changed from the place where all where hundreds of lockers lined the halls; where thousands of Now pipes are concealed by very with white sheeting stretched tight to let the heat through; now lockers are gone and in their place rose biege walls of insulaboard exhibits of modern doorway is painted to make an attractive entrance.

form best backgrounds for ex- of the younger group.

leries, one large gallery ever to the north (where once typewriters clicked) next to that is Mr. Clear's office, a cherry room where visitors are invited to chat with the friendly but efficient difor craft work and stage settings. Exhibit Paintings

When this writer interviewed hand woven draves being completed by the National Youth Adfine. They were to be here for Sunday's opening. But yesterday morning, with good natured chagrin he told of .he fire in Portland that destroyed the truck.

Oregon's finest. One of the galleries will be filled with work done by Salem school children. The main thing is that the the Salem public, it is open daily classes which begin within a few and children will be taught by teachers. Exhmibits will change frequently, and are worth We've supported the efforts to raise funds to make the Center possible, and we've now our chance to enjoy the fruits.

Miss Robertson Bride

On Saturday afternoon Miss Marian Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Robertson became the bride of Mr. James Minty at a ceremony read by the Rev. Arno Q. Weniger at the Calvary Baptist parsonage.

The bride wore a three-piece dressmaker sult of turquoise with brown accessories and were a corsage of talisman roses She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Robert White. Mr. Minty was attended by Mr. White.

Willamette university who will graduate on June 11. They are: Miss Jean Hollingworth, Miss Virginia Pugh, Miss Lunelle Chapin, Miss Margaret Hauser, Miss Ina Bennett, Miss Charlotte Litchfield and Miss Elizabeth Taylor. (Kennell-Ellis photo.)

REAL WORK - was done by members of the Salem Federal Art Center board who helped arrange ture into art will commence in the exhibit for today's opening. earnest for this afternoon the Those pictured are: Mrs. Brad-Salem Federal Art center will ford Collins (lady with the broom), Mrs. William Burghardt and Mrs. Clifton Mudd on the lad-

the heat pipes started on jour- Younger Set to Give Dances This Month terra cotta paint. Even the west group of the high school set will bers looked in their formal gowns. into a Salem colony and we no-For several weeks the Center ford's orchestra from the Univer- them all, but a few we did single Changeable weather, sun, wind has directed the mixing of col- o'clock and is formal. Summer chiffon with inserts of lace on the sters were riding horses and bi- on the redingote. The dress was ors and agrangement of the gal- flewers will be used in the deco- full skirt, worn with and without cycling. . . . As usual the golf fashioned with full skirt, short leries. Colors have been selected rations about the hall and invita- the bolero jacket and matching links were crowded. . . . First a puffed sleeves and lace Peter Pan to show inviting warmth and tions have been sent to over 150 flowers in her hair. . . A very group of fast men players who

There are to be two hall gal- Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher, Mr. white with several ruffled rows women generally slowing the and Mrs. Glenn Wilbur, Mr. and of white with blue ribbon on the game for the men. . . . Resting Carl Armstrong of Portland.

drapes for our art Center. But students will entertain with a of deep pink trimmed in black Mrs. David Bennett Hill with her and Wesley Ritchie. the show goes on, he art center formal dance at Castillian hall velvet ribbon and carrying a daughter, Charlotte, and four of will open with turniture gener- from 10 to 1 o'clock. Bob Di- nosegay. Delta Phi Dance weeks are free and ooth adults been playing at the Ubangi club while in the east.

o'clock. The Spinsters will have Philadelphia, Pa. Harry Wesley and his orchestra SUMMER DANCES . . . A week Miss Doris Drager heads the di- were hostesses for a formal af-Tickets may be obtained from very nice was Mrs. Duane Gibson any of the club members.

Visitor Honored at Bridge Party

Mrs. J. V. Thompkins and Mrs. Robert Griffiths entertained on Wednesday night at the

Seen and Heard

By JERYME UPSTON STARS interspersed with a blue ceiling, the planets on the wail, last Saturday by the juniors at soft lights, formed the perfect tions for which compliments setting for the junior-senior should go to Margaret Gillette, prom at the high school Friday who was in charge of the decoranight. . . . A colorful sight, the tion committee. . . . A pink and grand march, the girls in pastel white false ceiling . . . pink and summer gowns and the men in white lattice work with roses light and dark suits . . . a number over the door, orchestra pit and of white coats and suits were also lights . . . a clever pond at one noticed. . . . The march was led end of the hall. by the junior class president, Bill A WEEKEND at the beach . . . Snell and Marylee Fry . . . fol- and that is where a great num-June the month of weddings lowed by Elmer Scheelar, senior ber of Salem folk went on Mewill also be the month for dances, class prexy, and Nadine Orcutt. morial day. . . . Cottages were with several scheduled for the . . . We must mention how grand scarce up and down the coast . . .

