Hotel Employees Strike As Rose Festival Opens

Guests Roam In Corridors Sans Bellhop

Eight Hostels Struck by Walk out of 2000 Union Employees

Hotels Keep up Service as Managers Help Unload Bags

PORTLAND, June 8 (AP)—Guests and hotel employees alike wandered bewildered through Portland hotels tonight as 1,250 to 2,000 union workers quit work in eight of the city's largest hostels.

Elevators stopped running. Guests of the nearly full hotels sought stairways and faced the prospect of going out for their meals. Waiters and waitresses in hotel dining rooms also struck. The strike, called to force recognition of hotel unions as bargaining agencies for all hotel workers, found bellhops, elevator operators and desk clerks uncertain what they would do.

While a large majority accepted the unions' edict, at least a small number refused to quit work.

All Hotels Stay Open
Hotels kept up a semblance of service. Managers took over registration desks, helped unload baggage and carry it to rooms. In some hotels, a number of employees continued to work and the Multnomah, one of the largest, claimed 75 employees stayed on the job. No hotel closed.

Oddities in the News

RICHMOND, Va., June 8 (AP)—Toll-taker John Llewellyn had to talk fast to convince a bus driver that his shocking behavior was a matter of physics and not a practical joke.

The driver handed Llewellyn a coin. Then he drew back with a yell of pain as a charge of static electricity generated by his bus was grounded through the coin and the man standing at the tollhouse on the Robert E. Lee bridge.

Llewellyn's explanation notified the irate driver, but now Llewellyn keeps the bridge surface wet to ground electricity from vehicles before toll-taking time.

Philippine Volcano More Active as Seventh Day Of Eruption Is Passed

Towns at Base of 7900-Foot Fire Cone Evacuated as 10-Year Inactivity Ends; Ashes Cover Four Provinces, Crop Loss Feared

MANILA, June 9 (AP)—Flaming lava in increasing volume poured from the crater of Mayon volcano today, seventh day of eruption of the mighty fire mountain.

Practically all towns and villages near the base of the volcano were deserted after a night of the most violent eruption since the crater awakened last Friday night after 10 years of inactivity.

Clouds of volcanic ash have spread before the wind over four provinces and some observers feared the continued rain of ash might bring destruction to all crops, including those of hemp and coconut plantations.

Refugees jammed half a dozen concentration camps set up in Albay province, location of the 7,900-foot fire pot, and all relief agencies were concentrating on the problem of feeding and housing the multitude.

The populace became more nervous hourly as the volcano showed no signs of quieting. One village reported that sight of fire and smoke spewing from the crater had caused one man (Turn to Page 2, Col. 4)

British Port in Spain Is Bombed

GANDIA, SPAIN, June 8 (AP)—A single insurgent seaplane wrecked this British-operated Spanish port today and other raiders dropped explosive visiting cards along the Mediterranean coast of government Spain.

Rescuers were still digging in the ruins of Alicante, the last previous port of call of the lone raider, when it appeared here, sank a British dredger, bombed and machine-gunned the port, whose rooftops are covered with British colors.

British property was damaged extensively, but there were no casualties. Edwin Apfel, British manager of the port, estimated the damage at about $27,000.

A Madrid dispatch said a British destroyer was putting into Gandia to investigate circumstances of the attack.

Insurgent planes also raided Villajoyosa, just above Alicante, but there was no report of casualties there.

Southerners Hold out on Hour Program

Filibuster Threatened as Irreconcilables Bide Their Time

Even Compromise Is not Satisfactory to Deep South

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—An irreconcilable southern faction held out firmly tonight against a wage-hour compromise otherwise generally approved, and thereby kept uncertain the date on which congress would adjourn.

Whether the southerners would be content to vote against the new proposal or would convert their opposition into a senate filibuster, which might prolong the session for several weeks, was the question. And, for strategic purposes, the southerners weren't saying—yet.

The wage-hour program was formally approved today by 12 of the 14 members appointed in the house and senate to draft a compromise. It was proposed by one of the southern members of the conference committee, Representative Ramspeck (D-Ga.) and contained enough concessions to the south to attract the support of another, Senator Pepper (D-Fla.).

But the remaining southerner, Senator Ellender (D-La.), was quick and emphatic in announcing his opposition. Ellender is regarded as the spokesman for a like-minded southern group. Says Eagle

In the conference committee, however, Ellender was joined only (Turn to Page 6, Col. 3)

All Utilities Quit Work as Bombs Drop

CANTON, June 9 (AP)—Unrelenting Japanese bombardment of this once-prosperous South China metropolis has started huge fires, crippled the city's utilities, and pushed the toll of dead and injured above 3,000.

Twenty-five Japanese planes struck at Canton last night in the third raid of the day and the city's second successive night raid in 12 days of bombardment.

The fliers dropped incendiary bombs on Canton's west end, behind the Asia hotel. A huge fire raged just opposite Shameen, the city's foreign quarter.

Resolution Calls for Committee of Three
Under the resolution, a three-member senate committee would be set up to hear any charges that work relief had been so administered as to "intimidate, coerce or influence" WPA workers.

McCall Admits Writing Notes States Hoover

Body and Bills Found in Area Searched Week ago by Posse

MIAMI, Fla., June 9 (Thursday)—(AP)—Federal agents found the body of kidnaped James Bailey Cash, Jr., last night recovered the $10,000 ransom the father had paid and arrested a suspect.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the federal bureau of investigation, announced Franklin Pierce McCall, 21, a truck driver who had been living at the Cash apartment house in Princeton, admitted writing the three ransom notes and collecting the money.

The body of the five-year-old youngster and the ransom bills were found in the vicinity of Princeton, south of here, in an area that had been searched by volunteer posses last week.

Hoover's statement, which he declined to amplify, said McCall made no admissions as to the perpetration of the actual abduction and slaying and indicated the investigation was not completed. His oral announcement follows in full:

"We have been able to recover the body of the little Cash boy. The body will be removed to Miami for autopsy and examination. It was found about a half mile west of Princeton on Coconino Palm road in a clump of almost impenetrable underbrush, palm-trees, at 2:03 a. m. Thursday.

"The kidnaping took place shortly after 10:00 p. m., May 28, and the first note was delivered at 10:00 p. m. that night at the home of the boy's uncle, Asbury Cash. That note gave the location of the second note, the cabin of a negro, John Manuel, who had nothing to do with the kidnaping. There was a demand therein for $10,000 to be paid in Princeton, May 30. In that note the route was set to be followed by the father, James Bailey Cash, Sr., down Tallahassee road to Mowry road to the Dixie highway and back to Princeton. The route was followed and nothing found.
