"I was so surprised when the club elected me president, I almost forgot my acceptance speech!"

She was prepared, though, in more ways than one, if you count, as you should, her appropriate gown. If you expect at all to play a prominent part at a club banquet, write yourself a memo now of either of these two evening dress versions. Both sleeved and very full skirted, the flower print uses black for shoulder trim and bow, the cross-barred frock (gray on yellow) a deeper décolletage with set-in sleeves increasing the heart-shaped outlines.