be hostesses for a gay dance at The girls were lovely and in such ticed several new beach homes Hazel Green with Maurie Bin- a crowd it was impossible to see had been built this year. . . . Patrons and patronesses will be dress worn by Nona Woodry . . . lowed by a mixed foursome, the Mrs. L. B. Gilbertson, Mr. and extremely full skirt. . . . Looking before starting another nine Mr. Mrs. H. M. Doud, Mr. and Mrs. just like a sweet girl graduate . . . and Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, Mar- a gown of royal blue net and Charles Claggett, Mr. and Mrs. Maxine Holt in all white with garet wearing a gay kerchief

McKenzie, Miss Betty Eyerly, pink organza made bouffant style . . . Practicing their drives on Miss Pat Noonan, Miss Lou Hick- with wide blue sash extending the beach were Mr. and Mrs. man, Miss Maxine Olson, Miss down the back of the dress. . . . Charles Heltzel, who were with Billie June Smith, Miss Dorothy Also in white were petite Lou the John Heltzels for the week- skirt and puffed sleeves. The at-Cook, Miss None Woodry, Miss Hickman and Norma Jean Gil- end. . . Chatting with a group Elizabeth Morehouse, Miss Helen bertson. . . A few of the under- at the store were Mr. and Mrs. Ostrin, Miss Nancy Stricklin, Miss graduates glimpsed in the grand Walter Fuhrer. . . . Mrs. William Mary Ellen Mills, Miss Alida Mae march . . . Mary Ellen Mills in H. Lytle wearing a gold coat and Sautter and Miss Greta Jones. a fetching dress of red and blue brown hat was seen visiting with On Saturday night, June 11, striped organdy. . . Leone Spauld- the Karl Beckes and the Lowell packed with furniture and another group of the high school ing wearing a colonial style dress Kerns. . . At Ocean Lake was ously loaned by Salem citizens. metre's orchestra from Portland INTERESTING PEOPLE . . . The first exhibit of paintings has been engaged to play for the Leaving the first of July for Ro- girls all were wearing diradl a widely diversified one, with affair. Patrons and patronesses chester, Minn., will be Mrs. J. D. dresses made very short and worn landscapes, portraits, one model will be Mr. and Mrs. Sam Earle Foley and her daughter, Miss mural on plaster, seascap-s and and Mr. and Mrs. William Wirtz. Blair Foley. . . . The latter will industrial paintings. Some are Miss Barbara Williams heads the study for six weeks in the Mayo Miss Kathryn Cook Is by nationally known artists, some committee in charge of the dance, clinic, taking a post-graduate course in laboratory work. . . . Also on June 11 will be the Blair, who is a graduate of Will-Delta Phi alumnae dance at the amette university, has been in armory from 9 to 12 o'clock. The Eugene for the past four years church parsonage was the setting Salem Federal Art center is for group has engaged a popular at the Sacred Heart hospital as for a simple wedding last night band, Gene Coy and his 14-piece medical technologist. . . . Mrs. when Miss Kathryn Cook, daughorchestra, for the affair. Coy has Foley will visit with relatives ter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Cook, > second Les Hite. Tickets are now word from Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Milligan performed the ceremony on sale for the dance and several Fisher (Wanda Reeves) that he at 6:30 o'clock. informal parties are being ar- will begin his medical practice in ranged to precede the affair. Mrs. Lebanon July 1. . . . The past powder blue georgette farmioned Marion Moore heads the commit- year they have been in Portland tee in charge of arrangements. where Dr. Fisher has been in-The Spinster summer swing terning at the Good Samaritan orchids. will be a gala affair of Saturday, hospital. . . Dr. Fisher is a June 18, in the Mirror room of graduate of Willamette and of the Marion hotel from 10 to 1 the Jefferson medical school in to play for the semi-formal dance. ago the Alpha Phi Alpha alumnae rectorate for the affair and is fair at the Marion hotel. . . . being assisted by the Spinsters. One of the patronesses looking wearing black lace. . . . Dancing by . . . Rachel Yocom wearing white taffeta with a girdle of several shades of velvet ribbon, full skirt and short puffed sleeves . . . Mrs. Norval Edwards, chairman of the affair, in a luscious shade of Paris purple taffeta fashioned with net redingote of yellow and purple. . . . Chatting in another group, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harland and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smart. . . Mrs. Har-

