Home at Liberty Razed by Flames

LIBERTY—Another disastrous fire occurred here Saturday afternoon when the seven-room home of the R. E. Kennell family burned to the ground. The house stood across the road from the Vitae springs. Mrs. Kennell, who was at home at the time, succeeded in carrying out some of the downstairs furniture, which burned up in the yard. The house was rather isolated and therefore there were no neighbors to assist as soon as fire was discovered. Some woodcutters nearby arrived on the scene too late to assist. About $500 insurance was carried on the house.