The first junior-senior prom to be held at Willamette was given

chic and attractive graduation always play a good game, fol-Robert Ramsden, Mr. and Mrs. yellow sash escorted by Bruce over her blonde locks. . . . In an-Hubert Ashby and Mr. and Mrs. Van Wyngarden. . . Louise other group Mrs. Kate Bell, Mar-Hayes, one of the attractive grad- garet Bell and Doris Drager, the Hostesses are Miss Norma Jean uates, wore white net with tiered girls in shorts and bright colored Gilbertson, Miss Phyllis Fisher, skirt fashioned with plain bodice. jackets. . . . Just finishing a game Miss Genevieve Doud, Miss Jane . . . Elaine Sherman a picture in were Mr. and Mrs. Rex Adolph.

her classmates from Marylhurst college. . . . The high school with low heeled shoes.

Married Saturday

The First Methodist Episcopal became the bride of Mr. Howard in Seattle and is known as the Friends here have received Burrell of Portland. Rev. James

The bride wore a gown of with pleated jacket and puffed sleeves and wore a corsage of the bride's parents to which additional friends were invited followed the wedding. The table was covered with a lace cluth and were Miss Marie Patton. Miss the Rainbow for Girls. Hester Hillpot, Miss Josephine Bross, Miss Lucille Lawrenson and Mrs. H. A. Tucker of Portland.

The couple left on a short wedding trip and will make their home in Portland where he is in business with Miller and of Oregon City, on a four of the Tracy. Mrs. Burrell attended western states. They will resid Salem schools and has been em- relatives and friends in Arizona ployed at the public ut litles and California. On their return

Ritchie-McCain Vows Said at Church Rites

Sunshine on white marquisette, bouquets of summer flowers and traditional wedding music made it a lovely ceremony Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock when Miss and Mrs. William W. McCain, became the bride of Marion Ritchie, son of Mrs. J. W. Ritchie. The service was performed at the First Presbyterian church with Rev. Dean Poindexter officiating. The altar was banked with bouquets of roses and lighted tapers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white marquisette made redingote style over a white satin slip with lace trim collar. She wore a shoulder length tulle veil and carried a bride's bouquet of Talisman roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Anna Mae Grabenhorst was the maid of honor and wore lace made redingote style. The bridesmaids were Miss Nona Woodry, who wore blue and white marquisette trimmed with blue bands and bows, Miss Florence Ritchie, who wore pink chiffon made with satin girdle, full skirt and short sleeves, and Miss Marjorie Pickens in a gown of peach chiffon fashioned with bouffant tendants all carried colonial bouquets of baby breath and sweet

To Go North on Trip Marvin Ritchie served as best man for his brother and ushers were Ed McWain, John Ritchie

A reception at the Ritchie home on North 16th street followed the wedding. The serving table was centered with a bouquet of sweet peas and roses. Bouquets of iris were arranged about the guest rooms, Mrs. J. W. Ritchie, Mrs. W. W. McCain, Mrs. C. R. McCain and Miss Betty Jean McCain assisted in the serving.

Mrs. McCain wore a gown of black net made redingote style and embroidered in white flowers. She wore white accessories and a corsage of sweet peas, Mrs. Ritchie wore a navy blue lace gown with white accessories and sweet pea corsage.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Victoria and northern points. For traveling the brids chose a two-piece suit of roseberry wool with royal blue accessories and corsage of roses. The couple will return to Salem to A reception at the hone of reside where Mr. Ritchie is connected with the Portland General Electric company.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie are well known among the younger centered with a bouquet of sweet- set and Mrs. Ritchie graduated peas and tapers. Assisting about from Salem high school this year. the rooms and in the serving She is now worthy advisor of Miss Opal Yates left for Portland Saturday morning where she will join Miss Harriet and Winnifred Leighton of Seattle, Wash, and Miss Bertha Dillon western states. They will visit commission. Mr. Burrell received the Leighton sisters will motor bis education in Los Angeles. on to Seattle where their parents reside, Miss Leighon is music Mrs. Otto Peterson, Mrs. A. instructor in Molalla high school